T. E. Hankinson, Middleton, has traded Jay Volo with John Harkness, Summerside, for Professor Clegg. Professor Clegg is a four-year-old by Abner T. Clegg 2.04¼ that trialed a mile in 2.18½ over the Summerside track in June. Many predict that eventually he will take a fast record. Professor Clegg was developed by the late Professor S. A. Rockford and raced by him in the Two Year Old Futurity in 1944. Other changes in ownership include Royal-at-Law 2.04 and Bright Spot 2.09½ that passed from Walter Hennessey to Emmett Burke, and Royal Tell 2.16½ to Joe Hood, North Sydney, N. S.

George Brookins' good trotter Christie Budlong 2.09, now racing at Old Orchard Beach, Maine Grand Circuit mile track, won a dash a week ago in 2.07 and was second in another dash. On Wednesday Christie was second to Cheer Up in a mile dash in the 2.09 Trot, time 2.07, then turned the tables in the next heat to win in 2.08 from the same field. She is in the stable and has been driven by Earle Avery.

Secretary J. W. Boulter of the Provincial Exhibition Association states that up to last evening entries for 66 different horses had been received. This is the most he can remember of having for the day prior to closing. He is of the opinion that everything points to this being one of the biggest race meets of all time. In order to have the stables cleaned, fumigated and repaired for the various race horses that will occupy them it is necessary that those now stabled at the track that will not be racing Old Home Week should move out as soon as possible. They are quite welcome to return after Exhibition races.

Ralph Gay, popular Longworth Ave. grocer, and Mrs. Gay recently returned from a visit to the Eastern States and took in the Grand Circuit meeting at Old Orchard Beach, Maine. They had the pleasure of seeing George Brookins' Christie Budlong 2.09 race. She was up against a very fast field. Cheer Up won the heat in 2.03 with Fast Train second and Christie Budlong third. All three finished in a bunch. Later in the afternoon Christie was second to Cheer Up and the following week won from Cheer Up and practically the same field of trotters.

This week races were held at Riverside, P. E. I., Sydney and Springhill, N. S., and Moncton, N. B. Track records were broken and many horses lowered their marks or took new records, showing that the various racing stables are getting into condition and from now on racing will be of the keenest type. Following is a brief summary of the principal incidents of the week.

—O—

Riverside races had one of the biggest attendances in their history. The four race program was well contested and showed up new winners in Beaverdale and June Morning. The Junior Free For All was won by O. U. Volo with Lorraine Abbe winning the middle heat, best time 2.15¼. Harold Stead, Brackley, is the owner and driver of O. U. Volo. Beaverdale 2.13, an aged trotter brought from Ontario several years ago, has been rejuvenated by owner-driver Don McNeill, Summerside, who skulled him to victory in the No. 1 Classified, although Marjorie Budlong, showing her best form of the season, won the middle heat with Winnie Scott, also much improved, with a summary of 7-2-2, best time 2.16 by Beaverdale. In the No. 2 Classified the up and coming trotter Marion L., that Tyndall Semple has been so successful with won the first two heats, Eleanor G., owned by Urban Gillis winning the third heat in 2.19½, which is a new record for her. Professor Clegg was 4-3-3, the trotter Captain Abbe 3-5-6; four other starters. Marion L. is owned by George Semple, Kensington. The 2.30 Pace stake saw June Morning, a four-year-old owned by George MacDonald, Mermaid, a straight heat winner, heading Lucky Number (Kelly) 2-2-2; Buddy Budlong (Stead) 3-3-4 and six others. Best time 2.16.

—O—

June Morning has a rather exceutional pacing pedigree. She was bred by James Power, Charlottetown, and was sired by Calumet Budlong 2.02¾. Her dam is Miss Victoria 2.14 by Kalmuck 2.15½ by Peter the Great 2.07¼. The granddam was the pacing mare Miss Possibility 2.12½ that was raced with success through Maine prior to coming here. Miss Possibility was by the Ohio sire Possibility 2.02½, one of the best pacers of his era.

