CANADIAN LEGION HOCKEY TEAM

All Legion members and all veterans eligible for Legion membership who are interested in forming a hockey team please attend a meeting in the Legion Home on Friday, Nov. 16th at 7:30 P.M.

Many inquiries have been received of late as to just what the plans are for hockey this coming season. Evidently the inquiries emanate from the fact that the Forum is now in full swing.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

We are sorry but we cannot say. We do know that plans are being formulated for all branches of the pastime but just what concrete form they will take is still very hard to say.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Although the midget and juvenile squads that have been performing of late years have failed to draw near the semblance of good attendances that they deserve the "kids" have been performing in a manner worthy of far better support. But be that as it may.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Then again a few weeks back it was strongly thought that strong intermediate leagues would be in operation all over the Province. But since then we have heard nothing on this matter. Of course that doesn't mean by any stretch of the imagination that the leagues are not going to be functioning. It is very likely that plans are being put into operation and we hope so. But we write this as an explanation to the many inquiries we have been receiving, particularly in the last few days.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

And while on the subject of hockey, there is a lot of strong sentiment regarding the forming of a strong junior team here this season. It would not detract any way, to our way of thinking, from the proposed junior league, and there is enough junior material right in this city that, given the proper incentive, should compare favorably with the past good teams that have been witnessed in action.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Cpl. Joe Vela, who owns half of light-heavyweight champion Gus Lesnevich, heard about those big purses they're offering Gus for a fight, and has got in touch with his co-owner, Lew Diamond, from somewhere in Germany, about an advance on his "cut."

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The honest brakeman, Lew's calling name on Jacob's Beach, replied that the future looks rosy, but it isn't here yet. This is one way of noting that all signs now indicate the streets of Bash Boulevard will be paved with gold pieces any day now.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

It looks, too, as if this prospective biggest boom in boxing history is going to cover a lot more territory other than the United States. The fresh money is indicated in Europe as well.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Nat Fleischer, editor of Ring magazine, reports that British promoters and fight men vision such a boom that they've asked him to see how much some American boxers would take to fight in the United Kingdom.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Jack Solomons, the London impresario who apparently has succeeded the late Jeff Dixon as the top punch producer in Europe, is keen about such nose-smashers as Lesnevich, Manny Ortiz, the California bantam boss; Ray Robinson, the uncrowned champ of the welters; Jake Lamotta, the middleweight with the rock chin, and Lee Oma, Detroit heavy, among others. He wants to show them in a double exposure — both London and Paris.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The icy northwest has failed to put a chill on the hopes of a top-ranking heavyweight who says he can lick Joe Louis. He is 27-year-old Elmer "Violent" Ray, a Florida negro who once wrestled alligators for a living. Two things haunt Ray.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

He hates the snow and sub-zero weather of Minneapolis where he makes his home. And he has a deep-rooted personal faith that he can knock the block off any heavyweight contender now in the ring.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Ray's record is good. He has won 32 straight fights, 29 by the knockout route. And one nationally recognized boxing publication lists him this month as the number four contender for the heavyweight title.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Says Ray: "Man, just give me the chance, and I'll put Louis away as cold and stiff as an icicle."

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

The villain of the story seems to be Mike Jacobs—the man who says who is to fight in New York's Madison Square Garden—and a lot of other places for that matter.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Ray's manager, Tommy O'Loughlin, has come up with an unprecedented offer to force Jacobs into giving Ray a chance at the title.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

This is the offer: Jacobs can pay any one of the four-ranking white heavyweight contenders whatever percentage they want of a main event purse. He says Ray will take what's left just to prove he can knock any of them cold and win the right to face Louis.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Meanwhile, Ray is keeping in tip-top shape. He safeguards himself against the cold he hates. He huddles inside a sheep-lined jacket and shivers in the 80 degree temperature he likes to keep in his home.

♣ ♣ ♣ ♣

Here's what he wears on his daily four-mile run around the Lake of the Isles in Minneapolis:

♣ ♣ ♣

A suit of woolen underwear, a pair of track pants under a pair of trousers made from a horse blanket, two T-shirts, two sweat shirts, two pairs of woolen socks, lumberjack boots, electrically heated gloves and a stocking cap, warm while waiting for the nod from Jacobs to come in out of the boxing cold.

Louis Looks Rusty In Workout

World heavyweight champion Joe Louis admits that he's too rusty to spar more than two rounds at the moment.

Louis opened his training with a sparring match against Gene Felton. The champ, weighing 220 pounds, went only two rounds with Felton, opening up a bit in the second stanza.

That little session convinced the champ that he needed a lot more tuning for the Conn title match.

