CHAPLAIN'S LETTER TO MRS. FURNESS

Mrs. Sarah Furness, 79 Sydney St., Charlottetown, yesterday received the following letter from France in reference to her son, Private Albert Furness, recently reported wounded:—

3 Canadian General Hospital.
(McGill)

B. E. F.
Nov. 7, 1916.

Dear Mrs. Furness,—

Your son was brought here this morning wounded. He is doing wonderfully well considering his many wounds and left arm broken. He is such a giant and so brave. I trust it will not be long before he goes to England, though he could not be in a better hospital. I felt you would like to know the actual condition as the official news is so brief.

Sincerely yours,
WM. BARTON,
Chaplain.

Private Furness, as stated in the Guardian some days ago, when the news of his being wounded was received, enlisted in Winnipeg in the 61st Battalion being later moved into the 44th Battalion, C. E. F. He stands over six feet in height and is an exceedingly fine sample of physical manhood. His many friends here will hope to hear good news concerning him.

IN MEMORIAM

JOSEPH CLARKIN

Death at any time and under any circumstances is sad but when it comes and claims for its victim a young man in the prime of life and man hood it appears doubly sad. Such was the case in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarkin, Emyvale, when on Nov. 10 the Angel of Death visited them and took away with it their beloved young son Joseph, aged twenty one years. Deceased was a young man of exceptional fine character, kind, obliging, honest and a general favorite with all who knew him. He was attended during his illness by his kind pastor who administered to him the Sacred Rights of his Church. His funeral which was a very large one took place on Sunday afternoon at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65. After the service the body was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery there to await the glorious ressurection. He leaves to mourn his loss a sorrowing father and mother, three brothers and five sisters. The brothers are: James in North Dacota, Peter, Butte, Montana, Aeneas at home. The sisters are: Mrs. McIvor, Butte, Montana, Mrs. Ronnahan, Morell, Mrs. Cusack, Bonwell Teresa, Notre Dame Convent, Rustico, Katie teacher at home.

MR. DANIEL McLELLAN.

On Saturday, Nov. 11th there passed peacefully to rest one of Cardigans most respected residents in the person of Mr. Daniel McLellan. Deceased had been ailing for several weeks, but hope was held out for his recovery. However the decrees of God were otherwise, and despite the loving care of wife and children he gradually weakened, until on Saturday morning amid the prayers and tears of a household, he calmly breathed forth his soul. The late Mr. McLellan possessed a quiet but pleasing disposition and enjoyed the love and respect of all who knew him. In his everyday life he manifested his qualities of mind and heart. His patience and resignation in trials, his generous self-sacrifice, and his mild and gentle manner are an inspiration for his children. The deceased with his wife and family, came to Cardigan about five years ago. Previous to this, he resided at Indian River where one brother John survives him. He leaves to mourn besides this brother a sorrowing widow, two sons, Joseph with the 105th Battalion, England and Anthony at home; also a sister Mrs. Angus McDonald, Richmond.

The funeral which took place on Monday morning Nov. 13th, from the family residence to All Saints Church, where a Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. Gallant, St. Dunstan's College. Then his remains were conveyed to All Saints Cemetery and laid to rest. May his soul rest in peace.

EDNA BLANCHE WICKETT

It is with deep sorrow we are called upon to record the death of Edna Blanche, youngest and dearly loved daughter of Mrs. L. A. Wickett, of Kalvin, which sad event took place Sunday night, Nov. 12th at the early age of 18 years, after a long and painful illness borne with Christian patience and resignation. Little Blanche was dearly loved by all and her passing away has cast a deep gloom over the whole community. Especially will she be missed in the home where her sweet face and cheerful disposition were an inspiration to all. Cared for most tenderly by all devoted father and sisters every wish gratified, she calmly waited the "going Home", as she so often expressed it and how joyfully she looked forward to the meeting of loved ones who had gone before. There are left to mourn a heart broken father and two sisters Mrs. W. A. Terrill, Oldtown, Maine, and Miss Lucy at home. But they have the sweet consolation of knowing that their sister rested on the atonement made by Christ found the word precious and enjoyed the sure hope of a glorious immortality. Almost her last words were "I'm going Home to die no more" and "I want you all to meet me in Heaven." The funeral which took place Wednesday afternoon was very largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. E. P. Calder of the Baptish Church, Tryon, assisted by Rev. Mr. Britton of Bedeque and Evangelist A. E. MacLeod of Demark, N. S. The hymns—"He Leadeth Me" "Rock of Ages" and "My Jesus I love Thee" were chosen by herself several weeks before she passd away. The pall bearers were Edward MacMurdo, Erskive MacMurdo, Percy MacMurdo, Cobby Lewis, John Lewis and Leslie Simmons and the remains were laid to rest in Margate cemetery beside those of her mother and brother who were laid to rest some years ago.

