WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—On Saturday evening, Nov. 30th, a gathering of more than ordinary interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. MacKenzie, Cavendish, when the good people of Cavendish invaded their home for the purpose of expressing in a tangible way their congratulations to this worthy couple on the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. Taken altogether by surprise Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie gracefully surrendered to a very capable committee and on being escorted to the parlor were placed in seats of honor, when Rev. H. S. Bishop gave an opening address to which Mr. MacKenzie fittingly responded. A short impromptu program was then carried out, those taking part being Mrs. (Rev.) H. S. Bishop, Mrs. E. C. Webb, Mrs. Jeramiah Simpson, who gave an original poem on the "Courtship of Bob." Mr. C. Simpson gave one of the good old time readings, describing a like twentieth anniversary in the old land. Mr. Charlie E. MacKenzie, who on this occasion ably supported his brother, gave a brief address on the happenings of these twenty years. Rev. H. S. Bishop gave an appropriate reading from Robert Burns and last but by no means least came the musical part put on by the Old Boys Orchestra of Cavendish, under the efficient leadership of Mr. Bishop. The ladies then took charge and served a very dainty lunch. This gathering was a real community one where each one present felt that the good old time get together habit is coming back and may the writer express the wish that other communities follow the lead given by the good people of Cavendish. The community gift to Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie was a beautiful "tea set," fittingly showing the good wisies of the donors, and as the groom of twenty years said, "may we be here to welcome you when another decade will have passed."

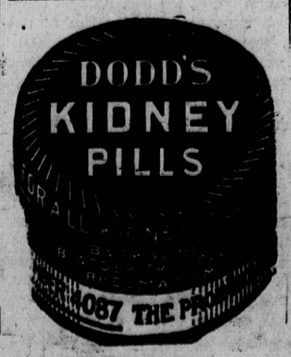
STERILIZATION OF MENTAL DEFECTIVES

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 2—(By The Canadian Press)—Sterilization of mental defectives should be the theme of social organized debate, Dr. B. T. McGie, superintendent of the Ontario hospital, Orillia, said at the annual meeting of the Haven. Enabling legislation in this regard had been passed in both British Columbia and Alberta. It was time that the subject was brought to the attention of Toronto and that opinion be expressed on the matter.

The staff of the hospital at Orillia thought sterilization advisable, properly safeguarded of course, in a number of cases. The matter should receive careful consideration in fairness to the children who are brought into the world. It was found in two years at the Orillia hospital that 53.4 per cent of those whose cause of mental defectiveness could be determined were hereditary cases.



Canadian Stock For American Fair

(By the Canadian Press)

OHICAGO, ILL. Dec. 2—Canada will defend its name as a source of choice livestock by sending over 250 head of its best farm animals to compete in the International Live Stock Exposition which will be held this year in Chicago Nov. 30 to Dec. 7. Five provinces—Ontario, Alberta Saskatchewan, British Columbia and Manitoba, will have nominations for the high honors conferred on those that receive recognition in this International show

They will be exhibited by 27 of the leading livestockmen of the Dominion. Attesting the adaptability of Canada to various kinds of livestock is the fact that the Canadian entries at the Chicago show are representative of 13 different breeds of cattle, horses, sheep and swine. The picturesque "red, white, and roan breed," the Shorthorn, will be shown by eight different establishments that favor this kind of cattle. They are Stevansan Farms of Alliston, Ontario; The University of Alberta, at Edmonton, and the following Ontario livestockmen, F. H. Deacon, of Unionville, T. A. Russell, of Donsview, Duncan Campbell, of Moffat, George H. Fletcher, of Erin, Bruce A. MacKinnon, of Hillsburgh, and Jonas Bingeman and Son, of Waterloo. Exhibitors of other breeds of cattle are Frank Collicut, of Crossfield, Alberta, Edwards Brothers, of Watford, Ontario, George Graham, of Bently, Alberta, and Thomas Henderson and Son, of Lacombe, Alberta.

Pastoral Canada will be represented by a list of internationally known flock masters who have become well known through former winnings at the International exposition. They include H. Noel Gibson, of Komoka Ontario, both an exhibitor and a judge at the Chicago show this year, and eight other Ontario exhibitors, H. Skinner, of Tyrone, David D. Bell and Son, of Shakespeare, R. Russell Fleming, of Whitby, H. M. Lee, of Highgate, Robson and Goddard of Denfield, Charles J. Shore of Glenworth, C. J. Brodie and Son, of Stouffville, and Robert McEwen and Sons of London.

