—CONGRATULATIONS— Mr. and Mrs. Crilly Lea, of Summerside are being congratulated on the birth of a little son in the Prince County Hospital on Thursday, Dec. 15th. Mother and son doing well.—S.

—DEATH OF RUFUS HECKBERT, OF SUMMERSIDE— There passed away in the Prince County Hospital, on Thursday morning, Mr. Rufus Heckbert, of Summerside. The deceased had been in failing health for some time and died following an operation. Mr. Heckbert was well known in Summerside, where he had resided all his life. For many years he was section foreman on the Prince Edward Island railway and was held in the highest esteem by the officials and his associates. He had retired some few years ago and lived on a nice farm property at the east end of Summerside. About four years ago he lost his residence by fire. There are left to mourn, five sons and three daughters, namely, Fred and William on the old homestead; Harry and Bruce at Summerside east and Earle on Harvard Street; Mrs. Fred Muttart, Summerside east; Mrs. Henry Dahnkey, Winthrop, Mass., and Mrs. Leonard Cameron, Somerville, Mass.; also two brothers, Charles, at Mount Pleasant and Martin in Summerside, to all of whom much sympathy is extended. Mrs. Heckbert predeceased her husband some years ago.—S.

—BRIDE-TO-BE HONOURED—

The people of North Bedeque gathered at the home of Mrs. James Stavert on Wednesday evening to tender a shower to her niece, Miss Jennie Muttart of Carleton, who is the popular school teacher of the district. Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson was the chairman. As the bride-to-be came into the living room led by Mrs. Wyman Clark, the wedding march was played by Mrs. Clark MacQuarrie. After she was seated in the place of honour, Miss Eulie Jardine and Miss Mary Marchbank brought in a daintily trimmed basket laden with lovely gifts. Miss Jean McCaul and Miss Olive Jardine opened the packages and the many witty verses attached were read by Miss Ernestine Machbank. Miss Lois Cairns assisted the bride in receiving the gifts. A very happy speech of congratulation was made by Rev. Mr. Nicholson to which Miss Muttart responded in a few gracious words. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and games. A charming duet was sung by Rev. Hensley Stavert and Mrs. Brewer Waugh. Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies. The singing of "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow" brought the evening to a close.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—

On the morning of November the nineteenth wedding bells once more "chimed" in Borden Catholic Church when Rev. William Monaghan united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Marguerite Currie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Currie, Rice Point and Lorne MacAleer son of Mr. and Mrs. James MacAleer, Borden. The altar which was tastily decorated for the occasion presented a very pleasing appearance. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march beautifully played by Mrs. MacAleer, mother of the groom. The charming young bride looked very winsome in a floor-length gown of beige lace with trimming of brown velvet and brown velvet jacket, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. Her matching toque was of velvet and her shoes were brocade bridled. She was attended by her sister Miss Selina who was gowned in wine chiffon velvet with contrasting toque of grey velvet. Mr. Reginald MacAleer brother of the bride ably performed the duties of groomsmen. During the nuptial mass Mrs. Reginald MacAleer very beautifully rendered a vocal solo, "Sweet Lady of the Sacred Heart." Hymns were also sweetly sung by the ladies' choir of Borden, Mrs. MacAleer being the accompanist. After the wedding ceremony the bridal party motored from the church at the door of which they were showered with confetti and good wishes, to the home of the groom where, with a number of friends of the contracting parties they partook of a bountiful wedding breakfast, served in Mrs. MacAleer's usual charming style. The dining room was artistically trimmed, and the two lovely wedding cakes decorated either end of the table. Among the guests was Rev. Fr. Monaghan. After all had satisfied the wants of the inner man the wedding party together with a number of friends motored to the pier where the happy young couple embarked on board the "Charlottetown" leaving on a short honeymoon trip to the Maritime Provinces.

—ANNUAL MEETING— The annual meeting of the W. M. S. of the United Church at North Bedeque was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Clark MacQuarrie, the president Mrs. A. S. MacCaul presiding. The reports of the different committees were brought in and were very encouraging. The election of officers took place and was as follows: President, Mrs. A. S. McCaul; Treasurer, Mrs. Archie Stavert; Secretary, Mrs. Clark MacQuarrie. Two new members were received. Discussions took place on the winter's program and some good ideas were received for making the necessary funds for the year. The gentlemen joined the ladies in a social hour which was brought to a conclusion with refreshments.—S.

..*HUNT REWARDED—On Friday evening last, while in the act of paying for a purchase he made at the store of McLeod & McGregor, Montague, Mr. Cassius Clay discovered to his utter amazement and surprise that his money was missing, it having in some way or other slipped out of his pocket. A search was immediately begun, but as the shades of night had already fallen the task was a difficult one, the search being fruitless. Not satisfied however, Mr. John M. Kearney of Sturgeon, who happened to be in Montague at the time, continued the hunt, being rewarded by finding the money in the bedding under the horse. Needless to say the money was immediately restored to the rightful owner. The amount was sixty-one dollars. H.
