—PATRIOTIC WORK.—Mrs. Jacqueline Arsenault of Summerside was in Abram's Village last week and instructed the ladies to form a Red Cross Society. No doubt the organization will prove a success as the people of this locality are quick to respond to appeals for war purposes.—M.

—SCHOOL WORK.—The semi-annual school examination of Abram's Village took place on Wednesday with a fairly large attendance, despite the heavy rain in the morning, which no doubt interfered with the attendance. Rev. Father Boudreault presided and the following conducted the examinations: Misses Marguerite LeClair, Jeanne Arsenault, Lia Arsenault, Delina Gallant, Jacqueline Arsenault (of Summerside, formerly of Abram's Village), Mr. Frank Deiron Thomas McNally and Francis Arsenault, graduate of St. Dunstan's College. All three departments were examined pretty thoroughly and all gave evidence of good work done. Some songs, recitations and short dialogues were given to relieve the monotonous work of questioning pupils. An address was read to the teachers and a handsome gift presented to each. Rev. Father Boudreault congratulated parents, teachers and pupils on the excellent work done, gave wise counsels to them and summed up by exhorting them to continue their good work. Mr. Joseph L. Gallant trustee was also highly pleased and cautioned the pupils to put in practice the valuable counsels given them by the Rev. Pastor as well as those given by acting Superintendent Shaw some few days before. They (the pupils) would soon be called upon to take their places as leaders in the community and now was the time to fit themselves for such a position. Mr. Harry Darby said that several of his boys had "gone through the school course" and he was pleased with the result of their school year. He mentioned the fact that several of the former pupils of this school were now in the trenches and he hoped that none of the present school generation would be called upon to go to the war. Mr. Dominique Arsenault considered it his duty of each ratifier to express his views on the result of the year's work. He on his part, thought that good work had been done and that teachers should be paid more liberally. Mr. S. E. Gallant also said a few words. The qualities of a dutiful teacher were noble, while an indifferent teacher was something repugnant. He thought good work had been done. Prizes were given to pupils of 2nd and 3rd department for good work done. National Anthem closed the meeting.—M.

—SCHOOL WORK.—The semi-annual school examination of Egmont Bay was held on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Father Boudreault was present and also Mr. Maise Gallant who kept conducting the examination. There was a large attendance and the pupils showed that they had been exceptionally well taught. They were examined practically in all the branches, and thoroughness seemed to have characterized their work. Rev. Father Boudreault was loud in his eulogy as was also Mr. Maise Gallant. Remarks were also passed by Messrs Clavis Gaudet, Azade M. Arsenault and others, all of whom were perfectly satisfied of the work done.—M.
