HACKNEYS WILL FEATURE NEW YORK HORSE SHOW.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Because of the war Hackneys, which have not been docked, will be a feature of the annual National Horse Show, which will open in Madison Square Garden on November 12th, it was announced here tonight. The receipts will be given to the American Red Cross.

Heretofore, the Hackneys have had their tails removed before going on exhibition here in harness, under saddle or on the end of a lead line. But the war has brought the breed into prominence for artillery and cavalry purposes, and many breeders are cultivating Hackneys with this in view. Recognizing the situation, it was stated the American Hackney Horse Society, of which Reginald C. Vanderbilt is president, has ruled that in judging Hackneys at this year's show there shall be no discrimination against those with long tails. Mr. Vanderbilt will enter a yearling which has not been docked.

IF WASHINGTON CAME BACK

By Hector Charlesworth

If George Washington came back to earth, that which would astonish him most, apart from the revolution in military methods, would be the flexible system of War Finance, embodied in the U. S. Liberty Loan, and Canada's "Victory Loan". If we had only thought of that the Revolution would have been over in half the time, he would exclaim. Many a time did Washington despair because Congress had no financial organization to back him. Men in rebellion against British taxation refused to contribute a penny. Many patriots who gave their all to aid the cause were never repaid. The pay certificates of many officers were never honored. The status of continental currency is immortalized in the phrase, "Not worth a Continental". All for lack of a workable system of War Finance! The point to remember is that the Revolutionary war dragged on interminably, and recovery was long delayed, because the modern system of democratic War Loans had not been devised. There was no attempt to coordinate the financial resources of the people with their military power. Canada's "Victory Loan" represents intelligent War Finance in its highest development. It enables everyone to cooperate in shortening the war and in conserving the nation's prosperity. It secures to the investor a just and profitable return. It is sane, equitable and patriotic.

SAYS BRITAIN IS NOW AT HER BEST

LONDON, Nov. 1.—J. L. Garvin, editor of the Observer, writes: "In his virile speech at Albert Hall, last Monday, Premier Lloyd George declared the forthcoming allied conference in London will be the most momentous that has yet been held. The Prime Minister is right, but why? Because the conference will be attended by an American Commissioner. This is an epoch-making sign. It seals every former assurance that the whole resources of the United States will be thrown into the conflict. It gives a new pledge that the entire question of the future waging of the war by land, sea and air will be re-examined in the original spirit and from a point of view which faces unflinchingly the cost of great attempts, but demands a relentless adaptation of means to an end. America is paying so large a part of the piper's fee in this affair that she is bound to have an equivalent voice in calling the tune. We rejoice in this fact. We are convinced that it will bring into the Allies' councils a more concentrated daring and resolve than has yet inspired them. It will help to weld their whole working and fighting organization into a more thorough unity. "There is yet another point. In our own country the last three months have wrought a marvelous change. Our statesmen know now that they have only to be worthy of the temper of the people. Not since the early day of the war has Great Britain been so effectively at one, so dourly and doggedly set to see the fight clean through. We have given many examples in previous years; we give another—at one hour the controversy no two men were more directly against each other, at sword's points and in diameter, than were, for instances, Lord Northcliffe and Sir John Simon. Now Sir John Simon quits the bar to join the army, an act which on the part of one who may be called the opposition lawyer, is a finer thing of its kind than was ever seen in Pitt's time. No past dispute about Lord Northcliffe shall prevent us for a moment from saying that his activity in America, and above all his campaign for ships, ships, ships, is a vital service to the allies and equal in its sphere to the best work that is being done by any Englishman to-day."

ISLAND SOLDIER'S LAST INSTRUCTIONS TO DAY AT THE FRONT EXEMPTION TRIBUNALS

The following letter from M. A. Nicholson, Hunter River, 105th Battalion, to his sister Mabel of Brookline, Mass., reads:—

712388
13 R. H. C. Batt.
B. E. F.
C. Second Ward,
Queen Mary's Military Hospital,
Whalley,
Lancashire,
England.

Dear Sister—I arrived here a week ago and I am getting along O. K. This is a large Hospital, accommodation for about three thousand patients. We had a very good trip from France, it took about fourteen hours. We certainly have a great system of handling the patients, they don't have to be moved, they are in the Hospital trains are very comfortable also on the Hospitalship.

We had some excitement the last two nights I was in France. The Germans came over and dropped bombs one fell about fifteen yards from me. I was in but it did not explode which was very fortunate for me. They dropped some a short distance away and wounded several of the patients and killed a Sister. They also dropped some in the "American" and wounded and killed quite a number.

I ought to be thankful I got off as easy as I did, when I see how other poor fellows are smashed up, some get a leg off, some with an arm and other with both.

My wound is about all healed up but the shrapnel ball is still there. My leg is a little stiff yet, but the pain is gone. I am to be X-rayed one of these days and they will decide about removing it.

I expect I will be in the Hospital for quite a while and when I leave I go to "A Convalescent" for a time to get built up, and then to my Reserve Battalion.

