CHARACTER STAR LUDWIG STOSSEL IN "THE CLIMAX"

The happiest man in Hollywood since the routing of Hitler's army in Europe began, is Ludwig Stossel, who plays one of the featured roles in Universal's Technicolor musical drama, "The Climax," co-starring Susanna Foster, Turhan Bey and Boris Karloff and now at the Prince Edward Theatre.

Until 1938, Stossel was one of the leading stage directors of Vienna and central Europe but, as he did not believe at Hitler did, he barely escaped from Austria with his life.

He came to America, learned the language, started a new career as a character actor, and is now in constant demand by all the major studios.

In "The Climax" he is seen as Turhan Bey's uncle, through whose job in the opera house Bey's sweetheart, Susanna Foster, gets an introduction to the manager. It is this introduction which not only starts her on her singing career, but also leads her into the shadow of death by murder.

"The Climax" was produced and directed by George Waggner.

Stossel is one of many excellent supporting players in "The Climax," others being Gale Sondergaard, June Vincent, Thomas Gomez, George Dolenz and Jane Farrar.

CHILLS, THRILLS STUD "WHISTLER"

"The Whistler" . . . Radio's master of mystery is on the screen of the Capitol Theatre, in a shocking drama of a man who made a terrifying deal with death. When he whistles someone dies. Men shudder at the mere sound of him! Women scream at the mere thought of him! Audiences will be shocked breathless by him! The strangest thrill story the screen has ever told about a man without fear . . . who met a killer without a conscience.

Richard Dix is starred. Gloria Stuart, J. Carrol Naish and Joan Woodbury are featured. It was directed by William Castle from the screenplay of Eric Taylor and original story of J. Donald Wilson who is its radio creator.

BIRCH - DYMENT

The Church of St. James, Port Hill, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, November 8, 1944, at five o'clock when Laura Belle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dyment, was united in holy Matrimony to Henry Newcombe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Birch of Port Hill. The service was conducted by the Rev. F. Douglas Henderson, rector.

The chancel was beautifully decorated with evergreens, which were combined with autumn flowers on the altar and tied with white satin bows to mark the guest pews.

The guests were ushered to their places by Mr. Reagh L. Dennis and Mr. Keith W. Dennis, close friends of the bride and groom.

To the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Percy Birch, mother of the groom, the youthful bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white chiffon over taffeta, with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder length veil was caught up with white flowers in halo effect, and she carried an arm bouquet of talisman roses, her only ornament being a white gold locket, a gift of the groom.

During the service the choir of St. James', of which the groom is a member, sang the Deus Misereature, and during the signing of the register the beautiful wedding hymn O Perfect Love.

After the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dyment, Northam.

For the second successive year Boy Scouts were selected to form the Guard of Honour at the opening of the Saskatchewan Legislature at Regina. Two Scouts accompanied the speaker to his chair.

Charles, Edward and Henry Mansell, Scouts in the 44th Windsor, Ontario Troop at Tecumseh, are unique in Canadian Scouting. They are the only triplets in the 100,000 Scouts and Cubs in Canada. They were born in 1932.

Ever since he started to have pocket money, 9 year old Teddy Pazder, a Wolf Cub at Mount Carmel School, Edmonton has been saving to buy a bicycle. When he finally accumulated a sufficient sum, he decided instead to buy a Victory Bond in the recent campaign.

When Miss May Hickling, Lady Cubmaster of Hawarden, Saskatchewan, died recently her family requested that instead of flowers, gifts of money would be acceptable to be given to charity. Half of the gift money was given to the Chins-Up Fund of the Boy Scouts Association to aid stricken Scouts in Europe, and half to her church.

Four Boy Scout Leaders from South America are to visit Canada in early December. They are Sr. Claudio Jars, Sr. Carlos Santos P., of Ecuador, Sr. Salvador Fernandez and Sr Lorenzo Ponce de Leon. LIFE ASSURANCE FIGHTS INFLATION

Policyholders' savings important contribution to War Effort and Post-War Reconstruction

One of the many distinctive services performed by Life Assurance in these urgent times is the mobilization of the people's savings against the insidious but none the less devastating enemy—inflation. Thus millions of men and women, advised by a worthy and highly-trained group of their fellow-countrymen who "sell" Life Assurance, withhold their savings from the luxury market and set them aside to secure protection and well-being for themselves and their loved ones in the unknown days to come.

In the past year alone, the million policyholders of the Sun Life of Canada have set aside $112 millions of their savings in the form of Life Assurance premiums.
