

The Paper That Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News Worth Reading All The Ads Worth Printing

Charlottetown, Canada SATURDAY, AUGUST 20, 1921

SENATOR CURRY VISITS CHARLOTTETOWN IN YACHT

Gives His Opinion on Present Industrial Situation and Expresses Hopeful Views Regarding Future.

The yacht Milicete belonging to Senator Curry arrived here Thursday from Tidnish, N. B., where the Senator has a summer residence. The Milicete is a smart trig yacht of 45 tons register and was built by Senator Curry's firm. It is gasoline propelled, having a twin crank engine. The Milicete carries eight passengers, in addition to the engineer and cook including Senator and Mrs. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Curry, Mr. Ronnie Curry, (who is named after Mr. Ronnie Laird) Mrs. Barr, St. John, Mrs. Purdie and Miss Pike, Amherst.

July Fire Losses

(Special to The Guardian.) TORONTO, Aug. 19.—Fire losses in Canada in July are estimated to have exceeded $2,880,250, compared with $2,303,400 in June and $1,426,850 in July of last year. Losses for the past seven months of the year total $18,591,300 compared with $14,409,113 in the corresponding period last year.

Scores Volunteer For Service in Spanish Army

LONDON, Aug. 18.—Scores of unemployed former British service men are reporting daily to the Spanish Consulate here for enrollment in the Foreign Legion of the Spanish Army. Most acceptances are directed to report to the Spanish transport Almirante Lobo, which is due to sail for Spain tomorrow.

Wanted - Waitress Apply Reddin Bros.

TEACHER WANTED FOR BETHEL SCHOOL. Apply to Ernest Lund, Secy.

TO LET—Eleven room house, 145 Euston St., suitable for boarding house. Possession, Sept. 15th. Apply J. B. Cooper.

FOR SALE, ONE NEWLY FRESHENED COW, Ayrshire grade, Wallace Owen, Frenchfort.

LOST—A STRING OF PEARLS. Finder please leave at Guard Jan Office.

WANTED—Double-barrel twelve gauge shot gun. Hammerless preferred. State price first time write. A. S. Robertson, Mermaid.

HOUSE TO LET—8-roomed cottage, modern convenience. Large yard and outbuildings, also garage. Apply Phone 164-J.

WANTED SEPTEMBER 15th an experienced maid. Must be good cook. Good wages. Apply Guard Jan.

WANTED TO RENT, COTTAGE or tenement, centrally located, with all modern convenience. Apply to "G" Guardian.

FOR SALE, 70 ACRES OF LAND, about 30 cleared, balance partly in wood, 7 miles from Charlottetown at Hazlebrook Station. H. M. B. Smith, Pownal.

SATURDAY SPECIAL—TWO large packages Sunmaid Raisins 55c; 2 cans tomatoes 35c; 8 lbs white sugar 69c; 4 1/2 lb paper 25c; 2 lbs salmon 39c; 2 lbs Pekoe tea 75c. Renown Flour $1.35. Goods delivered, phone 571. Weymouth Cash Grocery.

Alleged Libel Against Ontario U. F. Organ

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 17.—The fourth writ for alleged libel, launched because of an article in the Farmers Sun, organ of the United Farmers of Ontario about loan to the Manitoba and certain Canadian M. P.'s and senators, issued today at Osogood Hall. The latest plaintiff is W. F. Cocksbutt, M. P. of Brantford and he claims, as do the others $50,000 from the Farmer's Publishing Company, Limited, Toronto.

International Law Must Fix Limit

(Special to The Guardian.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A formal notice that it cannot recognize the jurisdiction of the United States over the high seas beyond the three mile limit fixed by international law for many years has been served by the British government in connection with the seizure, twelve miles off Long Island coast of the British schooner Marshall, reported to have been laden with liquor.

To Italy Direct

(Special to The Guardian.) MONTREAL, QUE., Aug. 19.—Signaling the inauguration of a direct service between Canada and Italy, the Captain and officers of the Italian liner, Caserta, the first vessel to be placed on the route by the Navigazione Generale Italiana, entertained many prominent members of Montreal's Italian colony to a banquet on board the ship last night.

Sisters Victims of Double Drowning Accident

(Special to The Guardian.) ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Aug. 20.—Two daughters of Edward King were the victims of a double drowning accident at Pool's Island, according to reports reaching here. One of the girls fell over a cliff and her sister was drowned in an attempt to rescue her. The sisters were ten and seven years of age.

