—BIRCH HILL SCHOOL.—The half yearly examination of Birch Hill School took place on the afternoon of Friday, June 26th. There was a large attendance of ratepayers and visitors and the result of the examination was a credit not only to the teacher Miss Loretta M. Leonard whose ability as a teacher was plainly indicated by the readiness of the pupils to answer all questions put to them but also to the pupils themselves.

—MRS. PUTNAM A DEACONESS of the Presbyterian Church delivered a stirring address on the social evils of our country to a large congregation in Lot 14 Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening last. She dwelt principally on the white slave traffic and told at length of the work being done by the Social Service Committee in the cities of Canada.—P.

—PORT HILL.—The half yearly examination of Port Hill School took place on the afternoon of Friday, June 26th. There was a large attendance of ratepayers and visitors and the result of the examination was a credit not only to the teacher Miss Loretta M. —APPROPRIATED.—A Tyne Valley correspondent writes:—"Now that the teacher, Mr. Joseph Kelly is leaving, justice would not be done unless some words of appreciation were written in his behalf. Mr. Kelly has laboured faithfully, energetically and honorably in this school district for a year and a half. He has always acted civilly both to old and young, and has maintained a strong moral character, at all times working for the right and conducting himself more like a clergyman than a school teacher.
