When Is a Woman Old.

This query on my mirror hung:
"When is a woman old?"
It elicits to me and long has clung—
The answer must be told.

Ah, some are old before half-way,
And some are never old,
For these but laugh life's cares away,
While those both fret and sould.

The oldest ones of all the old
Are those who would look young,
For they will always fret and sould
When age's sign is hung.

As long as women cling to youth,
And disregard their age,
They never can be old, forsooth—
Their youth fills up the page.