A number of Saskatchewan horse breeders will be there, C. M. Rear, of Regina, is sending seven Percherons, and B. H. Moore, of Ronleau, has entered eight of the same breed. Clydesdales will be shown by Thomas Davis and James A. Johnstone, of Yellow Grass, James Richardson and Sons, of Moosomin, and Stevens on Farms, of Alliston, Ontario. Three Saskatchewan horsemen, John G. Weiss, of Kronan, and Rear and Moore, will be seen with their nominations in the Belgian Horse ring.

Every crop of commercial importance in Canada will be on view in the International Grain and Hay Show, one of the largest departments of the International Livestock Exposition. The choicest samples of the harvests of the leading cropsmen of Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan will be displayed in this section.

Many veteran Canadian exhibitors are listed among those sending samples. Prominent among them is Major H. G. L. Strange, of Fenn, Alberta, who has sent samples of grain to Chicago every year since the grain show was added to the Livestock Exposition. In 1923 one of his wheat entries received the championship. R. O. Wyler of Luseland, Saskatchewan, is sending wheat samples this year. In 1922 he received the championship. Another vetran exhibitor and winner is Samuel Larcombe, of Birtle Manitoba, and numerous others.

WOMEN'S PAY ENVELOPES GROW

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 2.—(By The Canadian Press)—Average wages of women workers in Quebec industries are steadily mounting under the effect of minimum wage legislation, a three-year survey of the activities of the Women's Minimum Wage Board Reveals.

On the Island of Montreal, the average wage of the female worker in laundries and dye works has risen from $11.74 a week in 1927 to $12.96 in 1929. In the printing and allied industries, the jump has been from $12.14 in 1928 to $12.68 in 1928. And in the textile industry, the advance has been from $12.89 in 1928 to $13.38 in 1929. Wages for women in the same industries located elsewhere in the province, also show advantages since Gus Francq and his colleagues began their industrial investigations and set their wage schedules.

Among the peculiar local taxes in Sark, one of the Channel Islands, is one which is paid in chickens by each house according to the number of chimneys it possesses.

British Delegates To The Conference

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, December 2—Prime Minister MacDonald announced in the House of Commons today that the British Government delegates to the naval conference in January would be himself, Right Hon. Arthur Henderson, Foreign Secretary; Right Hon. A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, and Rt. Hon. Wedgewood Benn, Secretary for India. The Prime Minister added that the governments in Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, the Irish Free State and the Government of India had been invited to nominate delegates. Mr. MacDonald added that the King had given his "gracious permission for use of the Royal Gallery of the Palace at Westminster for the opening plenary session and St. James Palace for subsequent meetings of the conference." The Prime Minister said that the date for the opening of the naval conference had been definitely fixed for January 21, despite possible conflict with the January session of the League of Nations Council.

CANADIAN PINE FOR WARSHIPS

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 2.—(By The Canadian Press)—Into some of the warships of the British Navy, it is probable, a shipment of pine now being cut in Algonquin Park will go, it was learned yesterday at the Parliament buildings. The timber is being taken out by the John R. Booth Company of Ottawa, which has some old timber leases in Algonquin Park, to fill an order for the British Admiralty. It was not disclosed by the Admiralty what use the wood will be put to, but it is believed that some of it will go into the ships of the line.

Some of the trees being cut are huge ones, big enough to make timber 26 inches square. Since this will make the cutting spectacular and owing to the general exceptional circumstances of the shipment, Hon. William Finlayson, minister of lands and forests, intends to have the process filmed by the provincial movie bureau.

He announced yesterday that next month a provincial photographer would go to the park to take pictures. Mr. Finlayson himself also will go in order to make his annual inspection of the park. It is likely that the photographer will take "shops" all around the park and make a new general film on the property.

More than 2,000,000 volumes of new and second-hand books are stocked on 35 miles of shelving in the new building of a London book store which is said to be the largest in the world.

FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS Had To Sit Propped Up In Bed

Mrs. Norman Bishop, Salisbury, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with faint and dizzy spells and when I would lie down I would suffer terribly with smothering spells. I got so bad I had to sleep propped up in bed.

"My doctor said it was my heart and nerves, and that I needed a good heart tonic.

"I was advised to take MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS and I had not taken one box when I could lie down and sleep like a child."

