IN MEMORIAM

MR. ALLAN JAMIESON

The sympathy of the community and outlying districts went out to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jamieson, Sturgeon, P. E. I., on Sunday, March 15th when it became known that the Angel of Death had visited their home claiming as its victim their beloved son Allan, at the early age of 22 years.

A year ago last summer, Allan went West on the harvest excursion, returning to Haverhill, Mass., in the fall, where he intended remaining for the winter months.

Some time during the winter he contracted flu which later developed into tuberculosis. As soon as the weather permitted he was invalided home, accompanied by his brother W. M., and sister Mary. When summer came he gained considerably and hopes were entertained for his recovery. But God willed otherwise. When the Fall came he gradually became weaker and despite all the loving care of family and friends he passed to the great beyond on above date. He was a general favorite to all. Everyone visited him during his long illness of thirteen months, some bringing with them little delicacies to tempt his appetite and to try and prolong his life. He was also visited by his Pastor the Rev. T. Gallant from whose hand he received the last rites of the R. C. Church.

As this is the first break in the family Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson feel the loss very keenly. Mr. Jamieson especially as he is getting up in years, expected to have Allan with him on the farm in his declining years.

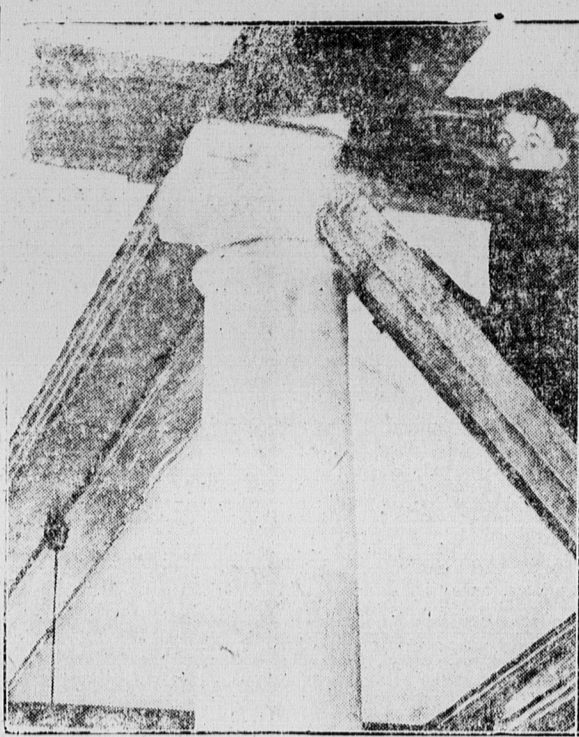

Besides his parents there are left to mourn the following brothers and sisters: Donald, Wm., John and Flora of Haverhill, Mass. The latter three arriving two days before the passing away of their brother, Philip J., Sturgeon, and Mary E., who lovingly cared for him in his illness; also a large circle of friends.

Interment took place Tuesday morning to the R. C. Cemetery, Sturgeon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson feel as though they never can repay their friends for the many kindnesses shown to them during the illness of their son, they therefore extend their sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted them in their sorrow. "Oh for the touch of a vanished hand, And a voice that we loved that is still."

MR. WILLIAM MCCARTHY

When in the course of material events, time in his untenable flight, to comply with that infinite decree "Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return" souls rush to battle that grim reaper, whose scythe is never unsheathed, whose binder never refuse to revolve, whose sword is never sheathed, whose unhallowed entry into the home of his victim is never welcomed, regardless of the "no admittance" sign placed always at the door by the loved ones heads of the wounds he shall inflict on the hearts of those left behind, unmindful of standing, be it prince or pauper it matters not to him—his is a mission of destruction. It is his duty to see that carriage of the soul of mankind shall revert to the earth which nourishes it and from whence it sprang and that the spirit, freed from the fetters of flesh, shall appear before its Creator, Redeemer and Judge, consequently it is little to be wondered at, that great sorrow is felt at the transition of the soul. For here below we are uncertain what is the end of any mortal man after his departure from material things. But, when we see one pass from our midst, who during his life was the embodiment of every Christian virtue, we must feel that there will be the reward of a well spent life and that the God whose commandments he strove so hard to keep during life, will look down upon him with a smiling countenance, as a fit subject to merit the sentence "Come, ye Blessed of My Father, Possess the Kingdom

SIR CHRISTOPHER WREN'S JOKE ON WINDSOR

Sir Christopher Wren built the Town Hall for the Royal Borough of Windsor. The Mayor feared that the floor would not sustain much weight, and ordered pillars put in the Corn Exchange to support the ceiling. Wren built the pillars. Years later it was found, although the pillars were built, there was a gap between the tops of them and the ceiling. They were merely ornamental and a practical joke.

which has been prepared for you." February 11th, 1925, witnessed the passing of Mr. William McEachern, his death St. Charles lost one of its most lovable land masses; the Church, one of its most devoted members and supporters, a neighbor who was "No plus ultra"; his friends, one who was always kind, cheerful, considerate, ready to assist the poor, uplift the down-trodden, to feed the hungry and to comfort the afflicted; his immediate family consisting of Nellie, James and William at home; John of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Catherine, Mrs. Kelly of U. S. A., an irreparable loss for we can say of him "Behold this was a father from whence comes such another?"

