

THE FUNNY MAN

our fish won't be long now. "I wouldn't whip him time, Robert. Wait 'till he it again."

ridget," called the mistress upstairs. "I hope you turned gas on in the drawingroom, as d you?"

es, ma'am," answered the new stic; "can't you smell it?"

traveller called at a Paris hotel asked what the charges were. un moment, zere," replied the r in his best English. "I'll the proprietaire."

hen the landlord arrived on the e, the traveller repeated his ion.

he hundred francs for a room e first floor, ninety francs for e second, and eighty francs for e third," said the landlord.

ank you," said the traveller eously, and turned to go.

ean't that please you?" asked e landlord, unwilling to lose a e.

es, your prices are all right, e red the traveller, "but your e isn't high enough."

a certain church it is the cus- of the clergyman to kiss the e after the ceremony. A young an who was about to be mar- did not relish the prospect, e instructed her prospective hus- to tell the clergyman that she ot wish him to kiss her. The e groom obeyed.

ell, Harry," said the young an when he appeared, "did you e minister that I did not wish o kiss me?"

nd what did he say?"

e said that in that case he e charge only half the usual

There should constantly be on e to keep baby's bowels work- e freely and his stomach sweet, e tenths of the ailments from e little ones suffer are caused e arrangements of the stomach e bowels. Baby's Own Tablets are e mild but thorough; con- e neither opiates nor narcotics, e are absolutely guaranteed to be e and efficient for either the e ere babe or the growing child. e their action on the bowels and e ach they drive out constipation e indigestion; break up colds and e fevers and make the dread, e getting period easy. The Tab- e are sold by medicine dealers or e all at 25 cents a box from The e Williams' Medicine Co., Brock- e Ont.

Splendid Laxative For The Baby.

AN AWFUL BROADCASTING FORECAST

Mr. Graspington Grubbs, one of the chiefs of the inland Revenue e broadcasts a final demand for income tax payment. e The day may be coming when e broadcasting income tax notices e constitute a demand for payment.

—Humorist.

EFFECTIVE "MOTTER."

Police Judge: "With what instru- ment did your wife inflict these wounds on your face and head?"

Michael Mooney: "Wid a motter, yer amner."

Police Judge—"A what?"

Michael Mooney: "A motter— wan o' these frames wid 'God Bliss Our Home' in it."

SHE GOT THERE FIRST

A farmer called at the village office.

"Hello, Seth!" he said. "Got any- thing here for me?"

"Don't see nothin', Jake," replied the postmaster. "Was ye expectin' somethin'?"

"Yes," answered the farmer. "I was expectin' a postcard from my Aunt Jinny, tellin' me what day she was comin' down."

"Hanner, called the postmaster to his wife, "have ye seen anything of a postcard from Jake Leed's Jinny?"

"Yes," was the prompt reply. "She is comin, down on Thurs- day."

HIS GOLDEN RULE

Meekings was a little man, and like most little men he had very decided views on many subjects. His strong point, however, was his theory on the bringing up of the younger generation. No matter how troublesome children were, he constantly asserted, they should never be punished—at any rate, corporally.

He was propounding his argument one day to a friend.

"But," objected the friend, aren't there times—"

"Never," replied Meekings firm- ly. "As true as I stand here at this moment, I have never raised my hand in self-defence against my children!"

TONGUES IN TREES

Nanny was ill, and so a tempo- rary nurse had been engaged to take charge of the three Smithers' children.

One morning she was to take them for a walk, and before she left Mrs. Smithers told her to im- part to the children a few facts about natural history—a subject that was not by any means nurse's strong suit.

"Now Winnie," she remarked af- ter they had been out for about a quarter of an hour, "you see that beautiful beech-tree over there? If it could speak to us of its life, what do you think it would say?"

"I expect it would say, 'Excuse me, but with all due respect I'm an elm-tree!'" Winnie replied gravely.

RED ROSE

TEA "is good tea"

Next time try the finest grade—

RED ROSE ORANGE PEKOE

A Warmer House at Lower Cost!

BESCO Household COKE

Gives More Heat Than Hard Coal

PRICE NOW REDUCED

Order from any of the following dealers:

Buntain, Bell & Co., J. Carragher & Co., W. D. Gillis & Co., C. Lyons & Co., A. Pickard & Co., and Poole & Thompson, Montague

A Canadian Coke Produced by Canadian Workmen

Bricklayer (at wife's party): "This game's no amusement for me. Pay me three dollars an hour and I'll play it."

Judge

BRINGING UP FATHER

—By GEO. McMANUS

