D. P. ARE EAGER TO LEARN ENGLISH
TORONTO, Sept. 28 — (CP) — They come from almost every country on the face of the earth — manufacturers, housewives, mothers, domestics, laborers, merchants, teachers — all shapes and sizes and all intent on learning to speak English.

It was registration night recently at Toronto's Harbord Collegiate where this year hundreds of immigrants will be given the opportunity of learning English. Of those in line the first night at least 90 per cent had arrived in Canada within the last six months yet all of them already speak enough English to make themselves understood by the instructor.
The majority of those in the queue were high school or college graduates and most of them spoke two or three languages.
Among the most eager for knowledge was Swediana Medis, 22, of Latvia. Although Swediana already speaks English quite well — she was a secretary-interpreter she believes it is her duty to care Guardian.
Swediana's story is similar to that of many other D. Ps. Her father was an aeronautical engineer at Riga when the Germans marched in. She was sent to Germany as slave labor and when armistice was declared, she was sent to a D. P. camp.
Swediana became pretty fed up with life in a leavers her about 900 for herself. Each month she spends at least $10 sending parcels to friends and relatives in Europe. Her friends say she is a "one-woman crusade for the alleviation of suffering in D. P. camps."

The Experts Say
By KAY REX
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA, Sept. 28 — (CP) — If the housewife wants to try a hand at some all-Canadian dessert — she doesn't have to go very far. At her back door right now she may have a tree laden down with apples. And if not, the town market should be filled with bushels of the crisp, rosy fruit, which perhaps grows better in Canada, and in more quantity, than in any other country of the world.

The Dominion department of agriculture has devoted a booklet enthusiastically to ways and means of eating apples, in salads, desserts, and even as a relish with the main course of a meal.
To enjoy apples with baked ham the following ingredients are needed: one slice of uncured ham (about 1 1/2 inches thick); one teaspoon dry mustard; two teaspoons vinegar; two apples; one-half cup brown sugar; one teaspoon but-
Trim rind from ham. Mix mustard and vinegar together and spread on ham. Slice apples thinly and spread in layers on ham. Sprinkle with brown sugar and dot with butter. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) until ham is tender — about 45 minutes.
Apple cup salad makes a choice luncheon dish. Core the apples and scoop out pulp to make apple cups. Fill a bowl with cold water and as each apple cup is made, put the cup in the water.
Dice enough celery to equal one-half apple pulp. Mix celery and apple pulp with one cup cottage or cream cheese. Blend with salad dressing.
Dry apple cups and fill with lettuce.
And for a dessert you can never go far wrong with an apple upside-down cake.
Ingredients: one-quarter cup butter; three-quarters cup brown sugar; three apples. . . One-quarter cup butter; one-third cup sugar; one egg; one-quarter cup molasses; one cup flour; one teaspoon salt; one teaspoon ginger; one-half teaspoon cinnamon; one-third cup boiling water.
Melt one-quarter cup butter in a baking dish. Add the brown sugar and cook together. Pare and core apples. Cut each apple in half to make two thick rings. Arrange rings of apples in butter and sugar mixture. Cream one-quarter cup butter. Add white sugar and cream well together. Add well-beaten egg and molasses. Beat thoroughly. Stir dry ingredients and add to mixture. Lastly add boiling water, mixing quickly. Pour over apples in baking dish and bake in moderate oven (350 Fahrenheit) for 40 minutes. Serves six.
Housewives have found that apples can be used for other things as well as food. Discolored or by boiling apples parings in aluminum pans may be brighten- them for a time.
