DEBATE CONTINUED IN PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

Mr. Peter Brodie Didn't Have any Bonquets to Throw at the Technical School or the Road Policy; and Consequently Did Not Get Any Applause From the Liberal Benches.

Legislature, Mar. 26-23

Hon. Mr. Crosby believed other important changes were becoming general: furnace heated homes; hot and cold water, etc.; also in the near future electric lights. He had noticed throughout the country the number of old mill dams no longer being used. These could be refitted with turbine water wheels and dynamo for electrical power for the home. In our streams and undeveloped mill sites we have, he believed, enough power to light all the homes in the province. One stream near Charlottetown tested some years ago at 50 or 60 horse power. Further up stream this force could be multiplied 5 or 6 times. There has also been installed Radio sets in farm homes; he believed these would also increase. The country advantages will soon be equal to the city facilities and will have in addition all its own particular charms.

Mr. Peter Brodie, the next speaker, extended the usual compliments to the mover and second of the address. In the Speech from the Throne reference had been made to the trade treaty with France. He would not say much about this; time would tell whether it was advantageous or not. Liberal members at Ottawa were making a great many questions to Mr. Fielding on the subject. Our educational work in this province is very important. The old province, over a hundred years ago, taught school here, and did farm work too. Their womanfolk taught in the young people. Then the French school system came into effect and each government that has come into power has been doing its best to grapple with the educational problem according to its ability and its finances. The present government, Mr. Brodie believed, is deserving of credit for increasing the teachers' salaries. He was however against the system of raising school supplements as it was not fair to the poorer districts. The wealthy districts could afford to pay the best teachers and the others had to be content with what they could get. Mr. Brodie cited cases of pupils who had not succeeded in graduating from Prince of Wales College, teaching under permits. All the teachers, he contended, should be paid directly out of the treasury, as every district was entitled to first class teachers. There were schools, two at least that he knew of, which had been closed down for some months out of the year because they could not afford to raise the supplement.

The franchise for women has not gone far enough, the speaker believed. It should be extended to the property vote as well. They were desirous of this if only for their patriotic work during the war. One old lady, ninety-four years of age had knit 108 socks for the soldiers. There are returned men deserving of better treatment than they have received. He knew half a dozen wounded ex-soldiers, one with a foot off, who had not received a dollar of pension. There was something wrong with this state of affairs and the government has anything to do with it.

Mr. Brodie had attended six of these cases should be looked upon as a splendid work. He believed that the work will be continued. Perhaps a little more could be given by the government towards prizes. The judges in making their awards at these fairs should explain to the children the reasons for giving first second and third places to the exhibits, otherwise the children will lose much of the educational benefit of the fair, and may think that there has been favoritism. The judges in the Domestic Science departments did this, but the men who were judging got away as quickly as they could. Large fairs at Charlottetown and Summerside could be held with great advantage.

In regard to the Agricultural and Technical School, Mr. Brodie contended that its usefulness depends entirely upon the effect it had upon the pupils. The ladies judge there were a lot of people believe that this training did not help in keeping young men on the land. There are 14,000 farmers in the

Sealing Fleet's Kill Now Totals 42,000

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Mar. 27.—The Newfoundland sealing fleet which, up to Saturday had killed only 18,000 seals reported today that the season's kill has now reached 42,000. The seven vessels sealing on the banks reported their individual catches as: Thetis 8,500; Eagle, 7,000; Ranger, 6,000; Seal, 6,500; Sagona, 5,500; Terra Nova, 4,500; Neptune, 4,000.

The steamer Eagle has broken three of her propeller blades? She will be towed from the ice field to open water and will return to this port. The revenue cutter Daisy went ashore in a denge yesterday at Point La Haye in St. Mary's Bay. She was relocated today undamaged. Many harbors along the south coast still are blocked with ice and the steamers Kyle, Argyle and Glenoe are icebound in south coast ports.

Bad Smash-up At Rothsay, N.B.

Last evening about 5 o'clock a railway smash up occurred which put the telegraph service out of commission, making it impossible to get any night telegrams through. From meagre reports received from Moncton it appears the train was a freight of nineteen cars almost all of which left the track the engine and some cars plowing their way along and knocking over several telegraph poles. So far as could be learned no one was injured.

