

My Digestion Is Now Good

And I feel like a Young Man Since Being Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Prof. A. T. Smith.

What a horrible condition the digestive system gets into when the liver becomes sluggish and the bowels constipated.

It is wonderful how quickly Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills sweep the poisons from the digestive system and enable the organs of digestion to resume their natural functions.

Prof. A. T. Smith, 1 Mt. Charles street, Montreal, and formerly of Boston, Mass., writes: "I suffered for many years from bad digestion, constipation and horrible backaches."

ALASKA'S BIG BEARS.

Very few people really know that largest flesh-eating animals in the world are found in North America. People generally believe that the African lion is the king of beasts, but he is not nearly as large or as powerful an animal as the large brown bear of sub-arctic America.

ONE ON HIM.

Planes on the installment principle was his line. You pay one and six a week and torture the neighbors.

As he knoed gently at one door he suddenly remembered he had been here before and received a curt refusal. This time it was different.

"Oh, it's you again, is it?" asked the housewife, cordially. "Come in, won't you?"

Full of hope, he entered, and followed her down a dimly-lighted hall. She threw open a door and he walked in, to hear the clock sharply in a lock behind him.

He was locked in a room with five children all howling, who beat even their own records at the sight of a stranger.

And the woman resumed her washing. An hour later she came to his rescue.

"Now," she said sweetly, "if you still think I need more music in this house I am ready to listen to you."

But he had gone before she had finished.—New York Mail.

H. and Mrs. Morris, 34 1/2th Avenue East, Vancouver, when their daughter Lilla Alberta was united in marriage to John Irving Taylor of that place. The bride was gowned in cream satin with pearl and lace trimmings and wore a veil caught with roses. She carried a beautiful bouquet of cream roses and anilines of the valley. Mrs. Verna Morris of Steveston, cousin of the bride made a very pretty bridesmaid in her dainty frock of cream silk velvet with marquisette and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Walter A. Ickering attended the groom. The ride entered the drawing room leaning on her father's arm while Miss Vera Tanton played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Miller of Grace Methodist Church. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served, the tables being prettily decorated with chrysanthemums. The many beautiful gifts testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl crescent and to the groomsmen an amethyst stick pin. Among the guests present were H. and Mrs. Cassidy of Langley, B.C.; J. M. and Mrs. Morris of Steveston, R. F. and Mrs. Simpson, Percy and Mrs. Tanton Mrs. Richard Found, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, J. S. and Mrs. Ross, G. Mrs. Taylor resided in Summerside previous to coming to Vancouver and on their return will reside in Cecilio Court, Vancouver.

REBUILT CHILD NOW WALKS.

Dr. J. D. Singley, Pittsburg, surgeon at the Children's Hospital, is receiving congratulations of the medical profession here on a series of remarkable operations that practically rebuilt Agnes Ober, five years old. The child left the hospital the other day walking for the first time in her life, except for the practising she had done in the ward where she has been for six months.

The girl was born a cripple. Her spine was crooked and her limbs were powerless. The spine curvature was remedied and then the hips and knees were dislocated and reset. Agnes's body was put in a plaster cast and her legs in steel braces. These have been removed and surgeons who have examined her say that after she recovers her strength she will be a normal healthy child.

HOW TO MAKE SUNSHINE.

I will not permit myself to speak while angry. And I will not make a bitter retort to another person who speaks to me in anger.

I will neither gossip about the failings of another, nor will I permit any other persons to speak such gossip to me. Gossip will die when it cannot find a listener.

I will respect weakness and defer to it on the street car, in the store, and in the home, whether it will be displayed by man or woman.

I will always express gratitude for any favor or service rendered to me. If prevented from doing it on the spot, then I will seek an early opportunity to give utterance to it in the most gracious way within my power.

I will not fail to express sympathy with another's sorrow, or to give hearty utterance to my appreciation of good works by another, whether the party be friendly to me or not.

I will look on the bright side of the circumstances of my daily life, and I will seek to carry a cheerful face and speak hopefully to all whom I meet.

I will neither eat nor drink what I know will detract from my ability to do my best work.

I will speak and act truthfully, living with sincerity toward God and man.

I will strive to be always prepared for the very best that can happen to me. I will seek to be ready to seize the highest opportunity to do the noblest work, to rise to the loftiest place which God and my abilities permit.
