the attention of our readers to the ad-eight. The attendance this term has been very large, and Prin. Moran in-

The different courses taught in the U. C. C. are up to date in every re-

SCHOOL CLOSING.—The closing of West Kent School yesterday morning for the Christmas holidays was an event of more than unusual interest, the programme being carried out entirely by the talent of the school. The singing was exceptionally good, the pupils acquitting themselves in a splendid manner. They are to be highly commended on their ability as the exhibition they gave yesterday would certainly do credit to any school. Mr. Henry Smith presided and Rev. P. E. Fulton, in a neat little speech, complimented the pupils on their work and wished them bright and Merry Christmas. The following was carried out as given in yesterday's Guardian. Prince Street School reception hall was gaily and artistically trimmed for their Christmas closing yesterday which consisted of a nicely arranged program of choruses, recitations and solos. Dr.
McMillan presiding. The performers did exceptionally well but the little children were the general favorites.
The accompanists were Miss Taylor and Miss McDonald. There was quite a number of parents present and the closing was most enjoyable. At Queen Square School a very nice program was also carried out much to the pleasure of the visitors and the pupils who entertained acquitted themselves admirably. Appropriate songs and recitations. Trustee Gordon presided and those present on the platform were Lieutenant Governor McDonald, His Lordship Bishop O'Leary, Reverend Maurice McDonald, Mr. J. G. Mc-Cormack, Ex-Principal Landrigan, Mr.
F. J. Nash and Principal Smith.

BETHLEHEM.

O, little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie;
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
The silent stars go by;
Yet, in thy dark streets shineth,
The Everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary;
And gathered all above, While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wondering Jove.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.

How silent, how silently
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven
No ear may hear his coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him,
The dear Christ enters in.

O, Holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin, and enter in;
Be born in us today.
We hear the heavenly angels
The great glad tidings tell,
O, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Immanuel.
—PHILLIPS BROOKS.

CHRISTMAS CHEER.

Come to us, Christmas, good old day,
Soften us, cheer us, say your say
To hearts which thrift, too eager, keeps
In bonds, while fellow-feasting sleeps.
Good Christmas, whom our children love.

We love you, too! Lift us above
Our cares, our fears, our small desires Open our hands and stir the fires
Of helpful fellowship within us.
And back to love and kindness win us.