We who are strong believers in the opportunity offered by our Island might point with pride to their lives as an example of what industry and thrift can accomplish. It is a pity that the world would be well worth consideration by the youth about to leave his native Province, for supposedly more favored lands. His funeral was held on Thursday afternoon and despite the impassable roads was largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. and Dan McIsaac, John and Richard McDonald, P. A. Cahill and Leo F. Gorman.

After the services in the Church the remains were carried to the adjoining cemetery and were gently laid beside his wife who predeceased him five years ago. Now they rest beneath the sheltering boughs where the wind in their branches sings an eternal Requiem.—R. I. P.

MRS. GORDON NICHOLSON

Seldom indeed death occurs under sadder circumstances than that of Mrs. Gordon Nicholson of 16 Fairmount St., Cambridge, Mass., who departed this life on the 4th day of March, 1925. This estimable young woman though only twenty two years and seven months old, had achieved more than the ordinary accomplishment for her age. She possessed the entrance to Prince of Wales College when only very young and successfully merited the awards of this institution; after which she was engaged as teacher in several districts of her native province and by all appearances had a bright future ahead of her in her chosen vocation.

She left for Boston in the summer of 1922, and was married the following Spring. In less than two years of exceptionally happy married life, she was called up yonder by her Saviour whom she loved and served from her early childhood.

She joined the communion roll of the Valleyfield Presbyterian Church in July 1916.

She was organist in the Kilnuit branch of the Valleyfield congregation, and was also a teacher in the Sunday School there.

Beside a large circle of sorrowing friends and relatives there are left to mourn a sorrowing husband and infant daughter, Elva Louise, eleven months old; also a father, Malcolm L. MacPhee, a brother John Norman and a sister Jennie, all formerly of Heatherdale, P. E. I., but now of Cambridge, Mass.

The sadness of this death particularly to the father, is intensified by the fact that the mother of the deceased passed away within the last five months and he was making his home with his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson.

The remains were brought home from Cambridge and buried in the Valleyfield cemetery, beside her mother and other members of the family who predeceased her. Her husband and father accompanied the remains home; also her sister-in-law Miss Lulu Nicholson who sympathetically brought home the infant baby to be tenderly cared for by the grandmother Mrs. M. A. Nicholson of Commercial Cross, P. E. Island.

The remains were taken from Monague Station to Valleyfield Church where the funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. MacEachern.

To show the esteem in which the deceased was held, and the sympathy of the bereaved, this large church was filled to capacity.

The funeral service was most appropriate and sympathetic. Most heartfelt grief was manifested throughout, particularly as they passed by the open coffin to take a last look at one so well-known amongst them, and who for years was a member of the choir in this Church.

MR. DONALD MACEachERN

It is with deep regret that we have to report the death of Mr. Donald MacEachern of Iris, which occurred there on February 28th. He was in his usual state of health, until within three months of his death when he had a sudden breakdown, and he was more or less confined to the house and often bed since his last sickness seized him. Being in the prime of life the hope was cherished he might get over his sickness, but after a few weeks grave fears were entertained of a permanent nature and he was becoming very despondent himself, though at the same time apparently reconciled to the will of the Lord concerning him. He was a quiet and unassuming young man, and a great favorite with every one. He was early bereft of both his parents, but he carried on successfully the home and the farm for several years with the help of one devoted sister, who is now left to mourn her loss and departure. Along with many other friends and acquaintances in Iris and other portions of the surrounding country, he will be greatly missed from the district and country on account of his obliging and sympathetic disposition and many other good qualities.

Mr. Donald MacEachern was a son of the late Mr. Alexander MacEachern and his wife Sarah MacEachern and was born in Pleasant Valley (now Iris), April 7th, 1890. The funeral service was conducted at the house of the deceased by his pastor the Rev. T. R. Davidson, Ph. D., who based his address on the portion of Holy Writ John XI 23 "Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall arise again." At the service, beautiful selections appropriate to the occasion were also sung such as "Lead Kindly Light" and "Shall we gather at the River." After prayer was offered at the grave by the Pastor, the Orange Order conducted the service as prescribed by their Order in a most beautiful and impressive manner. Several members of the Order had come long distances to pay their last respects to a most worthy member of the Order, and the funeral was largely attended notwithstanding the indifferent condition of the weather and roads. He was laid to rest with many of his kith and kin in the beautiful cemetery of Caledonia West, to await the "Great Awakening." (Patriot please copy.)

