

SPORTING NEWS

Orioles Spoil Opening For Royals By 10-7 Win

(By The Canadian Press) BALTIMORE, May 3.—The Baltimore Orioles spoiled the home opening at Montreal yesterday for 10,000 fans by taking the ball game from the Royals 10-7.

The Orioles scored all their runs in two big innings, the third and the fourth, turning across five runs in each frame. Jean Pierre Roy, who started for the Royals, was charged with the loss. Tom Warren, who replaced him, stemmed the tide in the third, but was unable for five more runs in the next. George Inman, who pitched for Baltimore, was chased from the mound in the sixth, but John Podgajny held off the Royals' onslaught for the remainder of the game.

At Rochester, the home opening was unfortunate also, Jersey City downing the Red Wings 7-4, before 8,600 fans.

Adrian Zabala, scoring his second victory over Rochester and his fourth straight, yielded eight hits. His opponent, Kemp Wicker, was nipped for nine strikes, the Little Giants sewing up the verdict with a two-run rally in the fourth.

Well-Known British Golfer Dies At 43

(By The Canadian Press) WOLVERHAMPTON, England, May 3.—Dr. Archibald Reid MacCallum, who played for Great Britain, died of a heart ailment at his home in Glasgow at the age of 43. He was a native of Edinburgh.

Lucky Number In Bowling Drawing

The lucky number in a drawing for a box of chocolates last night was 152, it was announced. The affair was in aid of a championship bowling team which will go to Woodstock, N.B. for the Maritime Championships. The chocolates are at Jimmy's Shoe Shine Parlor.

Dempsey Thrills School In Egypt

(By The Associated Press) CAIRO, May 3.—Cmdr. Jack Dempsey of the United States Coast Guard, former world heavyweight boxing champion, thrilled two Egyptian grade schools today when he made surprise appearances at their physical education classes and handed out personal instructions on the art of self defense.

To Move Office Of Commissioner Of Big League Ball

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, May 3.—The office of baseball commissioner, located in Chicago during the 24-year regime of the late K. M. Landis, will be moved to Cincinnati, commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler disclosed today.

Indicating it may be "longer than expected" before he resigns from the United States Senate, the Kentucky legislator also announced he had named Leslie M. O'Connor, secretary to Judge Landis, as "special assistant" and appointed Walter W. Mulberry, his senate secretary, as successor to O'Connor.

Mulberry will be in charge of the Cincinnati office until a year and a half after his election as commissioner.

He declared he would keep the game "free from race-track gambling or any other kind of gambling," he said he would continue to attend the Kentucky Derby but would not wager. "I won't bet, because I have suggested that players refrain from betting."

Bartolo Favorite For Scrap Tonight

(By The Associated Press) BOSTON, May 3.—(AP)—Having completed his first training period in three years without an injury, Sal Bartolo of Boston, the N.B.A. featherweight titlist, is expected to rule as a 2-1 favorite when he attempts to even his score with Gus (Pell) Mell, Montreal slugger, in their return 10-round bout at the Boston Garden.

Lavoie Wins From Morin In Fourth

(By The Associated Press) MONCTON, N. B., May 3.—(CP)—Ringside, clever Tony Morin went down before the hard punches of Moncton's Lennie Lavoie here tonight in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round bout. Lavoie put the Montrealer away for keeps after scoring three knockdowns in the second canto.

Baseball Results

AMERICAN AND NATIONAL LEAGUES
All games postponed.
INTERNATIONAL
Baltimore	695 500 000—10 13 0
Montreal	810 640 011—7 14 0
Hooks, Podgajny and Devlin; Roy, Warren and Todd.
Jersey City	390 000 000—7 9 3
Rochester	490 000 000—4 8 3
Zabala and McWeeney; Wicker and Martin.

REMEMBER WHEN

(By The Canadian Press) Even in New York Sunday baseball was illegal. Gotham's ball fans saw their first lawful pay-to-get-in ball game 26 years ago tonight, after the enabling law had been passed a few days previously. The Philadelphia Athletics defeated New York Giants 4-3 on that occasion.

"Big Poison" Waner Released By Yanks

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 3.—(AP)—Paul (Big Poison) Waner was handed his unconditional release today by New York Yankees on the eve of their first long trip of the 1945 season.

Waner joined the Yanks last fall after drawing the plunk slip from Brooklyn where he had batted .287 in 43 games. Appearing in nine games as a pinchhitter for Joe McCarthy's men, the 42-year-old veteran collected only one hit in seven at bats. He walked his only time up in the '45 campaign.

Waner joined the Yanks last fall after drawing the plunk slip from Brooklyn where he had batted .287 in 43 games. Appearing in nine games as a pinchhitter for Joe McCarthy's men, the 42-year-old veteran collected only one hit in seven at bats. He walked his only time up in the '45 campaign.

SPORT SHORTS FROM BRITAIN

(By Allan Nicholson) CANADIAN PRESS STAFF WRITER LONDON, April 27.—(CP)—The horse racing season in England on the turf last year, got away with an early triumph as this season's season opening race, the 2,000 Guineas, was won by a colt named "The Duke" who was trained by the late Sir Gordon Richards.

