In Memoriam

MRS. MARY E. MINARD

Deep regret is occasioned over the passing of Mrs. Mary E. Minard of Salisbury, N. H., U. S. A., at the age of 64, on September 22, 1942. She passed away in the Franklin Hospital, after a month of suffering. She bore great pain with courage, and a very cheerful spirit. She leaves to mourn her husband U. S. A. Minard of London, N. H., four sons, Ralph who is stationed in Honolulu, Hawaii; Walter D. in the 197th Art. serving in Australia; James, Salisbury, N. H.; Archie in Canterbury, N. H. Five daughters, Flora, Shirley, North Newport, N. H.; Cora, Daves, London, N. H.; Olive Barton, London, N. H.; Ruth Whitlock, Hunter River, P. E. I.; Victory Greenwood of London, N. H. She was the mother of 18 children, 13 grandchildren.

Funeral was held in the South Road Congregational Church, Salisbury, N. H. Rev. Baily assisted by organist Mrs. Gettell and son Paul who sang very fittingly, hymns Unto the Hills, Sometime We Will Understand, Safe in the Arms of Jesus. Pallbearers were: Harry Bradley, Arthur Daves, Steven Greenwood, Wood Campbell.

By Gladwin Hill Associated Press Staff Writer LONDON, Oct. 26 (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who has become "Eleanor" to American soldiers here, said today that these troops have confided to her the thickest socks and more letters from home.

American soldiers were on hand early to give her a cheery greeting at the gate of Buckingham Palace where Mrs. Roosevelt is a guest of the Royal Family. When she drove out this morning they yelled: "Hello, Eleanor."

Mrs. Roosevelt and her secretary, Mrs. Malvina Thompson, visited the Washington Club, the American Red Cross' biggest service men's centre here, in the cafeteria Mrs. Roosevelt addressed the crowd.

"I am anxious to see men in every phase of the service, so I can tell the people at home just as she does of the details of your life with your letters," she said.

"One thing I've learned already — you would like thicker socks." She said that her son, Lt. Col. Elliot Roosevelt, told her there are many southern, large, long-haired English weavers is a lot to them. Many had colds, and their thoughts have turned to warmer socks.

"I learned also that you would like more letters. One of you told me he hasn't had any mail for two months. My boy in the Solomons (Maj. James Roosevelt) said with me. It's almost impossible to get letters to them out there, but there's reason you shouldn't have more mail here.

Bristol and Vicinity

Her friends regret the passing of the late Mrs. John Tobin, in the Boston City Hospital, Boston recently. Mrs. Tobin was born in Bristol, eighty years ago, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. A few old school mates will still remember her as Margaret O'Brien, as she played around her father's blacksmith shop in the long ago. Leaving here for Boston, as a girl of sixteen she made her home there ever since. Her last visit to her old home was only four years ago. She recalled then that there was no railway or cars in those times and she walked to Boston, where only muddy roads sixty-five years ago in her passing another link has been broken in a family chain of yesterday. Besides one daughter and several sons all in Boston, she leaves several sisters and one brother in Boston, also one sister, Mrs. James A. O'Brien here, and one brother John T. O'Brien, to whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Mr. John Lapierre, arrived home last week after a two year stay in Clark City. Mr. Lapierre, had lived in Quebec for many years before moving to Bristol. On his way home he called at Bale Comeau, to visit his daughter and also met his brother Stanis who was visiting there. The two came home together.

Pte. Alex Kelly arrived home Saturday evening to spend his first leave with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelly. Before entering the Air Force Mr. Kelly was a student at S. D. U. for two years.

Friends of Mr. Cephus, retired caretaker and a veteran of the last war will regret to learn he suffered a stroke last week but at time of writing is able to be around again.

This vicinity is well represented at S. D. U. this season with seven young men attending. Lenius and Leo Rossiter, Frank Alyward, A. McAdam, Jim Kane, John McInnis and Reggie Phalen. Outstanding among this group in sports is J. J. McAdam, a first class hockey player. Many followers of hockey saw McAdam in action in the college team last season and as the season comes again it will be no surprise to the scribe if A. J. is called to the big game. He is a nice fast clean player and the game seems to come to him so easy.

Mrs. James Blackland has sold her property at St. Peter's Harbor to Mrs. Ted Anderson, and moved to Morell to reside. Mrs. Anderson, has moved into her new home which is much nearer the main highway especially in the winter months. She will sell her farm property that is vacant at present.

Mr. Lester McVarish left on Monday for Halifax where he will be employed for the winter months.

Another teacher of yesterday has returned to the teaching duties to help in the scarcity of teachers is Mrs. Mary Malone, who has accepted a teaching position at Byrne's Road and entered on her new duties last week.

Most of the fishermen have moved home from the shores where they spent the months from early spring. Some will now enter the snail fishing while others will begin the task of building traps for next season.

The Misses Eunice and Mary MacDonald were in the City Saturday on business. Eunice will return to the city shortly where she has accepted a position.

Miss Marion Coffin left last week for Toronto where she expects to be employed Miss Coffin, spent quite some time home since returning from Boston several months ago.

Miss Jean McKenzie will leave this week for Boston to spend the winter months.

The school at St. Andrews was closed last week owing to the illness of the teacher.

This week will end the partridge season but we are reminded the battle on enemy no. 2 the skunk will go right on and being by the amount of pests along the highway there should be good money in gathering their snouts at one buck each.

Mr. Peter McAdam arrived from Halifax last week to visit his family here for a few days.

Frank French, R. C. N., returned to the mainland last week after visiting his wife here for a few days.

Troops Want Thicker Socks, More Letters

On Saturday Mrs. Roosevelt did a tour's turn of London and held a press conference just as she does of the details of your life with your letters," she said.

With the King and Queen she held precautions control centre, a deep air raid shelter, drove for miles through the mid-town bomb-leveled areas and made a tour of London's east end where a solid line of spectators cheered and waved British and American flags.

The King joked with a she her warden, telling the story about how an expert had advised, "always keep a wall between you and the police," but said His Majesty: "I don't go carrying a wall around with me."

HATS OFF TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF CANADA!
Not old enough to serve in fighting units or in munition factories like their big brothers and sisters, they have their own special tasks and perform them nobly!

They run errands—do odd jobs—deny themselves little pleasures—so that they may buy War Savings Stamps and Certificates. And they have bought more than three million dollars of these Certificates during the past year—yes, more than three million dollars!

And how busy these youngsters have been collecting scrap—to help defeat Hitler!

Yes, they've done wonders and everyone is proud of them, Parents, friends, teachers and officials will have an opportunity to pay tribute to them on October 27th. That is the date of the "Young Canada Rally" to be held in schools from coast to coast. Battle Heard In Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 24 (Delayed) — (AP) — The thunder of a United Nations artillery barrage and the crash of exploding bombs which heard in Alexandria tonight as Allied forces started their big assault at Axis positions 80 miles to the west.

The big guns produced a steady rumble, punctuated often by the "whumph" of heavy bombs which flared west depositing all along the front from El Alamein to the Qattara Depression.

The sounds of the furious battle could be heard clearly above the noises of the blacked-out but gay city. From a hotel balcony the dim figures of pedestrians could be distinguished in the streets and the night clubs the merriment was unabated.