Sculling Champ Lukewarm To Aussie Offer

(By The Canadian Press)

HAMILTON, Nov. 15—Lieut. Bob Pearce of the Canadian Navy said tonight he is willing to defend his world championship sculling title in Canada or the United States, but is "luke-warm" toward a proposal forwarded by Flt. Lt. Evans Paddon of the Royal Australian Air Force.

Paddon, Australia's professional champion, had challenged Pearce to defend his world title in a race over the Nepean River course near Sydney, Australia, next May.

Pearce said he "can not see how I could spare the time to go into training and make the trip to Australia."

American League

(By The Associated Press)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 15—Buffalo Bisons racked up their sixth straight triumph and their eighth in the last nine starts, at the expense of New Haven Eagles, 3-1, here tonight before a crowd of 1,200. It marked the Eagles' fifth straight defeat.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 15—After spotting Indianapolis Capitals a pair of first period tallies, scored within 28 seconds, Providence Reds set off on a scoring splurge and gained a 7-2 victory in an American Hockey League game tonight before a 4,026 crowd.

Red Wings Come From Behind To Whip Chicago

DETROIT, Nov. 15 — (AP) — Detroit Red Wings came from behind to whip Chicago Black Hawks, 5-2, in a National Hockey League game here tonight before 13,537 fans.

The win enabled the Detroiters to climb into a second-place tie with the Chicago Club, one game behind Montreal which gained exclusive possession of first place by whipping New York 2-0 tonight.

The Red Wings drew first blood on Ted Lindsay's first goal of the season early in the first period.

The Hawks with Don Grosso out of the lineup because of a shoulder injury, played with only eight subs. They gave goalie Harry Lumley little trouble after the opening period, though the 19-year-old netminder had to knockaway 10 Chicago shots on goal in the second. Altogether, Lumley had 21 saves to Karakas' 27.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Detroit, Lindsay (Hollett, Howe) 7:17
2—Chicago, Hamill 9:17
3—Chicago, M. Bentley (D. Bentley) 13:37
4—Detroit, Carveth (Seibert) 18:21
Penalties — Hollett, Horeck, Mariucci.

Second Period

5—Detroit, A. Brown (Carveth) 11:100
Penalties — Liscombe, Cooper.

Third Period

6—Detroit, M. Bruneteau (J. Brown) 2:51
7—Detroit, E. Bruneteau 11:48
Penalty — Hamilton.

Canadiens Shut Out New York Rangers 2-0

(By The Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Nov. 15—Montreal Canadiens rallied around goalie Bill Durnan to shut out New York Rangers 2-0 before 11,429 people here tonight to take sole possession of the National Hockey League leadership.

Canuck's victory coincided with a 5-2 defeat suffered by the second-place Chicago Black Hawks and lifted Montreal one game ahead of Hawks. Durnan had an easy time in the Montreal nets but was given a long ovation from the crowd as he earned his first shut-out of the season and overcame the one-goal jinx that seemed to prevail against him.

Rangers played fast and wide open hockey but could not cope with that extra power of Canadiens who maintained the offensive from the opening whistle to the last wailing of the siren.

Chuck Rayner turned in a brilliant performance in the New York net and drew a good amount of help from Canadiens' bad luck around the nets to prevent what otherwise may have been a much higher score.

The summary:

First Period

1—Montreal, Peters (Chamberlain) 18:34
Penalty: Lamoureux.

Second Period

Scoring: None.
Penalties: Shibicky, Chamberlain, Goldup.

Third Period

2—Montreal, Chamberlain (Peters) 18:06
Penalties: Colville, Heller, Bouchard.

N. Y. Racing Season Ends With Fabulous Records

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 — (AP) — New York's wild-betting 154-day racing season wound up today with a set of fabulous records that should take this report of it out of the sports section and drop it either into the financial page or among the kiddies' fairy tales.

Piling up a collection of money marks that a few years ago would have qualified their forecaster for a private room in the booby hatch, the campaign ended with a total of $450,663,190 bet for the season, with all precincts not yet reported.

Finishing up with the same high-flying flare at the mutuels that has made every day of this season look like free sample day at the mint, a crowd of 28,665 turned out at Jamaica for the get-away and made the iron men hum for the last time with $3,424,035.

Despite the 35-day war-time slice in the length of the campaign, this year's marks eclipsed the $410,230,4002 bet total of 1944 and the $27,364,382.78 that helped swell New York State taxes.

Warneke Released By Chicago Cubs

CHICAGO, Nov. 15 — (AP) — Lon Warneke, famed "Arkansas Hummin' Bird," was released by Chicago Cubs today with the announcement that the veteran pitcher was seeking an umpiring job.

Warneke voluntarily retired from the Cubs in June, 1944, but was reinstated a year later. During the 1945 pennant drive, the 36-year-old right hander served mainly as a relief hurler, pitching 14 innings in nine games and winding up with one defeat against no victories.

