—QUIET WEDDING — A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Parsonage Bedeque, by Rev. A. J. Reynolds on April 26th when Miss Sue M. Muncey, daughter of Mrs. T. C. Muncey of Carleton, was united in marriage to Mr. J. B. Leigh Lowther of North Carleton. Mr. and Mrs. Lowther will reside in North Carleton where they have the best wishes of a host of friends.—S

—REPORTS GOOD ROADS FROM CHARLOTTETOWN — A Summerside gentleman driving to Charlottetown and back on Saturday last reports a very good road with no snow, via Borden, Carleton, Victoria, then to DeSable and Argyle Shore to Canoe Cove and across North River Bridge into town. He assured the Guardian that motorists going that way would have no difficulty. On his return trip he went through Bonshaw and found snow drifts and wet places which were only got through with considerable trouble and determination.—S

—SIGNS OF SPRING—Mr. Paul Wedge, Summerside, has been renovating the exterior premises of Mr. Benjamin McPadyen, Kensington. He has painted a neatly arranged circular flower bed and several others of varying forms diagonally showing already are Crocuses, tulips, Bleeding hart, lilies, tulips, and several other individuals of the phaeogamus plant family. Mr. Wedge is an artist in imitating nature's work, and when nature shall have radiated its effulgence Mr. Wedge's skill will speak.—Y.

BAPTIST TROOP

At the regular meeting on Monday ten Scouts were present. The same ten are always present and do good work in Scouting. Some time was spent in preparing the troop knot board and putting knots on. Later a competition was held by the whole troop to see who could tie the following three knots the fastest reef, bowline and clove hitch. Scout Don Stewart tied the three in fifteen seconds and Scout Jack Fitchie was second in 22 seconds.

Competition for the evening was won by the Wolf Patrol. A hike will be held on May 18th.

Flag Competition Three committees have agreed to score the various troops during the month of May, and troops may expect a visit during the next two weeks.

The following is the score for the competition:
Troop headquarters 10 points
Games 5 points
Knowledge of tests 25 points
Scout spirit 25 points
Personal inspection 15 points
Attendance 10 points

ZION TROOP

The new scout committee of Zion will be Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. R. C. Parent, Mr. E. A. Cudmore, Mr. Alex MacDonald and Mr. Preston McLaine.

The Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts has written that a movement is on foot to create a memorial to the late Dr. Robertson. This is to be in the form of a bronze tablet placed in the Head office of the Association, and the raising of a fund for the training of commissioners. It is planned that every Scout and Scout leader in Canada will have an opportunity to contribute. Further information will be obtained from your Scoutmaster.

THE NEW PRESIDENT

P. E. Island Scouts welcome the new President, Mr. E. W. Beatty, President of the C. P. R. He will fill the position occupied by the late Dr. Robertson, and it is expected will do much to further the Scouting cause in Canada.

CAMP, CAMP, CAMP

All troops are now making plans to send boys to camp. The cost is only $5.50 per boy and many scouts are now busy saving money for it. Besides the Provincial Camp it is probable that Bedeque will have a camp of their own. There are sixteen keen scouts in the Bedeque-Freetown troop. The Scoutmaster, Rev. A. G. Crowe, an experienced Scoutmaster is doing excellent work. Mr. Crowe is planning to be at the Gillwell Camp.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES TAYLOR

James Taylor, a well known and respected resident of Rice Point, died at his home on April 25th at the age of seventy years. The late Mr. Taylor was by occupation, a farmer. Industrious, intelligent, honest and kind, he was a valued member of the community.

A member of the Church of Scotland, the reality of his religion was shown by a calm faith in God, an unflinching optimism and a delight in doing good. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters. A few years ago, a son William and his wife died within a few days of each other leaving a family of six small children. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor brought these children home from the west and assumed the responsibility of their support and their education.

The funeral services were conducted in the home and at the graveside by Rev. Wallace MacWalker, who spoke from the text: "He giveth His beloved sleep." The selections sung were the twenty-third psalm and the second paraphrase. The pall bearers were Peter Currie, James J. Taylor, William Taylor, Allan MacDougall, Charles MacDougall and James MacDougall.