MISS MARY McKENNA

The angel of death removed from our midst one of the oldest residents of St. Teresa's Parish in the person of Mary McKenna on the eve of February twenty-fifth at the home of her niece Mrs. James Gill, Elliotville.

The deceased born 84 years ago in Monaghan Co., Ireland, and emigrated to Prince Edward Island with her parents at an early age. By her death her neighbors have lost a charitable friend and her parish one of its best workers. She was attended in her last illness by her beloved pastor Rev. I. R. A. McDonald, also by frequent visits from Rev. P. D. McGuigan.

Her funeral took place at St. Teresa's on Friday morning, February 27th where a Requiem Mass was sung by her pastor who also conducted the funeral cortege to the cemetery.

The pall bearers were Messrs. John F. Curran, Patrick McInnis, John Cairns, Patrick McQuaid, Michael Gormley, John Power.

May her soul rest in peace.

MRS. JOSEPH MORRISON

At Kensington, on March 19th, Mrs. Joseph Morrison died after a brief but fatal illness. She had sustained only indifferent health of the past year, but she maintained a buoyant spirit, and looked upon life only as a transition from advent into this world to entry into a comprehensive life beyond. She was in maidenhood, "Christine McKinnon" and was born at Springfield, Oct. 6, in 1846.

In her family were four brothers and six sisters, the surviving ones are Mrs. Annie McLeod, Vernon River; Mrs. Florence Newland, and Mrs. William Pickering, Iowa.

She was married in 1875 to Joseph Morrison and settled in Graham's Road. Here they lived until 1901, when they, with the family, settled in Kensington. They enjoyed a quiet and prosperous life. On September 12, 1924, the family circle was broken when Mr. Morrison died.

The family left to mourn are: Hugh, at home; Mrs. William Bernard, French River; William Siskatoon; Mrs. Edward Heltz, Berwick, N. S.

Mrs. Morrison was an ideal mother and housewife, always caring for the home as the dutiful mother does. Her company was always acceptable and her example edifying. She made home the kingdom of the family where it was a pleasure to visit.

Her funeral was held on March 21st and was attended by a large concourse of neighbours and friends. The service was conducted by Rev. A. W. Robertson. The pall bearers were Messrs. R. H. Moass, Harry Webster, Wm. Carey, J. McLeod, James Braham, Bradford McArthur. Interment took place in the Kensington Cemetery.—Y.

A Reliable Tonic For Springtime

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Give New Health and Vigor

Not sick—but not feeling quite well. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite fickle, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or the eyes may be watery, or rheumatism or neuralgia, any of these indicate that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not dose yourself with purgatives as many people do, in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you that this is true. What you need in the spring is a tonic that will enrich the blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this speedily, safely and surely. Every dose of this medicine helps to enrich the blood, which clears the skin, strengthens the appetite and makes tired, depressed men, women and children bright, active and strong.

Proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when the system is run down is shown by the case of Mrs. Lillian Lewis, South Ohio, N. S., who says: "About a year ago I was badly run down. My appetite was poor, I did not sleep well and my nerves were all unstrung. I could not go upstairs without stopping to rest. As I was a long way from a doctor I decided to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in the course of a few weeks I felt like a new person. As an all-around restorative I can heartily recommend this medicine."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LOWER RATES ON POTATO SHIPMENTS

Further reductions in the carload rates on potatoes from New Brunswick to the prairie provinces are being effected by the railways from now to the end of May, according to the Fruit Branch Department of Agriculture. This is the railways' response to representations made in Montreal by a delegation of New Brunswick shippers, accompanied by a representative of the Fruit Branch.

The British embargo placed against New Brunswick potatoes late in February has cut off an expected market for a considerable portion of last season's bountiful crop remaining in storage. The prairie provinces, with a short crop offer an alternative market, but under ordinary rates the New Bruswick shippers cannot compete with transportation costs plus duty on imported stock from Minnesota and North Dakota. Reductions arranged in December to facilitate competition by New Brunswick potatoes in the prairie markets developed some movement, although under a slight disadvantage in laid-down costs.

The further reduced rates now coming into effect will be entirely unremunerative, the railways say, contributing nothing to fixed charges, but are their response to what must be considered a national emergency.

Why Men Crack
When on the Highway to Success

"Sleeplessness," Doctor Kennedy tells us, "is one of the commonest signs of nervousness. Another is physical unrest. You are showing signs of nervousness when you cannot keep from twitching your eyebrows, shrugging your shoulders, swinging one foot when your legs are crossed; or when you cannot sit at a desk or table without continually tapping with the fingers."

THE warning symptoms, as outlined above, are well worth careful study because with this knowledge you can detect the indications of failing nervous energy while yet there is time to prevent serious results.

Your digestive system has failed to supply proper nourishment to the nervous system.

On this account outside help is necessary, such as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, before you can get back your strength and vigor.

You will not be using this restorative treatment long before you are sleeping, and resting better, appetite and digestion will improve and you find yourself well on the way to health and happiness.