—O—

Springhill, N. S., had a splendid race card on last Wednesday with Wilkin 2.07, owned by Charlie Craig of Halifax winning the Free For All in three straight, heading the Halifax owned Josedale Hoosier 2.07 with 3-2-2 also Rhea Mae and Jean Henley. Josedale forced the Wilkin to step the second heat in 2.11 which lowered the track record set by Peter Budlong by one-half second. Charlie Walker's Judd was a straight heat winner in the No. 1 Classified with Oliver Grattan 3-2-4; Hillside Scott 2-5-3, best time 2.16. An incident occurred in the second heat which might have had serious consequences but fortunately turned out o.k. when Hillside Scott's driver fell off and the horse went a half mile driverless. In the No. 2 Classified Ramona Dale, owned by J. D. Mehan, St. Stephen, won the first and third heats with Haliburton of Springhill winning the middle heat, best time 2.17 by Ramona Dale. In the No. 3 Classified Betty Budlong was the winner with Mary Merck second, Camelot Gabriel third, best time 2.18.

The newly constructed Moncton raceway got off to a grand start with great racing and plenty of spectators on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Thousands of fans throughout the Maritimes enjoyed listening to the broadcast which was sponsored by the Lane Bakeries, Ltd. In the first day's meet the 2.28 Trot and Pace was won by Moneymaker, owned by Harry O'Brien, Alberton and driven by son Joe, in three straight. Nelda Budlong (Collette) 3-2-3; May Budlong (Long) 4-3-2; five other starters; best time 2.14½, a new record for Moneymaker. The 2.20 Trot and Pace was won by the four-year-old Mona Direct owned by W. G. Stewart, New Glasgow and driven by Harley Harrison; Delilah B. (Walker) 2-4-4; the trotter Jolly Harvester (Collett) 3-2-3; Lady Rose (Wisener) 5-3-4; three other starters; best time 2.09. Mona Direct reduced her record from 2.12 to 2.09.

—O—

The Junior Free For All First Division, was won by the trotter Sunnymeade 2.07¼, owned by J. D. Mehan, St. Stephen, and driven by Joe O'Brien; Colleen Scott 2.06¾ (Harrison) was 2-2-3; Worthy Ermine (Barnes) 4-3-2; three other starters. The three heats were trotted in 2.08, 2.08, 2.09, probably the three fastest heats ever trotted by Sunnymeade in his long racing career. Fans will remember that he was for years top trotter in the Billy Keyes stable. He seems like old Heatherbell 2.08¾, to have the secret of perpetual youth. The Second Division of the Junior Free For All was won by Peter Brooke 2nd driven by Joe O'Brien, with Dale H. (Woodcock) 2-2-3; Federal (Cormier) 3-3-2; best time 2.09½.

—O—

Last Thursday while most of the Maritimes, particularly this Province, was deluged with showers of rain, the sun shone bright at Moncton and races were pulled off commencing at three o'clock. The 2.25 Trot and Pace was won by the trotter High Tide, driven by Joe O'Brien, with 1-1-2. The good pacer Iola Henley (Short) was 4-3-1; Carnation Lady 2-2-3; Gwendolyn Hanover 3-3-4; best

McDiarmid Wins Way To Tennis Final

OTTAWA, July 26 — (CP) — Defending his Canadian title, Don McDiarmind of Ottawa smoothly stroked his way into the singles final of the Canadian tennis championships today with a four-set victory over peppery little Henri Rochon of Montreal.

Deadly down the sidelines and playing faultlessly on the defensive the 1940 champion won by scores of 6-1, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

Vancouver Jr. New Champion

OTTAWA, July 26 — (CP) — Sensational Lorne Main of Vancouver won the Canadian junior tennis championship today with a straight-set victory over Colin Maass of Westmount, Que.

The 16-year-old Pacific Coast protege, considered the best Canadian prospect in years, trounced his 17-year-old opponent 6-4, 6-0, 6-1.

Margarine was first developed by a French chemist in 1870 to ease a fat-shortage resulting from the France-Prussian War.

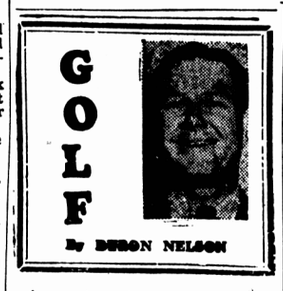
Fencebusters Here For Game With Local All-Stars Tomorrow



A good caddy is a greater blessing to a tournament professional golfer than the casual golf fan will ever know.

I've had some good ones and I've had some bad ones, but I've been lucky enough to have more good than bad. Jimmy "Monk" Fraelich, who caddied for me when I won the 1939 Open Championship at Spring Mill, was a good caddy. Al Roszkowski, who caddied for me in 1944 and 1945 when I won the All-American Championship at Chicago, was another and so was a boy named "Mick", who caddied for me during the recent Western Open in St. Louis, although I never did learn his full name.

