Nothing but the best and newest. For the first three days of this week, the greatest entertainment of Motion Pictures and Illustrated Songs ever offered in this city, including:

The Chef's Revenge - A comedy picture which is very funny, dealing with love affairs in the kitchen of a great hotel. How the chef administrators a roasting to his successful rival.

The Bear Hunt - as a spectacular picture, this is one of the best yet shown, giving a full reproduction of the full chase showing the hounds in action, the hunter in full pursuit of the quarry. The run down and death. The display of horsemanship is one of the features of this picture.

P.S. The playing of Miss Ethel Blanchard is a pleasing feature of the entertainment. The Motor-Car-Highwaymen - or a 20th century hold up is an up-to-date piece of work. The difference between the days of Dick Turpin and 20th century methods being very amusing. Everything connected with the hold-up from the highwaymen to the men who eventually run him down, being propelled by electricity.

Off for a Holiday - Fun from start to finish showing the amusing complications which arise from a lady of 500 lbs weight who is determined to take a few days in the country; and how she has to squeeze into quarters made to fit the convenience of ordinary individuals. As Miss Trainor has returned to town, will resume his engagement; and sing the beautiful illustrated song "Good-Bye My Carolin"