The Duke, a colt of the Duke of Devonshire, was trained by the late Sir Gordon Richards. He was a colt of the Duke of Devonshire, trained by the late Sir Gordon Richards.

No Racing On France's Most Famed Track

(By The Associated Press) CHANTILLY, France, May 3.—(AP)—Racing is on at the tracks in and near Paris—and the betting is heavy—but on France's most famed track the ponies run for exercise only.

The hippodrome of French racing, an hour's ride from Paris, was stripped by the Germans. The stands were torn down for fuel and the pari-mutuel equipment was torn up for scrap metal.

During their occupation of France, the Germans insisted that racing continue to keep the Frenchman's mind off his troubles and also to permit the Germans to get their hands on the seven-per cent wagering tax.

But now Chantilly harbors hundreds of American soldiers, and the famed plant has been turned into a baseball diamond. A large sign proclaims it is "Roberts Field" (after the home field of the Brooklyn Dodgers).

BOWLING

ACES:
H. Conway	216 133 164
S. Traylor	122 151 120
P. Ready	123 145 190
M. R. MacGuigan	148 148 167
M. A. Farmer	135 124 162
L. Buehler	197 284 156
Total—3628.

Army Rules Bar Electioneering

(By The Associated Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—The only uniforms in evidence at political meetings in America where the Federal and Ontario election campaigns will be those worn by service candidates or service spectators.

Under King's regulations no serviceman, other than a candidate, is allowed to wear campaign buttons. He also may not participate in an election as an agent or spokesman for any candidate, or engage in partisan work in connection with any such election.

The regulation also says the serviceman cannot deal in any way with party funds. Recently, regulations governing activities of service candidates were relaxed so that candidates could get leave immediately after their election to campaign in their own communities.

Ends Hearings On Taking Co-Operatives

(By The Associated Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—The Royal Commission on Co-operatives today completed hearing of evidence in a four-month investigation of the position of co-operatives under present tax legislation.

Proposals for changes in the legislation to more specifically exempt co-operatives from income tax were made by the commission at its final hearing by W. C. Good of Brantford, Ont. president of the Co-operative Union of Canada.

Co-operatives now are exempt providing not more than 25 per cent of their business is their membership. Mr. Good said, "It is uncertain about the interpretation of the law, however, that there was considerable discussion."

To Rescind Freeze On Teachers In Sept.

(By The Associated Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—The selective service "freezing" restriction which prevents teachers from leaving their profession except under special permit will be rescinded in September, Labor Minister Mitchell announced tonight.

Mr. Mitchell said this was in line with the Federal Government's policy of discontinuing wartime restrictions "just as soon as their purpose has disappeared."

Vancouver Waitress Is Found Murdered

(By The Associated Press) VANCOUVER, May 3.—The murder of Olga Havryluk, 26-year-old waitress, has given new impetus to the campaign of the Hotel and Restaurant Employers' Union (H.R.E.U.) for protection of girls working on night shifts, Union officials said today.

Mrs. Emily Watts, Union organizer, herself a waitress, said young girls who work on night shifts are "on their own" one man after another on their way home.

"We are in favor of a shift that keeps a girl in the cafe in those dangerous hours," Mrs. Watts said.

Miss Havryluk was last seen at three o'clock Wednesday morning shortly after she had left her night shift job. Her battered body was found two hours later on the beach at English Bay.

Perfumes had been used over since human beings populated the earth.

ARMOURY May 30th to June 2nd Charlottetown

VAUDEVILLE SHOWS and EXHIBITIONS
Legion and Navy Auxiliaries
Red Cross Corps and Kinsmen Club

DON'T MISS THE CARNIVAL

MIDWAY GAMES of SKILL
Games of Chance
BINGO
FREE DRAWINGS
15c—ADMISSION—15c

With Canada's Naturalists

(By The Associated Press) TORONTO, May 3.—(CP)—Hitchhikers plague the bird tourists of Canada as well as human travelers.

The "Connet, former trapper in the Great Bear Lake area and now a sergeant with the Canadian Army Overseas, tells in his recently-published book "Sixty Below" how a hummingbird arrived at the northern reaches of the Mackenzie River after stowing away on a migrating goose. Tony shot the goose for food and found that the bird had killed the hummingbird which had stowed away in its wing into the feathers on the goose's back.

These tiny travellers can fly forward, backward, sideways, or remain stationary in the air. They can travel hundreds of miles on their lightning rapid wings, but they prefer to rest on a twig or leaf.

Adaptability and mobility are not confined to hummingbirds, however. A pair of robins built their nest under the air pipes of a Canadian Pacific Railway locomotive at Peterborough, Ont., last spring. The engine was on the move in the night and the birds were blown off their feet eight hours a day. The birds followed their mobile home about the yard and the nest was being built in the locomotive crew did their switching with great care to avoid breaking them. The eggs all hatched safely.

(By The Associated Press) TORONTO, May 3.—(CP)—The area around Victoria, B.C. is the only part of America where the skylark is found. The European songster, famous in the ode by Shelley, was introduced here many years ago and appears to be firmly established. In appearance it is

Special Bingo

SPORTING CLUB TONIGHT
In aid of the Knights of Columbus Recreation Centre. Come and bring a friend.
Time—8.30 p.m. Admission 35c

Doenitz Gov't In Copenhagen?