Sugar Rise Not Due To Fordney Tariff

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—The present speculation in sugar is not traceable to the Fordney-McCumber tariff, the Republican National Committee declared last night, in a statement, that was the recent speculation in Piggy Wiggy stock.

Declaring the prevailing duties on sugar were 3-4 to 1-14 cents greater than the Underwood tariff, the statement contended that "to assert that an increase in tariff of a cent a pound in the price of sugar is to give utterance to clothed nonsense."

Offer $500 Reward For Broker's Capture

MONTREAL, Mar. 27.—A reward of $500 is now offered for the apprehension of F. R. D. Harper, an oil recently trading as a stock broker in this city under the name of Harper and Company. A branch of the business was carried on at Belleville, Ont., and it is clients in that town who are offering the reward.

Harper disappeared from Montreal, March 15 last and on the day following a warrant was issued charging him with obtaining by fraud the sum of $25,000.

DISLIKES THE IDEA OF DINING WITH ROYALTY

LONDON, Mar. 27.—Robert Smilke, president of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, when asked yesterday for his opinion regarding the action of the Labor leaders in accepting invitations to dine with royalty, said:

"Personally I think the less we consort, dine and wine with the superior classes the better for Labor as a whole."

CLOSE ANGUS SHOPS TO MAKE WORK LAST

MONTREAL, March 27.—The Angus shops of the Canadian Pacific Railway here closed down Friday night and will not reopen until April 3. Notices to this effect have been posted in the shops by the company. Approximately 3,000 men are affected.

The long stoppage is the consequence of an arrangement between the company and the employees under which the men, instead of submitting to a reduction of staff, suggested that the services of everyone should be retained and the work spread out as far as possible.

North Sydney Chief Of Police Arrested

NORTH SYDNEY, Mar. 27.—Chief of Police Louis A. Clark of North Sydney, was placed under arrest this afternoon and is charged with the theft of the business books of William Lane, a second-hand dealer. The warrant was issued by Stipendiary S. G. Thorne on information laid by Lane. Chief of Police Clark on Saturday seized four books from Lane's store for use in the trial of Mrs. Alex Stammer, who is charged with receiving stolen goods.

Lane contends the chief had no legal authority for the seizure and in addition to the warrant for arrest obtained an order for search to recover the books. Chief Clark was admitted to bail on his own recognizance and will come up for hearing on Thursday.

Alliance Waits On Government

At a meeting of the Provincial Temperance Alliance yesterday, the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the Province to section 4 of the Prohibition Act was discussed and a resolution was passed inquiring that the Provincial Government take immediate steps to have the decision of the Supreme Court appealed to a higher court and to have the rights of the Legislature to enact temperance legislation maintained and settled by the highest judicial authority.

A delegation from the Alliance waited on the Premier and members of the Legislature and urge the carrying out of that resolution.

Addresses were given by Rev. H. D. Raymond, chairman, H. McFatt, President of the Temperance Alliance, W. T. Huggan, Rev. R. B. Staver, Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick and Rev. J. B. Bonnell.

The Premier said that the Government would give the matter their serious consideration and endeavor to meet the wishes of the Alliance.

The question of appeal or of passing new legislation would be fully considered. If the Alliance desired legislation this session to make sections 52 and 51 of the Prohibition Act valid that legislation would be granted.

Hon. J. J. Johnston took the ground that instead of legislation there should be an appeal to the Privy Council.

BONAR LAW HAS THROAT TROUBLE

LONDON, Mar. 27.—Premier Bonar Law is suffering from a mild throat affection which interferes with his voice, otherwise his health is good. He intends, however, to take ten days' complete rest from political affairs during the Easter recess.

Rumors of the retirement of Mr. Bonar Law as Prime Minister have been repeatedly current since he assumed office, because of his uncertain health and because of the possibility that he might be unable to stand the prolonged strain of office. But the Premier was in his place in Parliament today answering questions and there is nothing to show any immediate likelihood of his retirement.

COMMODORE STEWART'S CONDITION IS CRITICAL

CHATHAM, Mar. 27.—According to advices received here today the condition of J. L. Stewart, who was dangerously ill at Melrose, Mass., is still very serious. He is in a dying state and the doctors say they can hold out no hope for him.
