Bickford Plays Dual Role In New Gang Film At Capitol Summerside

If you want excitement, drama and comedy—all rolled into one picture—don't miss "Gangs of New York," current Republic Picture showing at the Capitol Theatre, Summerside.

This highly entertaining film heralds the return of Charles Bickford to the screen, following his successful Broadway appearance in the play "Casey Jones."

Bickford plays a dual role, that of an officer and a gangster, and does it to perfection. His amazing changes from one character to the other are logical and believable, and he carries the picture from beginning to end.

A supporting cast of "Ann Dvorak, Alan Baxter, Wynne Gibson, Harold Huber, Charles Trowbridge, Maxie Rosenblum, Fred Kohler, Sr., and many other excellent players, does much to aid Bickford in his portrayals.

The picture opens with Rocky Thorpe, notorious gangster, directing the activities of his gang, even though he is in prison. He uses a short wave radio set, and a bribed guard to get messages through to his henchmen. Franklin, a New York officer with an

Monthly Meeting Of Summerside Town Council

The regular monthly meeting of the Summerside Town Council was held last night, Mayor Campbell presiding, all councillors present.

The minutes of the town council meeting for the month of June were read and approved. Mayor Campbell then reported on the financial condition of the town, stating that the budget for 1940 was being met, and that the town was in a sound financial position.

The council then considered a report from the committee on the proposed new water works, and a report from the committee on the proposed new sewerage system.

Kensington and Vicinity

Mr. Peter McMahon, Miss Lorraine McMahon and Mr. Tyrone McMahon were visitors to Charlottetown on Friday.

Mr. John Burns arrived home on Saturday from an enjoyable holiday in Moncton, N. B.

Mr. Max Kashtetsky and Mr. William Hughes who have been working in the eastern part of the province arrived home on Saturday evening.

Mr. Howard Boyle was a business visitor to Summerside on Saturday.

CIVIC AIRPORT

Explained by the heavier pavement in the Charlottetown contract, it was explained by several councillors.

A four inch base with a half inch top coat cost $1.96 in Victoria Park, Coun. Dougan reminded the meeting.

Reference was made to the provision made in the emergency meeting for the City to lease the Port Edward site at Victoria Park for a nominal sum for a period of six months, and would be provided by the Federal Government to be spent in restoration work, it was said. Probably $10,000 of that amount would go to the City.