A caddy is good if he can put you at ease so that you can concentrate on playing the game and forget about him. Furthermore, a good caddy doesn't do those little things which are part of the routine of an ordinary caddy, but which irritate the high-strung player.

For instance, he will never let the ball hit the flag because that will cost you a penalty of two strokes. He doesn't set your bag down near a ball and he doesn't walk into sand traps. He has a pleasant disposition and he makes you feel that he is taking care of you, but he doesn't speak unless he is spoken to.

Your caddy can help you in the selection of your clubs, particularly if he shoots a good game of golf himself, but the value of these selections is sometimes overrated. I think that your caddy's judgment may not always be the best, but it can help you to make a decision. That is particularly true if you are hesitating in a selection between two clubs and his judgment substantiates your own.

"Monk" Fraelich, who caddied for me when I won the Open Championship, did something I like to have my caddies do. He put my clubs into my hands firmly and decisively. Somehow, just in the manner he handed them to me, he seemed to be saying, although most of the time he never said a word, "This is the one. . . . I don't see how you're going to miss this shot. . . ."

A good caddy has the ability to inspire a great deal of confidence in yourself by his attitude towards your game. Some caddies hesitate in handing you your clubs and there is nothing that annoys me more. They, by their hesitancy, make me feel as though they weren't sure that they were giving me the right club.

Nor is the care these caddies have given me just part of an act that they put on for the tournaments. For instance, Roszkowski was rated as the No. 1 caddy at his club for more than a year. There were 225 cards turned in by members he had carried for which rated him as to ability. All marked him "excellent". They should have, he's a good caddy.

Give your caddy a break. Don't scold him merely because your game comes apart at the seams and you are losing your shirt in one of those buck Nassau weekend matches. Be a man about it and place the blame where it rests. . . . squarely on your own shoulders. Treat him right and he will treat you right and the first thing you know he will be just as interested in your efforts to cut down your score as you are.

Airmen Are Eliminated By Red Sox

The RCAF bowed out of the Summerside League play-off picture last night going down to defeat at the hands of the Red Sox 13-9. Both Mickus and Powell were hit harder than in their first play-off appearance. Mickus being touched for 13 hits and Powell 9. Powell struck out 11 and Mickus 8.

Underwood and Powell both hit 3 for 4 for the Sox and Webb hit 2 for 4 for the Flyers. Powell and Thompson hit triples; Underwood, Lidstone, Phaneuff and Williner two base-hits. Carneth's catch of a foul in the third was the fielding gem of the game.

Lineups:

Red Sox—MacMurdo cf; Landry ss; Schurman c; Gaudet 3b; Underwood 1b; Lidstone rf; Phaneuf 2b; G. MacKay rf; Powell p.

RCAF—Thompson c; Webb 1b; Carneth 3b; St. Pierre 2b; Williner cf; Laflamme 2b; McKeague lf; Gunn rf; Patterson ss; Heaslip ss; Mickus, P. Barnard ph. — S.

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

Joe Wright, Jr., of Toronto, Diamond Sculls winner in 1928, was defeated by two lengths at the 47th annual Canadian Henley regatta at St. Catherines 17 years ago today. His conqueror was Jack Guest who won the Diamond Scull himself the next year.

Crow Shoot Is Staged

Despite the inclemency of the weather yesterday some five teams participated in the first "crow shoot" of the season staged last night. The bags secured were small.

William Rix and Walter Bearisto topped the gunners with Ralph Jenkins and Wally Rodd capturing second prize.

Three other teams, George Carson R. Mosher and Lloyd Wonnocott, E Hrne and Frank, Eddie Acorn tied for third place.

Like Chances Of Assault In Arlington

CHICAGO, July 26 — (AP) — The richest Arlington classic since Blue Larkspur triumphed in the inaugural running 18 years ago will be decided at Arlington Park before 40,000 tomorrow with Assault, highest money-winning three-year-old in turf history, battling to convince five rivals that he is reigning champion beyond doubt.

With six starters, one of the smallest fields in the history of the 1 1-4-mile race, the event will have a gross value of $66,650, with $76,850 going to the winning owner.