Rainstorm Saved City from Riot

AUGUSTA, Georgia, Aug. 18.—This city is in the throes of a threatened race riot tonight following the killing of two white men and a negro in the downtown section of the city late this afternoon, when the negro became angry and began shooting. A large crowd gathered early in the evening, in an ugly mood, but a rain storm and the activity of the police dispersed them.

Judicial Inquiry After Many Years

PARIS, Aug. 17.—After seven years' delay a judicial inquiry has been begun at Compiegne into a story which has long been current in the district that the inhabitants of a village in the Oise Department in 1914 lynched a lad by crucifying him on a hurdle after a summary trial. He was accused of having set fire to a barn belonging to a former master, who was mayor of the village, and, according to the story that has been current, the mayor and almost the whole population has been implicated in the lynching.

Funeral Directors Meet

HALIFAX, Aug. 18.—The Nova Scotia Funeral Directors Association met at their meeting this morning selected as officers for the coming year the following: President—C. B. Craikshanks, Halifax. Vice-President—J. E. Borden, Hantsport. Secretary—Cecil Zinck, Dartmouth. Chairman—James Ross, New Glasgow. Sergeant at Arms—D. L. MacKinnon, Montague, P. E. I.

Yukon Pioneers

DAWSON CITY, August 17.—Frank Brock, of Dawson, was elected grand president of the Order of Yukon Pioneers at the annual session of the grand lodge here yesterday. George Brimstone, Dawson, was elected grand secretary. The lodge rejected a motion to change the name of the order to "The Alaska-Yukon Pioneers." The chief argument advanced against the change was that all who pioneered into any part of the Yukon River or watershed, prior to August 17, 1900, regardless of the boundary line. A proposal to admit to membership any who pioneered into any part of Alaska not in the watershed was rejected.

JUST ONE MORE DAY

This is the closing day of the competition for the Special Prize $125.00 Phonola. Candidates should make every effort to win this Great EXTRA Prize. The Phonola is a beauty and well worth your best efforts. In winning this Prize you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are doing better than your competitors. Your friends also will be glad to see you win this EXTRA Prize and you better from now until the finish to make you the winner of one of the automobiles. All subscriptions must be mailed in not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning in order to be counted for this EXTRA Prize Phonola.

Hope of Settlement In Railwaymen Strike

(Special to The Guardian.) SYDNEY, Aug. 19.—Strong hope of an early settlement of the steel and railwaymen's strike, which has now been in progress for nine months was aroused today by an arrangement for this week of a conference between General Supt. Rice, Dominion Iron Steel Company and George K. Wark, representing striking switchmen.

Scottish Curlers Will Visit Next Year

(Special to The Guardian.) WINNIPEG, MAN., Aug. 19.—A team of Scottish curlers has accepted the invitation to visit Canada, tendered by the Canadian Curling Team which toured Scotland last winter. The Manitoba Curling Association has announced that the Scottish curlers plan to make a tour of the Dominion during the winter of 1922-23.

Japan and U. S. the Deciding Factors

(Special to The Guardian.) LONDON, Aug. 19.—If an alliance with Japan could be merged into greater understanding with Japan and the United States on all problems Pacific it would be a great event and would be a guarantee for world peace. Thus spoke Lloyd George, British Prime Minister, before the House of Commons today, outlining the work of the recent conference of the Imperial Premiers.

Local Delegates Appointed for Maritime B. of T.

At a meeting of the Charlottetown Board of Trade last night the following delegates were appointed to attend the annual convention of the Maritime Board of Trade which will be held in this city Sept. 14th and 15th: Messrs. A. Pomeroy, R. H. Beers, W. L. Higgins, I. Carter, R. E. Mutch, R. H. Jenkins, H. V. Buntain, J. O. Hyndman, C. H. Chandler, J. J. Hughes, S. A. McDonald, Jas. Paton, N. Ratten, J. H. E. T. Higgins, M. L. A. W. P. Tidmarsh, W. C. A. McLure, J. S. Wedlock and Col. D. A. McKinnon. The following subjects will be brought before the attention of the Maritime Board by the local delegates: (1) The passing of a uniform traffic law in the Maritime Provinces. (2) The grading of agricultural and food products. (3) The opening of new markets for Maritime products.

New Bolshevik System

(Special to The Guardian.) RIGA, Aug. 17.—The Bolsheviks seem determined to put the new economic system in operation as soon as possible. The Pravda of August 12, which reached Riga today, contains a circular letter signed by Dogaadoff, general secretary of the executive committee of Associated Labor Unions, addressed to workers throughout the country, stressing the need of their immediate and energetic cooperation in the new system "in order to secure victory over chaos and famine."