Warneke finished the 1943 season with a major league record of 192 victories and 120 defeats, and three 20-game seasons for the Cubs, whom he joined in 1930 as a rookie from Reading, Pa., in the International League.

Olympic Zenith Wins Handicap

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 — (AP) — William Helis' Olympic Zenith closed fast in the stretch today to win the $15,000 Missouri Handicap at Jamaica, as New York's 154-day racing season closed with a total of more than $450,000,000 bet and revenue of more than $30,000,000 to the state.

The top-weighed son of Mahmoud, carrying 123 pounds and ridden by Mike Caffarella, finished three lengths in front of the rapid-rushing Reply Paid from the barn of Mrs. Louis Rabinowitz to pick up the $9,975 winner's end.

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

Tommy Gorman's $50,000 offer for controlling stock in the Ottawa Hockey Club of the National Hockey League was accepted by Frank Ahearn 21 years ago today. The Ottawa Hockey Club has passed out of existence but Gorman still is identified with the game as manager of Montreal Canadiens.

WALCOT, England — (Reuters) —Two Norfolk fishermen went out in a small rowboat to fish for herring and caught — a bottle-nosed shark! The shark was 13ft long, 5 ft. in width and had a mouth measuring 17 inches across.

Will Not Recognize Protest

The professional baseball world is fairly bubbling over with news.

Commissioner "Happy" Chandelr has refused to recognize a protest from the Negro National and American League concerning the way in which Jackie Robinson, a negro, was signed to play with Montreal, farm club of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

And while Chandler was refusing to put Branch Rickey, boss of the Dodgers, on the pan for the methods used in signing Robinson, Larry MacPhail—top man of the New York Yankees—was being indicted by a Maryland County grand jury on charges of assault and disorderly conduct.

The fiery redheaded boss of the Yankees, it seems, disrupted communications and a few other things at the Bel Air Telephone Exchange in Maryland. It happened last October fifth when telephone operators went on a four-hour strike. When MacPhail failed to get a call through, he allegedly stormed into the business manager's office, used some high voltage words and also his fists. Today a grand jury indicted him on both counts—disorderly conduct and assault.

But while their boss was getting the sad news, the Yankees were receiving glad tidings. Joe "Flash" Gordon, their pre-war second sacker, expects his discharge from the U. S. Army Air Forces Thursday. With Gordon back in the fold, the Yankees can boast of two of the classiest second sackers in the big leagues—Gordon and George "Snuffy" Stirnweiss.

Another New York big leaguer—Pee Wee Reese of the Brooklyn Dodgers—has received his discharge from the navy and is busy trying to get acquainted with his two-year-old daughter. Pee Wee says he's kept in good shape during three years in the navy and is confident he can earn back his shortstop berth with the Dodgers next spring.

OPPOSE BEER PARLORS

TRURO, N. S., Nov. 15—(CP)—Definite action was being taken to fight efforts being put forth to open beer parlors at Halifax, Sydney and in every other town in the Province, Rev. J. Fitzpatrick of Truro, president of the Nova Scotia Temperance Association, told delegates to the second annual meeting here tonight.

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!
Pepless Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet—you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and pepless.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams Pink Pills today.

Play, Swim Clothes Very Brief For '46

BY DOROTHY ROE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15 — (AP) —"They've gone about as far as they can go..."

That's the theme song of California's 1946 collection of swim and play clothes, being shown this week to visiting fashion editors from many sections of the United States.

The well-dressed woman, in the California theory, is the undressed woman, who is not afraid to bare her epidermis to the sun and who exposes midriff, back, arms and legs with sang froid and telling effect. The bare midriff swim suit now is universal, in the California collections, with covered up styles reserved strictly for grandmothers.

The less coverage, the more style is the way California sees it —and since California sportswear usually sets the pace for the United States, a season of maximum exposure next summer and during the coming resort season may be expected.

Cole of California repeats his "swoon suit" success in many fabrics — that's the little number worn by many women last summer, with the tied bra and the skin-tight shorts laced up the sides. Many innovations are shown in the 1946 line, such as "ballet of the seas" suits, the "doodle drip" suit and others — but the swoon suit continues to lead the parade.

Catalina presents a "whistle suit" in blue and white striped glazed chintz with diaper draped shorts and a draw-string bra. It's unnamed, explained its designers, because the boys always whistle when they see it.