The Texas thunderbolt probably will dominate tomorrow's field, with Lord Boswell, fourth to him in the Kentucky Derby, rated as the outstanding challenger Athenia, only filly in the race: The Dude, Mighty Story and Sgt. Spence will complete the field, which compares in number to the classics of 1930, '40 and '41.

Assault probably will go to the post an even money choice or less.

WARLEY, Essex, England — (CP) — A chime of bells is to be hung in the regimental chapel here as a memorial to officers and men of the Essex Regiment killed in the war.

HUNTERS' CORNER

In mid July I spent a couple of days in Eastern Kings County in the general area north and east of Souris. To my mind its the most unspoiled portion of our fair province. To really appreciate the beauties of virgin timber one has to move back from the shore road and penetrate the hinterland of this section of Kings County. Its no country for a greenhorn to be roaming about in unless accompanied by one who knows the area, and knows it well.

• • •

Its a region of second growth woodland, grown over abandoned farms, dense spruce swamps, alder swales and grassy intervals interspersed with hardwood ridges that support ancient hardwoods 18 inches in diameter. Cold, spring fed brooks are encountered frequently and one can wander at will along old logging trails for miles without meeting a soul or seeing any signs of human habitation. Its the habitat of all species of wildlife of which the rabbits, foxes and grouse are the most numerous.

• • •

The old Tarantum road running from Gowan Brae at the Head of Souris River to Elmira a distance of from 12 to 14 miles bisects this most interesting section of Eastern Kings. Parts of the Tarantum road are passable for car traffic but for the most its a grass grown cart track on which the surrounding forest encroaches more and more with each passing season. In bygone days this road served a very useful purpose when prosperous farms dotted this inland section of Eastern Kings, but today its grass-grown rutted surface arched by towering hardwoods and spruce is only a mute reminder of the life that once flowed along this artery.

• • •

On one afternoon I was accompanied by Frank Sterns, Souris sportsman. Frank knows this country like a book and showed me many out-of-the-way corners that are veritable "game pockets." So long as we have cover like we checked that afternoon, about the only agency that could destroy it would be a series of bad forest fires, one need never worry about the Ruffed Grouse (native partridge) becoming extinct. We walked along old wood roads that meandered through out over tracts in which the second growth was as high as a man's head, through brook fed alder swales and swamps wherein wild mint and fruits grew in profusion, and over hardwood ridges dotted with open sunny patches and old rotted logs, a made to order grouse country.

• • •

I asked my companion about grouse prospects in the fall. "Lots of "grouse" was the reply, "but one has to hunt them the hard way. It means miles and miles of walking and the cover is so dense one has to have eyes like a hawk, besides grouse have an uncanny habit of sitting perfectly still and letting one pass by without making a move."

• • •

He related a little incident that happened last fall and is typical of what frequently happens when one is hunting one of our most valued and elusive game birds . . . the Ruffed grouse. One particularly productive grouse "pocket" was a cluster of old apple trees that stood guard over a home site from which all trace of the buildings have long since vanished. The open fields

Two Runs In Ninth Gives Giants Win

(By The Canadian Press)

Singles by Sid Gordon, Babe Young and Johnny Rigney brought New York Giants two runs in the ninth inning yesterday and gave them a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati Reds and also gave pitcher Johnny Gee his second consecutive triumph over the western club.

The Giants went into the lead in the second inning when Johnny Mize doubled and came in on Jack Graham's single. The Reds tied it in the fifth, getting a run across through an infield hit, a Giant error, a hit batsman and an outfield fly.

Bob Adams dropped a Texas Leaguer into left field for a double in the eighth, then came in on Gradey Hatton's single to put the Reds in front.

Wins Rich Pacing Stake

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me., July 26 — (AP) — Derby Day, a little-know chestnut colt owned by Dunbar W. Bostwick of New York, won the two-year-old national pacing stake, worth nearly $6,000, in straight heats today in grand circuit racing here.

Harry Fitzpatrick captured his third national stake in two days with straight wins behind Dr Spencer in the Goldsmith Maid aged trotting stake. The four-year old brown horse, twice winner over champion Titan Hanover, trotted the second mile in 2.01 1-4.

Ensign Hanover of the Castleton Farm stable kept his record clear of defeat by winning the three-year old national pacing stake. Frank Safford's Graham Hanover, the only other entrant, provided little competition.