Bolshies Get Cold Shoulder

BELTIN, Aug. 16.—In voting one million marks for the relief of suffering in Russia, the International Trade Union Congress has taken today's session that the help is extended purely on humanitarian grounds, thus carefully emphasizing that no money is to be spent in the interest of solidarity with the Bolsheviks. This course furnishes indication of the attitude of European Socialists. The Russian hunger crisis. Bolsheviks have been trying to ally the Socialists of other countries with them, through the medium of famine conditions, and the others are scrupulously avoiding them, unknown with not be hurt to Russian politics under cover of charity.

Funeral Directors Meet

HALIFAX, Aug. 18.—The Nova Scotia Funeral Directors Association met at their meeting this morning selected as officers for the coming year the following: President—C. B. Craikshanks, Halifax. Vice-President—J. E. Borden, Hantsport. Secretary—Cecil Zinck, Dartmouth. Chairman—James Ross, New Glasgow. Sergeant at Arms—D. L. MacKinnon, Montague, P. E. I.

Yukon Pioneers

DAWSON CITY, August 17.—Frank Brock, of Dawson, was elected grand president of the Order of Yukon Pioneers at the annual session of the grand lodge here yesterday. George Brimstone, Dawson, was elected grand secretary. The lodge rejected a motion to change the name of the order to "The Alaska-Yukon Pioneers." The chief argument advanced against the change was that all who pioneered into any part of the Yukon River or watershed, prior to August 17, 1900, regardless of the boundary line. A proposal to admit to membership any who pioneered into any part of Alaska not in the watershed was rejected.

JUST ONE MORE DAY

This is the closing day of the competition for the Special Prize $125.00 Phonola. Candidates should make every effort to win this Great EXTRA Prize. The Phonola is a beauty and well worth your best efforts. In winning this Prize you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are doing better than your competitors. Your friends also will be glad to see you win this EXTRA Prize and you better from now until the finish to make you the winner of one of the automobiles. All subscriptions must be mailed in not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning in order to be counted for this EXTRA Prize Phonola.

Government Ship Sunk In Steamer Collision

(Special to The Guardian.) QUEBEC, Aug. 19.—The steamer Canadian, a Canadian Government Merchant Marine, sunk off Stone Pillars at Traverse at 10:30 o'clock tonight as the result of a collision with the steamer Maskinonge, Dominion Coal Company service.

Nothing Doing in U. S. Negotiation

(Special to The Guardian.) OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 19.—A recent Washington despatch announced that the Commission negotiations between Canada and the United States in regard to imports of Canadian pulp for printing paper had been authorized by President Harding, but Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, stated today that he had received no communication in regard to the matter and the same statement was made at the Prime Minister's office.

Hordes of Mice Invading Europe

BERNE, Aug. 18.—The plague of mice in Switzerland about which I cabled on August 7, now proves far greater than originally supposed. The plague is not confined to Switzerland but extends throughout Central Europe, and in most continental countries, it is a plague of rats besides mice. In Czechoslovakia, mice have destroyed the corn crop. Examinations which is particularly plagued with rats, offers large rewards for every dead rat, and in Germany, most parts of which are plagued with rats and mice or both, some towns have organized systematic campaigns against them. Letzig alone having voted forty thousand marks for this purpose. In one limited district of Switzerland, in three weeks, 40,000 mice were captured mostly by school children with traps.

Ross Murder Verdict

(Special to The Guardian.) NEWCASTLE, Aug. 19.—The inquest into the death of James Ross, Negue, concluded this afternoon when the jury returned the following verdict: "We the jury empaneled to inquire into the death of James Ross, find that he came to his death by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of some unknown party with sufficient evidence to suspect M. S. Stewart at the time."

Bolshies Get Cold Shoulder

BELTIN, Aug. 16.—In voting one million marks for the relief of suffering in Russia, the International Trade Union Congress has taken today's session that the help is extended purely on humanitarian grounds, thus carefully emphasizing that no money is to be spent in the interest of solidarity with the Bolsheviks. This course furnishes indication of the attitude of European Socialists. The Russian hunger crisis. Bolsheviks have been trying to ally the Socialists of other countries with them, through the medium of famine conditions, and the others are scrupulously avoiding them, unknown with not be hurt to Russian politics under cover of charity.

