WILL WEAR CALICO AND OVERALLS AT CHURCH.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 22.—As a means of rebuking Dame Fashion, the congregation at East Alton Baptist Church will next Sunday attend the services clad in calico and overalls. The members noticed a decrease in church attendance yesterday, and being of the opinion that persons preferred to be comfortable on a Sunday to going to Church, decided on a novel scheme whereby they could do both. The pastor, the Rev. D. C. Blunt, is enthusiastic over the scheme. Some persons who had been remaining away from church told the pastor they had done so because they did not have clothes which enabled them to make a "splurge" that compared favorably with that of other members. The women members of the church next Sunday, therefore, will wear their calico gowns, while the sterner sex will don overalls.

WILL NOT KISS BRIDES AGAIN.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 22.—The custom of the presiding clergyman kissing the bride will probably be abandoned here, yesterday, after his experience here, yesterday, at the hands of I. G. Woody. When Mr. Hill bent over to kiss Mrs. Woody, who, a moment before, had been Mrs. Barbara Jarrett, Woody knocked the Minister down.

Three Essentials of Happiness

A clear conscience—and you'll sleep well
A good digestion—and you'll live well
A good SODA WATER—and you'll feel well.
Particular people find that it pays to have a regular drinking place—a place where sanitary conditions prevail—where only the purest materials are used in serving soda water—and where the service is ideal. People go out of their way to drink at our fountain, because they know that we meet all of the above requirements.
Drink when you're tired—it's refreshing.
Drink when you're thirsty—it's satisfying. But—you don't need any special excuse for drinking at our fountain. The deliciousness of our beverage will satisfy you.