I had some very close calls. I bid good bye to myself several times after we went over the morning. We advanced about a mile and dug ourselves in a German came over in his aeroplane and saw where we were and signalled back to his Artillery so they gave us a terrific shelling. Those big shells were falling all around us. I often wonder how we escaped as we lost a lot of our men. I often wonder how I escaped.

Then Wednesday night we received word they were getting cut up bad in the front line we had to go on the double and start for all night. The next morning the Germans tried to come over. They came up an old communication trench, but we saw them in time and drove them back, killed some and wounded quite a number.

After standing the bombardment all day without food, about five thirty there was a bunch of us up on the parapet shooting at some Germans that were running across the field and after shooting them all down, I was going back to my hole, one of our own shells fell short and I got a bullet in my left thigh, it staggered me a little, but I was able to pick myself up and get the stretcher bearer to bandage me. There were more of our boys got slight wounded. We started for the dressing station together and had quite a time getting out as the shells were bursting all round us and we were walking over our own dead. We arrived at the dressing station at last and the wounds dressed and from there we were sent to the hospital in a Motor Ambulance.

I had a letter from Campbell MacLeod recently he is getting along fine. He has been to Scotland on leave and had a good time. I expect to visit Scotland in the near future. Alex. and the rest of the 105th boys are still in Whitley, he is planning on paying me a visit.

Thanks very much for your parcels and Registered letters. All my friends have been very kind to me, and I certainly appreciate it and hope some day to be able to thank them personally.

Hope to hear from your soon, With love, BRO. MACK.

OIL HEATER - MAKES CEMENT MIXING SAFE IN WINTER.

Protection against possible freezing of wet materials in a cement mixer during cold weather, obtained at low cost by using an oil-burning heater which can be attached to practically any mixing machine. Such a device unquestionably can save money for a contractor by making it safe to operate continuously when the temperature is low. The heater is depicted and the details of it given in the November Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Queen's County Dominion Election

Ladies and Gentlemen. Electors of Queen's County. At a large and representative Convention held a few weeks ago I was unanimously nominated to contest this County in favor of the Government and the active prosecution of the war.

The platform since enunciated by Sir Robert Borden is broad, comprehensive and statesmanlike, and should receive the unqualified support of all patriotic electors. My influence will be exerted towards the prompt forwarding of recruits to relieve our gallant but wearied soldiers at the front.

I shall vigorously urge all needful improvements in all our transportation facilities. It is well known that congestion of freight, spring and fall, not only retards our prosecution of the war but paralyzes our trade, causes heavy losses to our farmers, merchants and shippers, and urgently calls for improvement.

For nine years I had the honor of being a representative from this Province in the Dominion House of Commons, during which period I tried to do my duty faithfully, and I trust not without results.

I now respectfully solicit your support for Mr. D. Nicholson and myself.

The season of the year in which this election campaign is being held makes it difficult for me to visit each of you personally, much as I would like to do so, but I shall use every effort to see as many of you as I can.

Yours faithfully, ALEXANDER MARTIN.

Queen's County Dominion Election

To the Electors of Queens' County, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Six years ago Mr. A. A. McLean and myself were elected to represent you in the House of Commons. As the result of the election then held the Liberal-Conservative party came into power. During the years that have passed since then I have endeavored to the best of my ability to procure as large a portion as possible of governmental advantages for my native Province. The Government of the party I was elected to support, has done much for the betterment of our trade and commerce and our agricultural interests. It gave us the Car Ferry, increased grants to agriculture, the addition of $100,000 annually to our provincial subsidy, secured for our Province four members for all time to come, built a number of wharves for the convenience of our farmers and shippers, also dredged the docks at Charlottetown and elsewhere.

When it is considered that for over three years of this period, the Dominion revenues have been urgently required for war purposes, I feel assured that our efforts are not unappreciated by the people of the Province, irrespective of party. I am convinced that what has been done will prove a lasting benefit to the Province and will afford a great impetus to our future prosperity.

During the last session of Parliament I was pleased to support Sir Robert Borden in his endeavors to unite the two great political parties which divide Canada in one Government. Such a consummation would insure a more vigorous prosecution of the war, and would be the means of raising with the least possible friction the necessary recruits to go to the assistance of our hard pressed brave boys at the front.

I am highly gratified that a Union Government has now been formed. It is composed of the strongest men of both parties and shall have my full support.

At the last session of Parliament an Act was passed establishing machinery for the holding of a Dominion election. It provided for the appointment of enumerators to make up lists of voters for all the polls. These will shortly be appointed. May I be permitted to request that every possible assistance be given the enumerators in the preparation of these lists, so that everyone in the County, entitled to a vote, shall have his or her name on the lists before polling day.

In thus giving an account of my Stewardship, permit me to state I shall be candidate for this County at the coming election.

The crisis which involves our Country is the most important in its history. It devolves upon everyone to consider well the issue raised: are the people of Canada to leave unsupported our brave boys at the Front, who have so long and so well fought for the preservation of our rights and liberties, and whose splendid deeds of heroism have covered Canada with glory and renown? It is impossible.

I respectfully ask for the votes of all true and loyal men and women of this large and intelligent County of Queens', assuring them that the best interests of our province and especially our soldiers shall have at all times my sincere support.

D. NICHOLSON.