Funeral Directors Meet

HALIFAX, Aug. 18.—The Nova Scotia Funeral Directors Association met at their meeting this morning selected as officers for the coming year the following: President—C. B. Craikshanks, Halifax. Vice-President—J. E. Borden, Hantsport. Secretary—Cecil Zinck, Dartmouth. Chairman—James Ross, New Glasgow. Sergeant at Arms—D. L. MacKinnon, Montague, P. E. I.

Yukon Pioneers

DAWSON CITY, August 17.—Frank Brock, of Dawson, was elected grand president of the Order of Yukon Pioneers at the annual session of the grand lodge here yesterday. George Brimstone, Dawson, was elected grand secretary. The lodge rejected a motion to change the name of the order to "The Alaska-Yukon Pioneers." The chief argument advanced against the change was that all who pioneered into any part of the Yukon River or watershed, prior to August 17, 1900, regardless of the boundary line. A proposal to admit to membership any who pioneered into any part of Alaska not in the watershed was rejected.

JUST ONE MORE DAY

This is the closing day of the competition for the Special Prize $125.00 Phonola. Candidates should make every effort to win this Great EXTRA Prize. The Phonola is a beauty and well worth your best efforts. In winning this Prize you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are doing better than your competitors. Your friends also will be glad to see you win this EXTRA Prize and you better from now until the finish to make you the winner of one of the automobiles. All subscriptions must be mailed in not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning in order to be counted for this EXTRA Prize Phonola.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Imperial Wireless Chain is Now A Reality

(Special to The Guardian.) OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 19.—Messages have been exchanged between Leaflet wireless station, near London, England, and Burlington station, Nova Scotia, it is announced by the Department of the Naval Service. The stations are 3,000 miles apart and the Leaflet station is the first one of the imperial wireless chain to establish communication between all the British possessions.

Irish Situation Still Uncertain

(Special to The Guardian.) LONDON, Aug. 19.—Uncertainty over the Irish situation caused the Government to change its plans instead of proposing Parliament tomorrow as intended, it will merely be adjourned until October 13. The speaker in the interval will have the power to convoke Parliament, should Irish developments necessitate it. Lloyd George is expected to make a statement on the Irish situation before adjournment tomorrow.

Many Arrested in Big Liquor Seizure

(Special to The Guardian.) OLEVELAND, Aug. 19.—Police early today took seven men and four women into custody in a spectacular seizure of the steam yacht Venice, said to be in the service of a whiskey ring, operating in Canada and the United States. The seizure, at Whiskey Island, West Cayahaga River, netted ninety-five cases of imported wine and liquors.

Ross Murder Verdict

(Special to The Guardian.) NEWCASTLE, Aug. 19.—The inquest into the death of James Ross, Negue, concluded this afternoon when the jury returned the following verdict: "We the jury empaneled to inquire into the death of James Ross, find that he came to his death by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of some unknown party with sufficient evidence to suspect M. S. Stewart at the time."

Bolshies Get Cold Shoulder

BELTIN, Aug. 16.—In voting one million marks for the relief of suffering in Russia, the International Trade Union Congress has taken today's session that the help is extended purely on humanitarian grounds, thus carefully emphasizing that no money is to be spent in the interest of solidarity with the Bolsheviks. This course furnishes indication of the attitude of European Socialists. The Russian hunger crisis. Bolsheviks have been trying to ally the Socialists of other countries with them, through the medium of famine conditions, and the others are scrupulously avoiding them, unknown with not be hurt to Russian politics under cover of charity.

Funeral Directors Meet

HALIFAX, Aug. 18.—The Nova Scotia Funeral Directors Association met at their meeting this morning selected as officers for the coming year the following: President—C. B. Craikshanks, Halifax. Vice-President—J. E. Borden, Hantsport. Secretary—Cecil Zinck, Dartmouth. Chairman—James Ross, New Glasgow. Sergeant at Arms—D. L. MacKinnon, Montague, P. E. I.

Yukon Pioneers

DAWSON CITY, August 17.—Frank Brock, of Dawson, was elected grand president of the Order of Yukon Pioneers at the annual session of the grand lodge here yesterday. George Brimstone, Dawson, was elected grand secretary. The lodge rejected a motion to change the name of the order to "The Alaska-Yukon Pioneers." The chief argument advanced against the change was that all who pioneered into any part of the Yukon River or watershed, prior to August 17, 1900, regardless of the boundary line. A proposal to admit to membership any who pioneered into any part of Alaska not in the watershed was rejected.