Canadian Mounted Rifles In War

passed through the 4th. and 2nd. on the Corps left, attacking enemy positions between the Scrape river and the northern slopes of Monchy-le-Preux. Pushing ahead, the battalion's right swung around behind Monchy-le-preux, joining hands at eight o'clock with the 5th. C. M. R., which had attacked on the right of the Brigade area, capturing the tactical feature of Orange Hill and then drifting parties up to the southwest of the village. Seeing themselves thus cut off from support, the garrison surrendered.

Did space permit one might here recount the brilliant exploit of Lieut. C. S. Ruthford, 5th. C. M. R., of Colborne, Ont., who by a brilliant piece of bluff captured single-handed two machine-gun posts with their garrisons, 45 officers and men; or of Father James Nicholson of Kingston, Ont., chaplain of the same battalion, who, quite unprofessionally, made prisoners seven officers and 40 men out of a dugout.

In the Battle of Cambrai, which opened Sept. 27 with the storming of the Canal du Nord, the 1st. C. M. R. greatly distinguished themselves, at cost of a heavy casulties, by storming St. Olle on the northwest outskirt of Cambrai, pushing on the banks of the Scheldt canal. In the days followng, a sanguinary battle was fought out by the Canadian Corps on the high plateau north of Cambrai, of which Blecourt was the pivotal centre to be finally won on Oct. 1 when the beaten enemy fell back suddenly eastward, but still kept the hold on Cambrai itself, which indeed was outside Canadian Corps area of attack. For some days the 8th. C. M. R. Brigade continued to hold the west bank of the Scheldt, continual snipping going on with enemy machine-gunners posted opposite in the suburbs a hundred yards away. On Oct. 8, the Canadian Corps was entrusted with the capture of Cambrai, after the British Corps on its right had attacked unsuccessfully. The infantry advanced on the entire Corps front in the pitch dark of a rainy night, lacking therefore the customary support of a creeping artillery barrage. Entry into the city itself was made by the C. M. Rs., two men of the 5th. Battalion swimming the canal to bomb out the machine-gun post on the railway bridgehead, but they found it deserted, the enemy having evacuated half an hour after midnight. The 4th. C. M. R. meantime was engaged in penetrating the city from the northeast and by half past ten that morning the 8th. Brigade and Canadian Engineers occupied the area, capturing a small enemy force left behind to complete the destruction, for by noon the beautiful square of the Place L' Armes had been totally destroyed by enemy incendiary fires.

The 8th. C. M. Rs. took part in the running battle that ended at Mons on Armistice Day, distinguishing themselves in breaking down organized enemy resistance on the Honneau River, and fighting on among the slag heaps to the very hour of victory.

P. E. I. Ministerial Association Meets

The Prince Edward Island Ministerial Association met in St. Paul's Parish Hall at 10.30 a. m. yesterday with the new president, Rev. G. A. Grant, in the chair. The meeting opened with a prayer by Dr. Vincent, Rev. E. M. Aitken acting as chairman, pro tem. The former secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. After which Rev. G. A. Grant again took the chair. The president then called upon Rev. H. D. Raymond for a devotional address. Speaking on the 130th Psalm he unfolded the depth of meaning that underlay the expression of the psalmist. The writer was able to testify out of his own personal experience as to the power of God to lift men out of the depths. At the conclusion of a very clear and practical exposition tinged with an inspirational appeal the president thanked Mr. Raymond for his valuable contribution. As was fitting prayer followed by Rev. Bruce Muir.

Rev. Mr. Spriggs reported on behalf of the Orphanage that there was religious education being given daily, but the superintendent wished that the ministers would arrange to conduct worship regularly. The city ministers were appointed a committee with Dr. Vincent as chairman, to arrange a schedule.

It was agreed that the moderator or chairman of the various denominational bodies be asked to meet and allocate the amount to be raised by our province for the Lord's Day Alliance.

A commission consisting of Dr. Ramsay, Mr. Muir, Dr. Vincent and Mr. Raymond, was appointed to try to make arrangements whereby church services should not be disturbed by parades.

Dr. Ramsay called the attention of the Association to the situation regarding the need of religious training in the city schools, West Kent and Prince Street. It was on motion agreed that Major Lowther and Mr. Hammond Johnston be invited to be present at the next meeting to take part in a conference on religious education in the city schools.

The meeting adjourned to meet again on January 6, and was closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Johnston.
