MRS. ALEXANDER A. JOHNSTON

On March 7th a deep gloom of sadness was cast over Newport when it was learned that Mrs. Alexander A. Johnston had passed away in the 48th year of her age.

The heartfelt sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved husband and family in their hour of trial. Mrs. Johnston's memory will be long cherished by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, her kindness, charity and generosity, will not soon be forgotten. She always deemed it a pleasure to assist where sickness and trouble laid its cold hand for which we hope today she is reaping her reward. She was a woman of a bright and cheerful disposition which not only made a happy home for her husband and family but for all who called on her, a testimony which goes to show by the many letters of condolence received by her family from people who but only had a slight acquaintance with her. MR. JOHN S. HINTON

Death came with startling suddenness to one of Summerside's most prominent citizens in the person of Mr. John S. Hinton who passed away yesterday morning after an illness of only three days of pneumonia. Mr. Hinton looked ill on Saturday afternoon and his condition became quite serious pneumonia of a very pronounced type having set in.

His death at the age of 55 years is deeply to be regretted. As Mr. Hinton was a citizen of the type which any town can ill afford to lose as he was always foremost in every thing making for the progress of his native town as a successful career. He entered business first at Tryon representing Stanfield's, Ltd. and was with the firm of R. T. Holman for 35 years. About five years ago he went into business for himself in Summerside in the hardware line and built up a splendid trade. He is survived by his wife and three children, namely, Mrs. (Dr) Allen, and Richard at home, and Harry in Western Canada to all of whom sincere sympathy is extended in the sad bereavement.

TEACHER REMEMBERED.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William MacKinnon, Bay Fortune, was the scene of a festive gathering on Thursday evening, March 11th, when upwards of seventy-five friends assembled to mark their appreciation of Miss Annie Campbell's services in the capacity of teacher for Eglington School.

Mr. George Clapp was called to the chair and in a neat speech outlined the object of the gathering. He then called upon Miss Emily Lindsey to read the following address:

To Miss Annie Campbell: We, your friends have assembled here this evening for the purpose of expressing our appreciation and gratitude for the excellent service rendered our children in the capacity of teacher in the past four years.

With untiring effort you have endeavored to teach them the things which will enable them to take their places in the world as capable men and women.

You have ever been faithful and punctual in the fulfillment of your many duties day after day; always to be found at your post whether fine or stormy, and ever ready to give each pupil the benefit of your undivided attention.

Your recent illness was learned with deep regret and sincere sympathy by one and all, but we are glad to have you back with us again and trust your health will be the best in the future. We ask you to accept this small purse as a token of our esteem and friendship. It is not its intrinsic value, but the spirit with which it is given which counts most.

Signed on behalf of Johnston Dingwall, Wesley McKenzie, Wm. MacKinnon, U.

The purse referred to, was presented by Miss Irene Dingwall, and although taken greatly by surprise