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 3.—(CP)—The BBC said tonight that members of the Doenitz Government were moving to Copenhagen, indicating that the Germans intend to set up headquarters there.

Quoting its Stockholm reporter, BBC said it had "certain knowledge that Doenitz was in Copenhagen this afternoon." The broadcast not confirmed elsewhere, was heard by NBC.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—Labor Minister Mitchell announced tonight that national selective service was making a "sample" check among 10 per cent of the 180,000 men in agriculture on postponement of military training to make sure they were remaining at work.

"It is the intention" said Mr. Mitchell, "to see to it that men given postponement of military training for the purpose of working in agriculture shall work at that industry. While the assistance men from the farm postponement to other hard-pressed industries during the slack season on the land is much appreciated, it is impossible to let men from the farm leave that industry the year round."

Heavy food production in Canada was even more essential than in the earlier years of the war. The 180,000 farm workers on postponement were a highly important section of farm manpower.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

Check On Army Postponements In Agriculture

(By The Canadian Press) OTTAWA, May 3.—(CP)—Effective May 4, the wholesale ceiling price on imported grapes will be 26 cents a pound plus transportation costs, the Prices Board announced tonight.

A. A. Shelly, director of retail and wholesale foods for the Board, said that the ceiling will be limited to their usual mark-ups over this price.

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler will conduct himself. He may do all by changing his coat but we doubt it.

Climbing off the rubber table in the dressing room at Toronto Maple Leafs at the Garden recently, Major Conn Smythe said he was prepared to give up his last hockey shots of the 1944-45 N.H.L. season.

"I've been wondering," he said, "if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler will conduct himself. He may do all by changing his coat but we doubt it.

Climbing off the rubber table in the dressing room at Toronto Maple Leafs at the Garden recently, Major Conn Smythe said he was prepared to give up his last hockey shots of the 1944-45 N.H.L. season.

"I've been wondering," he said, "if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler will conduct himself. He may do all by changing his coat but we doubt it.

Climbing off the rubber table in the dressing room at Toronto Maple Leafs at the Garden recently, Major Conn Smythe said he was prepared to give up his last hockey shots of the 1944-45 N.H.L. season.

"I've been wondering," he said, "if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler will conduct himself. He may do all by changing his coat but we doubt it.

Climbing off the rubber table in the dressing room at Toronto Maple Leafs at the Garden recently, Major Conn Smythe said he was prepared to give up his last hockey shots of the 1944-45 N.H.L. season.

"I've been wondering," he said, "if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler will conduct himself. He may do all by changing his coat but we doubt it.

Climbing off the rubber table in the dressing room at Toronto Maple Leafs at the Garden recently, Major Conn Smythe said he was prepared to give up his last hockey shots of the 1944-45 N.H.L. season.

"I've been wondering," he said, "if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler will conduct himself. He may do all by changing his coat but we doubt it.

Climbing off the rubber table in the dressing room at Toronto Maple Leafs at the Garden recently, Major Conn Smythe said he was prepared to give up his last hockey shots of the 1944-45 N.H.L. season.

"I've been wondering," he said, "if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team. I've been wondering if I should be allowed to play for the team."

The name has changed and I don't know if Bill would have shown any more class against Canadiens and Red Wings in the playoffs than Ted and Gus.

Smythe went on to point out that players like Wally Stanowski, who played for the Canadiens, and I've conceded Arns and Taylor couldn't have done any better than Kennedy and Bodnar.

"My own conclusion is many of the so-called experts have greatly underestimated the teams and the individuals in the league this winter. I don't think they are going to be any better than Kennedy and Bodnar as they go to the playoffs."

SPORTING NEWS

Not letting any grass grow under their feet

Queen Square School baseball league got underway last week with two games being played despite weather that was better suited to football.

The league action promises to furnish some exciting action when it is completed. Errors have been prominent which, due to the early season, is quite to be expected before calling it quits the brand of ball is bound to improve considerably.

And far more important than the winning of the games is the experience that the majority breaking into the game will derive from the encounter. They will be expected to have some purpose in having the league organized and at this early stage it appears very likely that the plans are going to bear fruit.

Branch Rickey is an amazing figure here he comes out of the business in favor of Happy Chandler, the new baseball commissioner. Now Chandler is not, they are one thing in common. Neither of them drinks. Chandler doesn't smoke, but Rickey can manipulate a cigar as a Churchill and as often, gambles.

Gambling and all kinds of betting are anathema to Rickey, Chandler likes to bet and Dan Parker reveals in his engaging manner that he has a few bookmakers as his friends. Chandler isn't a heavy bettor, but he is an occasional bettor on the horse track. Rickey we guess never goes racing.

Some writers are beginning to have some misgivings about this thing. They fear that he will be one of those "merry in haste and repent at leisure" propositions. They fear baseball will be circled, that the MacPhail influence will become too pronounced.

It all remains to be seen of course, says Bas O'Neals, how Chandler