INTERESTING VISIT TO THE BIG SLEIGH HOUSE

Yesterday a representative of the Guardian called at the establishment of Messrs. A. Horne & Co., and had the pleasure of being shown through the large and excellently arranged show rooms of the firm.

The "big" display at present is sleighs and everything necessary for comfortable luxurious sleighing. Three lines of sleighs are shown, namely, Canada's, McLaughlin's and Tudhope's. These are stocked in very attractive models in piano boxes, with regular and twin auto seats; gentlmen's drivers; semi-speeders, speeders; high back cutters with regular full auto back. Many of the sleighs are fitted with a children's or misses' seat in front, which is a valuable and useful contrivance The sleighs have red and green plush or cloth upholstering and are covered in a manner that shows first class workmanship and excellent finish, The painting is tastefully and exquisitely done and there are colors to suit all tastes.

ISLAND MADE GOODS.

In the exhibit there are to be seen some productions of local workmanship, which are deserving of special mention. The "Island" made goods consist of pung and high box sleighs and wood sleighs and are made to suit the particular wants of the local trade.

FOR SLEIGHING.

In fur goods this firm have a full line of high class goods, Sleign robes are displayed in Saskatchewan grey and black goat skin in different sizes. The fur coats are all that could be desired in coon, wombat, Alaska beaver, black dog and heavy cloth coats with fur lining. The coats are shown in all sizes and comprise a superb assortment.

In sleigh bells a line of saddle, gong full body and back strap bells are shown; chimes in saddle and shaft style.

HARNESS ROOM.

The harness room is in the large show room and contains over twenty-five kinds of harness, for driving and trucking in single and double styles. These harness are made with stock of first quality in nickel plate, solid nickel, brass, oroide and genuine rubber mountings. A special feature, admired by many, is the special rawhide track harness shown.

HORSE RUGS.

In the assortment of horse rugs there are over twenty varieties in jute, kerzy and heavy duck. These are strong and superior values in all sizes.

"BIG SLEIGH HOUSE."

Messrs. A. Horne & Co., advertise as the "Big Sleigh House" and give the utmost in service and satisfaction. They give special prices for cash or terms to suit purchasers. This firm deserves great credit on their business enterprise and all who intend purchasing sleighs should not fail to call and look over this magnificent exhibit.

OTHER LINES.

The firm also carry a fine line of root cutters, and pulpers, roller grain crushers and plate grinders Daisy Churns, washing machines and clothes wringers. 3237.

NO SCARCITY OF POTATOES.

MONTREAL, Nov. 20— With potatoes selling at $2 to $2.25 per bag of ninety pounds, and dealers advertising a great scarcity of the tubers, it was learned today that there are on railway sidings in Montreal more than 300 cars of potatoes, and railway officials state that dealers refuse to accept delivery. Instead they are paying demurrage and the object is declared to be to prevent a slump in the price. The majority of the cars are said by railroad officials to have been here for at least a week or ten dys and in many instances the frost has played havoc with the contents. Dealers who were seen regarding the latter today were inclined to be reticent. They deny, however, that there is an attempt to unduly boost prices.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SOLDIERS

