Again the hand of death has claimed another victim in Little Pond. Recently Ronald McCormack in the 78th year of his age calmly breathed his last. He had been in usual health up to a half hour previous to his death, which was caused by heart failure and came as a great shock to everyone.

Many hearts were saddened recently, when it was learned that Frank G. Ford had succumbed to the dread disease of pneumonia. Little hope of his recovery was entertained from the first but all was done to defeat the last enemy—death.

The following extract from a recent sermon by Bishop Worrell of Nova Scotia, on profanity has been sent to the Guardian to be published: "And do you know the meaning of your oath? When you damn them or damn that or damn your enemy or damn your friend or damn yourself have you ever thought what it means to be damned? If you do not believe in future reward or punishment you are using an idle and meaningless expression and marking yourself as an insincere and witless man."
