NEWS FROM H

Sergt. Ernest Weeks in acknowledgment "The News from Home," sent weekly to the trenches by the teachers and pupils of Prince Street School writes:
5904 Sgt. E. Weeks,
Signals,
H. Q., 1st Can. Inf. Bn.
B. E. F.,
21-4 19-6.

Dear Mr. Seaman:—
It has been my intention to write several times during the past few weeks, but owing to several moves which we have made and the extra work connected with them, letter writing has been out of the question. Only this morning however, two splendid News from Home, arrived and so I am writing on behalf of the Islanders in the Signal Coy., to thank the teachers and the girls of Prince Street School for the magnificent way in which you have remembered us by sending out these most interesting books.

We fully realize the work which the making up of these books necessitates and we therefore appreciate them all the more.

It is now exactly a year ago since the Canadians went into their first large encounter with the Germans, and throughout that long year we cannot but look back and realize the significance way in which we have been looked after by the folks from Home.

I hope that in the near future we will be able to send to the pupils of Prince Street School some small token in return for the pleasures we have derived from "The News from Home."

I am,
Sincerely yours,
ERNEST S. WEEKS.
