Crown and Anchor Ready Mixed Paint, Will Protect and Beautify Your Home

During the next few weeks, there will be an active campaign for home improvement. Your neighbor's house looks beautiful and has been admired by everyone. Now is the time to touch up your own dwelling, and have them talking about you too. In the home and neighborhood, flowers, trees, etc, have their own important uses, but the wise selection and use of good paint is the most important of all. A liberal use of Crown & Anchor Paint will go furthest towards beautifying, improving, and raising the value of your home. These paints are the outcome of more than a quarter of a century of study and close observation. They are made of natural pigments, which in no way oxidize or destroy the oil. There is no gritty matter, no heavy settings at the bottom of the can. There is nothing enters into the manufacture of this well known paint but PURE Linseed-Oil; Pure White Lead and Pure Colors.

No hand made paint can approach the high quality of Crown & Anchor Paint—it will render years of service to your buildings. One gallon of this paint will cover 300 square feet, with two brush coats, and no paint will do more. Price per gallon $2.20.

Crown & Anchor Ready Mixed Floor Paint 55c per qt. all colors. Crown & Anchor Ready Mixed Floor Enamel 65c per qt. all colors. Paint Cards given away for the asking.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

MEETING.—A meeting of the shareholders of New Haven Hall will be held at New Haven Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. All are requested to attend if possible. By order of trustees.

THE MARKETS.—The markets were very poorly attended yesterday although it was such a beautiful day and so many people were in Charlottetown. Prices remained unchanged. Corned codfish was selling for the first time this season at 6c. per lb., and spring lamb sold at $1.25 to $1.50 per quarter.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE.—The People's Theatre was the centre of attraction last evening and a large audience enjoyed the playlet put on by the New York Musical Comedy Company. The music was bright and catchy, the costumes pretty and plot a funny mix up that made everyone laugh.

SCHOONER DAMAGED.—The schooner Eva, of Charlottetown, from Sydney with a cargo of coal, struck the draw of Grand Narrows bridge on Friday last, carrying away her bowsprit, but otherwise doing little damage. She was towed to Baddeck that evening by S. S. Blue Hill, where she will be repaired.—Victoria News.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENT.—In the list of successful students at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., in the largest faculty of the University, the name of Mr. A. A. Paoli, son of Mr. Simon Paoli, Charlottetown, appears. Mr. Paoli is taking the arts course, and will graduate in 1917. He passed in senior French, in senior English, economics and politics, and is high in the list. The Guardian extends hearty congratulations to Mr. Paoli and best wishes for future success in his course.

IMPROVEMENTS.—On Saturday next in the afternoon, the former students of the MacDonald Consolidated School will gather at the school grounds and assist in cleaning up the grounds. There will be a considerable quantity of splendid herbaceous perennial flowers to distribute. The former principals, Messrs Vernon Crockett and Walter Jones will be in charge of the work. The girls are requested to bring baskets and supper will be served in the domestic science room. Football and basketball will be indulged in after the work is done.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held Monday evening. In the unavoidable absence of Judge Blanchard, Mr. T. C. James presided. Those present were trustees Smith, Johnson and Nash. The three principals of the city schools, Messrs Stannan, Landrigan and Johnson were also present. The business consisted mainly of the usual routine in connection with the attendance, the percentage, and the general conduct and condition of the schools. It was decided to celebrate Arbor and Empire Day together on Friday the 23rd inst. Appropriate programs will be carried out in each of the city schools. The meeting then adjourned.

ON WRECKED TRAIN.—Mrs. Nathaniel Westaway, Albion, is visiting in Charlottetown. Mrs. Westaway accompanied her son Richard to Charlottetown on Tuesday afternoon to resume his commercial studies and was on the wrecked eastern train. The passengers after the first shock of the train stopping received no injuries and were brought to Mt. Stewart on the engine which did not leave the track, and came to Charlottetown on the Souris train. Among those who came with Mrs. Westaway were Mrs. McInnis of East Boston who was on her way home having accompanied the remains of her daughter to Cardigan for burial; Mrs. Carrier, of Revere, Mass.; and Mr. Fitzpatrick who was spending the week end in Montague. The ladies speak very highly of the kindness they received at the hands of the men and although they were in such crowded quarters enjoyed their novel engine drive to Mount Stewart.