Bloomfield

The Bloomfield Y.P.U. held their annual Hallowe'en social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alban Cracwell on Tuesday evening, Oct. 30th with an attendance of 25. The recreation period was conducted by the convenor, Mrs. Errol Stetson, assisted by Miss Mary Best. The worship service was conducted by the president, using as her theme, "Prayer". Hymn, Breathe On Me Breath Of God. Quiet music was followed by a solo by Rev. George Gough, Sweet Hour of Prayer; Scripture, St. Matthew 6:5-13, by Edward MacAusland; meditation by Clayton Stetson; prayer, Mary Best; poem, True Prayer, Mrs. George Gough; poem, Rules For Daily Life; reading by the leader, Mrs. Reginald MacAusland; reading, "Prayer," by the leader; closing hymn, "Holy Spirit Hear Us"; benediction, Rev. George Gough. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a pleasant social hour followed. A sing-song was enjoyed by all, music being furnished by Mrs. Elmer and Miss Ruby Craswell. The singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds", and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" brought a very pleasant and profitable evening to a close.

The death occurred at her home at Fortune Cove of Mrs. James Brown at the age of 71 years. Mrs. Brown suffered a severe stroke about three weeks ago, from which she failed to rally. To the grief-stricken husband, daughters, sons, brothers and sisters, the sympathy of the community is extended.

The many friends of Mrs. John Laird are pleased to learn that she is improving after her recent illness.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Bloomfield on the birth of a daughter at the O'Leary Nursing Home at O'Leary, on Nov. 2nd.

Master Freddie Horne of Bloomfield spent two very pleasant days at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, Rosebank.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bourque and son Dennie Junior, of Bloomfield, have moved into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeClair. They plan to reside there for a couple of months. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeClair have gone to Boston for the winter. Since moving to Mr. LeClair's residence, Mrs. Bourque has been under the doctor's care. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Residents of Bloomfield and vicinity extend congratulations to Mr. Keith Boswell who opened the store for business on Friday, Nov. 9th. Keith has had the store remodelled and redecorated, which is very pleasing to the eye. The store was formerly owned by his uncle, the late A. J. Pratt. Keith returned from overseas a few months ago. Keith's many customers wish him every success in his new mercantile business.

Miss Marion Birch who has been employed at Bloomfield, was a passenger on the evening bus to her home in Portage on Saturday evening. Marion plans to work at the dehydration plant at Summerside the coming week.

Mrs. Harry MacAusland and sons Orban and Alvin, and daughter Jean, of Bloomfield, moved to Charlottetown on Friday where they intend spending the winter months. Mrs. MacAusland's husband is a patient in the Provincial Sanatorium, where he is greatly improving. The many friends of Mrs. MacAusland and family regret their departure from their midst. B

DEMAND EXCESS FARE FOR ARTIFICIAL LEG

DUBLIN, Nov. 15 — (CP) —Because he lost a leg in 1916 a County Wexford flour miller has been asked to pay excess fare on a trip home from England.

He was stopped at the barrier at Westland Row Station, Dublin, and told he must pay extra on the artificial leg he had brought back with him — because a spare leg wasn't classified as personal luggage.

The miller, Henry A. Davis of Enniscorthy, lost his leg when a hand grenade hit him as he led a platoon against a German trench at Arras. He won the Military Cross and since then has worn an artificial leg.

He says he won't pay the excess demanded on the new leg he bought.

EASTBOURNE, England — (CP) —Evacuated from their home four years ago, an Eastbourne family returned and lighted a fire. Clouds of smoke billowed out; the chimney was plugged by an incendiary bomb.

Brule-Currie Wedding

St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday, October 4th, 1945, at 9 a.m., when Mary Maude, daughter of Mrs. Annie Currie and the late Ernest Currie of Charlottetown was united in Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Paul Eustache Brule, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brule of Ottawa, Ontario. Rev. Fr. J.W. McCardle performed the ceremony and also celebrated Nuptial Mass. The bride was given in marriage by her brother Alfred. Mrs. Joseph Dougan presided at the organ and during the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung by Miss Lucy Blanchard.

The bride was becomingly attired in a floor length dress of white lace over taffeta with bridal veil held in place with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of snapdragons and babysbreath. Her matron of honour was Miss Gabrielle Jolicoeur of Ottawa who chose for her gown torquoise blue net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by Mr. Stanley Doiron.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl bracelet and to each of the bride's attendants, a gold cross and chain and to the bridegroom a sterling silver cigarette case.

At the conclusion of Mass, the bridal party motored to the Queen Hotel where a sumptuous breakfast was served to her most immediate friends and relatives, after which a few very enjoyable days were spent with her mother and friends.

The wedding gifts consisted of silver, cut glass and cheques etc. Prior to their marriage the bride was the guest of honour at several showers in Ottawa where she was employed in the Civil Service with the Department of National Defence at which many useful gifts were received.

On the following Monday the couple returned to Ottawa where they will in future reside where the groom is on the staff of Bryson & Graham Stores. The bride travelled in a Churchill blue suit with matching accessories.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Laurent Charron and Miss Gabrielle Jolicoeur, both of Ottawa.

Their many friends wish them every happiness.
