Persian Balm—the perfect aid to beauty. Essential to real feminine distinction. Results always in the highest expression of beauty. Its use keeps the hands always soft and flawlessly white. Indispensable to the whole family. Imparts added charm to the mother. Serves the father as a hair fixture and cooling shaving lotion, and protects the tender skin of the child. Persian Balm is the true toilet requisite.

PETERS ROAD AND VICINITY

Potato digging operations are more or less in general progress in this vicinity. The acreage is large, and we believe the yield may be reported as fair. The potato hack like the "fiddle and the bow" may be hung up, as the potato is too aristocratic to be marked or bruised by this primitive weapon. Diggers of various kinds with gentle and artistic touch extricate the tubers without violence from their hidden retreats.

On the occasion of the death of Mr. John A. Stewart late of Millinocket, Me., and formerly of Peters Road, his wife, Mrs. Minnie Stewart and her three sons William, David and Charles accompanied the remains from Millinocket to Prince Edward Island, where interment took place from the Presbyterian Church to the new cemetery at Peters Road on the 26th inst.

We are pleased to note the arrival to Peters Road and vicinity of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillie. (nee Hannah McKenzie) and Mrs. Lester Smith. (Mary McKenzie) both formerly of Alliston, P. E. I. and now of Everett, Mass. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Leeco and family and Mr. Malcolm McKenzie, Greek River.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McLeod, Alliston, had the pleasure of a visit from their son, Mr. Alex. J. McLeod and his wife of Canon, Mass. Mr. McLeod is a prominent contractor of the U. S. and has already returned owing to business activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Westaway Chandler, Mt. Albion, attended the funeral of Mrs. Chandler's cousin, the late John A. Stewart at Peters Road.

The induction of Rev. P. Watson Currie into the pastoral charge of the Murray Harbor North and Peters Road Presbyterian Congregation was held on 23rd of Sept. in the church at Murray Harbor North. Rev. Mr. Rodger of Belfast and Rev. Allister Murray of Caledonia preached. The ceremony was largely attended.

The schools now closed for vacation were interrupted in their work, and the attendance may not be so good on re-opening should the children be kept home owing to delay in the big work of potato digging.

We are pleased to note the many prizes awarded to Stewart Bros. Greek River and Mr. Otis Jackson, Peters Road, for their varied exhibits at the Georetown Exhibition.

In connection with the recent Yacht racing in American waters, one is reminded of the following episode which occurred when Dunraven raced the "Valkyrie." A colored washerwoman owing to the slowness of her husband in booking "washing orders" said "I see by the papers that Lord Dunraven has the wash of thirty steamships—that's business for ye."

Mrs. Robert Adams of Worcester, Mass., who has been spending a short vacation at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Jenkins, Greek River, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Buxton, of Worcester, Mass., having motored from their home to P. E. I. are now spending a short holiday season at Peters Road and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. MacDonald and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Johnston, Peters Road.

Mr. Otis Acorn of Peters Road is having a commodious new barn erected on his newly purchased farm. This filling up of vacant farms speaks for better times in this era of greater production in the Maritimes and particularly in Prince Edward Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Johnston of Hamilton, Ont., are visiting at the home of Mr. Johnston's mother, Mrs. Alma P. Johnston, Peters Road.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On the evening of Friday, Sept. 19th, quite a number of the people of Glen Valley and surrounding places assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nicholson, Glen Valley, for the purpose of giving a farewell reception to their son Wilfred, who was soon leaving to take up his studies at Sackville University.

During the course of the evening, the gathering was called to order by Mr. Ewen Lamont and an address was read by Mrs. Roy Carter, while Miss Hilda Cutcliffe presented him with a purse. The remaining hours were pleasantly spent in games and other amusements. Lunch was served by the ladies present and the guests departed in the wee small hours feeling that all had a jolly good time.

Following is the address:

Dear Wilfred:—
On the occasion of your leaving us to take up a future profession, we your friends assembled tonight, wish to express our deep feeling of regret in parting with you, and also our heartfelt wishes for your success in your new undertaking. When this became known to us we felt we could not allow you to go away without, in some way trying to tell you how much we shall miss you when you have gone and also to wish you God speed whatever your lot shall be cast in the days which are to come. We are glad to know of the continued success which has followed you through these several years and judging from your work in the past, we believe that the future has in store for you days that will be filled with an even greater degree of success and now before saying good-bye to you for the present, we would ask you to accept this small purse as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by us. We would ask you to value it not so much for its intrinsic worth, but rather because of the expression of admiration and of good will conveyed by the giving of it from us to you.

And now, for the time being, farewell. May happiness and good fortune be your consistent companions upon life's way.

Signed on behalf of your many friends, Hilda Cutcliffe and Mrs. Roy Carter.

Although taken quite by surprise, Mr. Nicholson thanked his many friends for so kindly remembering him.

All then joined in singing, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Brothers Walter and Charles Weeks, Fredericton, P.E.I. Dear Brothers:—

We the members of Refuge Division S.O.T., No. 201, wish to convey to you our sincere sympathy in the death of your dear father. We know how deeply you mourn your loss and that words of ours are entirely inadequate to assure you of our love and deepest sympathy. The burden is yours,—his is the victory. We would commend you to the loving Saviour, who binds the broken hearts and sustains us in the darkest hour. Although you will miss him here on earth, you have the blessed assurance that we will all meet again in that Heavenly home, where there are no more partings, and no more pain. God knows best, He holds the key. He guides us with unerring hand. Sometime we'll see and understand. Signed in sympathy, Mrs. Howard Weeks, Mrs. Frank Cutcliffe, John McLennan.