It will doubtless interest all those who contributed towards the 105th Christmas shipment from 70 Prince St., for general distribution to know as a result of their interest the following have gone overseas addressed to Col Ings, for the officers to distribute: 9 complete Xmas parcels sent in, 26 complete Xmas parcels containing pr. socks, oxo cubes, chocolates (or home-made candy) gum, cake, (or some delicacy as substitute) and a generous supply of cigarettes, cigars, and tobacco, made up from supplies sent in; 18 prs. half gloves and 26 prs. socks, each containing presents of soap, pencil, paper, handerchief, tobacco, gum; 48 pairs socks unfilled; 2 khaki mufflers; 16 boxes home-made candy; 10 magazines; 6 pkgs. gum; 207 pkgs, cigarettes; 54 twists tobacco; 7 plugs; 3 pkgs.; 16 tins; 1 small box (wood) tobacco. Added to this a box of 500 cigarettes for the band from one gentleman and an eleven pound box of tobacco addressed to one of the officers. Thanks are due Messrs A. A. Alley & Co., who kindly collected the greater portion of the "smokes."

There was a ready response from outside of the city and Dunstaffnage, Fortune, Mt. Herbert, York, Cumberland, Rocky Point, Wood Islands, O'Leary, Bay View, Stanley Bridge, and Milton, are represented among the gifts for general distribution. Even the single pair of socks coming from one of the places mentioned was most welcome and among all they have made up more than half the shipment.

Practically everyone in city and country was busy last week sending off presents to personal friends overseas; churches were sending to members of the congregations; and societies remembering the boys from their districts; so sincere thanks is extended to all who have made possible this extra shipment, which we trust may bring home just a little nearer to some of our boys on active service. No soldier will be forgotten. No soldier should be forgotten. There was no canvas for contributions, so the whole is a voluntary good-will offering. The names of the donors went with the parcels.

Although it was not intended to accept any personal parcels for the shipment, rather than disappoint anybody 65 parcels which were brought in and would otherwise have straggled one at a time through Miss Plummer were packed in cases and with three other boxes also intended for individuals from their friends went forward with the rest. The entire shipment thus consisted of 13 small cases, valued at $329.00.

Messrs. DeBlois Bros., Beer & Goff, Stewart & Son, Jenkins & Son, L. F. Doyle, and Mrs. Jardine kindly supplied packing cases; Messrs Stanley Bros.., Moore & McLeod, L. J. Reddin, and Maritime Stationers contributed paper for packing and wrapping parcels and the press generously published all notices without charge.

The next shipment for overseas will be reading material and candles for the boys of the 98th Siege Battery, and anyone caring to assist may send candles, magazines, and paper covered books, to 70 Prince St. up to Nov. 30th.

MOTHER'S REMEDY FOR BRUISES

Children's Bumps, Sprains and Minor Hurts Quickly Relieved by Sloan's Liniment.

It is the very nature of children to hurt themselves— to come crying to mother with little fingers bruised, with heads bumped, with sprained ankles and wrists.

They are painful hurts, too. But their pain and sting can't survive the gentle use of this liniment. A single application of Sloan's Liniment and—the little fellow's bravely kept back tears give way to smiles. His hurt is relieved.

In every home where there are children a bottle of Sloan's Liniment is a necessity.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, lumbago, stiff neck, backache, childblains, etc., can be effectively relieved with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than mussy ointment or plasters.

Slona's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c, and $1.00.

GERMAN REPLY TO UNITED STATES.

BERLIN, Nov. 20.— (Via London, Nov. 21.— Secretary Grew of the United States Embassy, received today the German reply in regard to the sinking of the British steamer Rowanmore and three steamers, which were lost in September. In regard to the Rowanmore the German government denied that the submarine fired on lifeboats containing members of the crew and maintains that the men owe their lives to precautions taken by the Germans and the skill with which their operations were carried out. In respect to two of the remaining steamers in question the German government states that they were not sunk by German forces and maintains that the Anterwerpen, the third steamer, was destroyed in full accordance with the rules of internatinoal law.

The Antwerpen was built at Newport News for the Standard Oil Company and was on her maiden trip to London, when she was sunk. She was a vessel of 11,300 tons.