JUST ONE MORE DAY

This is the closing day of the competition for the Special Prize $125.00 Phonola. Candidates should make every effort to win this Great EXTRA Prize. The Phonola is a beauty and well worth your best efforts. In winning this Prize you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are doing better than your competitors. Your friends also will be glad to see you win this EXTRA Prize and you better from now until the finish to make you the winner of one of the automobiles. All subscriptions must be mailed in not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning in order to be counted for this EXTRA Prize Phonola.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

UNEMPLOYMENT SITUATION IS BEING MET BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

(Special to The Guardian.) OTTAWA, Aug. 19.—As an alleviation of the unemployment situation the policy adopted last December, whereby the Federal Government undertook to bear one third of the cost of unemployment relief provided by the Municipalities, will be continued. In the meantime the Minister of Labor has notified the provincial Governments that if they will conform with the municipal authorities, labor organizations, employees, soldiers, organizations, etc., and devise new or better means, the Federal Government will be pleased to co-operate. So far Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec have evinced a desire to participate in whatever scheme of co-operation may be deemed best.

British Scientists At McGill Convention

QUEBEC, Aug. 19.—When the militia docked at Quebec this morning there landed a group of noted British scientists who are to attend the annual convention of the Society of Chemical Industry, which opens in Montreal at McGill University on Monday, August 29. The British delegation is headed by Sir William Pope, who was knighted under the British Empire Order for his special services in research with mustard gas for the war office during the war.

Highways Projects

OTTAWA, Aug. 18.—Up to May 31 of this year, the details of projects highways under agreement between the Dominion Government and the Maritime Provinces are: Prince Edward Island—Eight projects, with a total mileage of 63 miles, and an estimated cost of $11,027,776. This would require, at 40 per cent of the total, federal aid to the extent of $45,228.

Ross Murder Verdict

(Special to The Guardian.) NEWCASTLE, Aug. 19.—The inquest into the death of James Ross, Negue, concluded this afternoon when the jury returned the following verdict: "We the jury empaneled to inquire into the death of James Ross, find that he came to his death by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of some unknown party with sufficient evidence to suspect M. S. Stewart at the time."

Bolshies Get Cold Shoulder

BELTIN, Aug. 16.—In voting one million marks for the relief of suffering in Russia, the International Trade Union Congress has taken today's session that the help is extended purely on humanitarian grounds, thus carefully emphasizing that no money is to be spent in the interest of solidarity with the Bolsheviks. This course furnishes indication of the attitude of European Socialists. The Russian hunger crisis. Bolsheviks have been trying to ally the Socialists of other countries with them, through the medium of famine conditions, and the others are scrupulously avoiding them, unknown with not be hurt to Russian politics under cover of charity.

Funeral Directors Meet

HALIFAX, Aug. 18.—The Nova Scotia Funeral Directors Association met at their meeting this morning selected as officers for the coming year the following: President—C. B. Craikshanks, Halifax. Vice-President—J. E. Borden, Hantsport. Secretary—Cecil Zinck, Dartmouth. Chairman—James Ross, New Glasgow. Sergeant at Arms—D. L. MacKinnon, Montague, P. E. I.

Yukon Pioneers

DAWSON CITY, August 17.—Frank Brock, of Dawson, was elected grand president of the Order of Yukon Pioneers at the annual session of the grand lodge here yesterday. George Brimstone, Dawson, was elected grand secretary. The lodge rejected a motion to change the name of the order to "The Alaska-Yukon Pioneers." The chief argument advanced against the change was that all who pioneered into any part of the Yukon River or watershed, prior to August 17, 1900, regardless of the boundary line. A proposal to admit to membership any who pioneered into any part of Alaska not in the watershed was rejected.

JUST ONE MORE DAY

This is the closing day of the competition for the Special Prize $125.00 Phonola. Candidates should make every effort to win this Great EXTRA Prize. The Phonola is a beauty and well worth your best efforts. In winning this Prize you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are doing better than your competitors. Your friends also will be glad to see you win this EXTRA Prize and you better from now until the finish to make you the winner of one of the automobiles. All subscriptions must be mailed in not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning in order to be counted for this EXTRA Prize Phonola.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points will be given after this week.

Mr. Subscriber—Pay your subscription today. Don't delay any longer. Many readers have been sending in their subscription to the office to be credited to their favorite candidate during the last week, and the Guardian is grateful for their splendid response. There are still many who have neglected forwarding their subscription. Do it now. It will help some one win a good prize. Mail it today. This is the last day of the 50,000 EXTRA points on every 20 clubs of subscriptions. Positively no more EXTRA Points