HOME FOR BURIAL.—The sudden death of Mrs. James McMeekin occurred in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Palmer, Mexico, Me. Mrs. McMeekin went to Maine for her health, but contracted pneumonia. The deceased was 70 years of age, and leaves five sons and two daughters to mourn their loss. WELCOME HOME.—Among the boys arriving from the front on Tuesday evening, was Pte. Daniel Griffin, formerly of Glengarry, Lot 7. Mr. Griffin, who left home ten years ago and located in the North West, was in the service of the North West Mounted Police when the war broke out, but seeing the necessity for men he resigned and enlisted for overseas service where he has successfully passed through many hard battles. Mr. Griffin will spend a few weeks with friends at Lot 7, and Summerside, before leaving for the west. LITTLE CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.—A sad and distressing accident occurred at Kensington on Tuesday morning attended by fatal consequences. The victim was Doris Kathleen, little daughter of John H. Walker. While the men of the house were out and while the mother was dressing up stairs the little child ran down stairs and it is supposed picked up and lighted a match which set fire to her highly inflammable clothing. Before the mother could respond to her cries, the child was so severely burned that she died about twelve hours later. The sympathy of the community is generously extended to Mr. and Mrs. Walker in their sad bereavement. BASEBALL.—A very close and interesting game of baseball was played in Alberton on June 3rd between Alberton and O'Leary teams. The final score being 14-13 in favor of O'Leary. In the last innings Alberton went to bat with the score as above. The first batter made a three bat hit and it looked as if things were going their way when the second batter went up and hit a fly ball which was caught by the catcher. The third batter lined out a bat one which was caught by the second baseman who immediately threw it to 3rd Base thereby putting the winner and the side out and leaving O'Leary the winners by one run. The line ups were as follows: Alberton O'Leary C. P. Wellie C. H. Bearisto P. A. Hunter P. G. Dennis 1st B. W. Rogers 1st B. K. S. Howatt 2nd B. F. Keefe 2nd B. C. Ellis 3rd B. G. Oliver 3rd B. G. M. WELLINGTON INSTITUTE.—Meeting held at home of Mrs. James P. Ayres, May 16. In the absence of the president, meeting was called to order by Mrs. Pembroke, vice-president. It was moved, seconded and carried that minutes of last meeting be adopted. The financial statement was read by the secretary, showing a balance on hand of $20.65. Letters were read from St. Vincent's Orphanage and Convalescent Home, acknowledging socks and parcels received. It was moved, seconded and carried that a Pie Social be held in Wellington Station Hall, June 3. Proceeds to be expended on improvements for Wellington Centre and Station schools. An interesting paper on "Home Training" was read by the secretary. The hostess, assisted by several ladies, served luncheon. Music and singing by Misses Zelica Poirier and Annie Barry. Next meeting, being the annual meeting, will be held at the Poirier Hotel. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Ayres, after which the meeting adjourned.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A very sad affair took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Broen, Darnley, when their daughter, Ethel Frances, died on the 31st May, after a week's illness. Death came unexpectedly as she was always healthy and lively, but the grim reaper has no respect of persons, so all must go sooner or later. May her soul rest in peace.—Com.