Fine On Breadon Is Rescinded By Ball Commissioner

ST. LOUIS, July 26 —(AP)— Sam Breadon, owner of St. Louis Cardinals, was fined $5,000 by Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler for refusing to meet personally on his June visit with the Pasquel Brothers of the Mexican Baseball League, but the penalty later was rescinded.

Breadon said today he harbored no hard feelings. The white-haired president of the Cardinals said a reconciliation was effected in Boston at a dinner given July 7 by Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey just before the annual all-star game.

The rescinded penalty also was reported to have included a suspension of all rights of the St. Louis club for 30 days.

Breadon explained in a statement today that Chandler summoned him to a meeting with the commissioner and President Ford Frick of the National League on his return from Mexico Saturday, June 22.

"I explained to Mr. Frick that after telling Jorge Pasquel (President of the Mexican Baseball League) that I came to Mexico City representing no one but myself that it seemed to me, were I to attend such a meeting, Mr. Pasquel would have the right to disbelieve my statement and think I went to Mexico representing baseball and the commissioner's office.

"I did not attend the meeting on Monday, and the commissioner called me on the phone and told me that I had to be there Tuesday morning.

"I did not attend the Tuesday meeting and on Wednesday I received a letter from the commissioner fining me $5,000 and stating he would refuse me admission to the joint meeting in Boston."

Breadon said that at the dinner in Boston Chandler agreed to permit him to attend the meeting and to rescind the penalty. This was a friendly meeting and I attended the joint meeting on Monday," he added.

Golf Rookies Tournament

The Charlottetown Golf Club plans holding a tournament for first year golfers the latter part of next week.

The competition, it is understood, will be over nine holes and will consist of a qualifying round of medal play to be followed by match play.

Prizes will be awarded winners of the event and a consolation prize will be offered.

Jimmy Walker, club professional, has already received several entries and newcomers to golf have received the innovation in the club program with approval and enthusiasm.

All entries should be made at the club house by Monday of next week.

3 Canadian Clubs In Lead In Henley

(By The Canadian Press)

PORT DALHOUSIE, Ont., July 26—Three Canadian rowing clubs swept out in front of the point race after the second day of the three-day 64th renewal of the Royal Canadian Henley regatta.

Trailing behind Buffalo West Sides in second slot yesterday, St. Catharines Rowing Club gathered 68 points today for a 92 total. That was enough to give them a three-point margin over their closest rivals. Hamilton Leanders who picked up 69 today for an 80 over-all total.

Picking up 82¾ points to lead the single-day scoring, Toronto Argos swept from near the bottom of yesterday's standing into their place with an 84¼ total.

The Toronto club amassed its huge total on the strength of four firsts—two in singles events and two in doubles. The West Sides built their yesterday's 33½ total to 50½ to hold fourth place in the partial standing and McGill University's team have garnered 41 points to date.

The main singles events of the day — the Association singles—went to Toronto's veteran Argo sculler Ted Chilcott who just edged out Joey McIntyre, the Philadelphia schoolboy.

FLIGHT KILLS OYSTERS

CAPETOWN — (CP) — The first consignment of Falmouth oysters which were flown from England for breeding purposes in South African waters were found to be dead on arrival here. Dr. C. Von Bonde dirthe cold encountered in high flying may have killed them.

Ladies Title Won By Mrs. R.T. Holman

Highlighting the ladies play this week at the Charlottetown Golf Club was the winning of the Ladies' Championship by Mrs. R. T. Holman. Runner-up was last year's titlist Mrs. W. E. Cotton.

The President's Match was won by Mrs. N H. DeBlois with Mrs. Holman placing second.

The July winner of the Goodwill Medal is Mrs. J. Pope Clarke.

Trucks Stops Philadelphia With 6 Hits

(By The Canadian Press)

Virgil (Fire) Trucks rode out a three-run Philadelphia storm in the first inning, stopped the A's with six hits and batted in the winning run as Detroit Tigers nosed out Athletics 4-3 in an American League contest yesterday.

The defeat was last-place Philadelphia's fifth in a row in Briggs Stadium, where the Mackmen haven't won a game this year. The victory was the Tigers' 12th in 14 games with the A's.

Their three-run outburst in the opening inning, featured by Warren Rosar's big triple, was the Athletics' only gesture as Trucks steadied to scatter three hits over the last eight innings and record his 11th victory.

Catcher Paul Richards doubled in the sixth and scored the winning run on Trucks' two-bagger against the fence in left centre.
