IN MEMORIAM

MRS. PETER McN. ROBERTSON.

The death of Mrs. Peter McN. Robertson, of Marshfield, already chronicled, has cast a gloom over the community, and when it was learned that she remains would arrive by Saturday night's train, quite a number of friends were on hand at the station to extend their sympathy to Mr. Robertson and daughters. During Sunday and Monday very many called to express their grief at the death of such a worthy neighbour. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the 12th of June, and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were L. H. D. Foster, Arthur Miller, Edgar Heartz, Heber Crosby, Edward McDonald, and Wallace Owen. In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. D. McLean, assisted by the Rev. J. D. McKenzie, conducted the service, which was deeply impressive.

JOSEPH HENRY GALLANT.

In the death of Henry Gallant which occurred Thursday, Souris loses one of her promising young men, and by his death sorrow is felt by many hearts. The friends who knew him in life can always recall the sweet disposition and loving ways he had; ready to give his time and aid to any of his friends who needed it. They will often think of him. It is impossible to relieve grief with words. We bow in sorrow for his loss, feeling that while the ripened fruit may be gathered, it is unkind that the bud should be taken away before it has even the opportunity to unfold into the blossom. In the way of nature fruit falls, and so do blossoms and buds, and this is perhaps best and in the taking off of this one we accept the cross and bear it, believing that the bud will yet blossom and bear fruit in the angelic whither the spirit of Henry Gallant has flown.

A tender clinging vine interwoven in sweet memories from the hour the angel first gave him his home; a gentle spirit of light that fitted in and out like a gleam of sunshine. He has laid his burden down. We can hardly reconcile ourselves to the thought that others should take them up, and yet the future many reveal the good discipline that there may be in this—he goes out into the unknown and all is blank. He leaves his labor here unfinished, and others must carry to completion the work which he has begun. All seems wrong, and we refuse to be comforted and yet who shall say it is not best? Between himself and where we stand hangs a curtain beyond which, wisely we cannot, in his life see. But we can hope and believe. And as in nature there is not death, as Faith tells us, our brother is not dead but in Heaven. His body is dead but his soul lives. We gather today to mourn for the departure of a friend whom we shall never see again in this life, but we have faith that we shall meet him in Heaven, and the eye that shone so brilliantly and the voice that addressed us so kindly and the hand that grasped our own so cordially, will again welcome us to the other shore.

In heartfelt sympathy for you in your great loss, I am, James A. Gallant.

Lowering The High Cost of Living

The women do most of the buying for the home; so we address this ad. to them. The housewife can perform her "duty" in lowering the high cost of living by buying wisely. When it comes to drugs you must understand that quality is the true test of cheapness. Cheap drugs are worse than worthless, they are often harmful.

Of course it costs us something extra to buy the highest grade drugs, but the increased business which comes to us because of our reputation makes it possible for us to give you extra quality, and extra service without charging you any more than you would often be required to pay for inferior goods elsewhere.

APPEAL

It is now very generally appreciated that many lives are saved through the instrumentality of well equipped hospitals, with efficient Medical Staffs and trained nurses and no person can tell when his life may not depend upon having such an institution available.

Of late years the P. E. Island Hospital has been adding to its equipment until today it will invite comparison with any institution of its size in Canada.

Previous to the war, it was enabled to pay its way as far as current expenses were concerned, with a slight measure of assistance obtained from its friends in Town and Country—the total donations received not being in excess of $1400. Besides ministering to the needs of paying patients, it has treated free of charge from forty to fifty persons each year, who were unable to pay anything.

Now, owing to the abnormal prices of food, fuel and medicines, it has incurred a deficit for the year ended May 31st, of $3,900, and the prospects for the current year are not any more promising. It is impossible to reduce expenses and maintain the efficiency of the institution, so no other course is open to the Trustees, than to appeal to the public for assistance. P. R. Heartz, Esq., has promised to donate $500 if the amount required ($3,900) is collected before July 15th, and a few other individuals have raised this amount to $1,100. Steps are being taken to undertake a systematic collection both in Charlottetown and in the rural districts of Queen's and King's Counties, which last supply more than half our patients.

It is, however, urgently requested that any and every person in Town or Country who is able and willing to assist this worthy object, should not wait to be called upon, but send in their subscriptions to the Treasurer, Mr. B. Balderston, at the office of the City School Board, Queen Square School.

We would especially call the attention of our country friends to the fact that the individuals in Charlottetown who have contributed most generously to our assistance in the past are those who have given most freely to all the war appeals, that in most instances their incomes have been reduced by the war and that the high food prices which help the farmer, have nearly doubled the cost of living to them. Under these conditions it is but fair that the country that has in the past left almost the whole of the burden of founding and maintaining this institution upon the Town's people should now come to their relief.

Commending these facts to your sympathetic consideration. BOARD OF TRUSTEES. Percy Pope, Chairman. F. R. Heartz, James Warburton, M. D. W. K. Rogers, A. W. Sterns, G. D. Wright, W. F. Tidmarsh, Murdoch McLeod, B. BALDERSTON, Sec'y Treas.

The special collection, decided upon at the annual meeting of the P. E. Island Hospital, to obtain funds to meet the additional cost, of maintaining it, caused by the war prices, is now being taken up. We bespeak a most sympathetic response to this appeal. The institution must be supported and the additional burden accepted as part of the sacrifices which this year is laying upon us. 1055
