

If I were a mother I would insist on having Shorey's Clothing for my boy's. Their Clothing is all sewn with linen thread, the material is all thoroughly sponged and shrunk, and the workmanship is guaranteed not to rip.

Might just as well have it, when it doesn't cost any more than inferior makes.

You can always be sure of getting it by buying your Boys' Suits from

On Sunday July 12th, the members of Calvin Loyal Orange Lodge, Bradalbane and of Bunyan L. O. L. Ecce Valley, met in the Orange Hall and merohed in procession about 60 strong, to the Rose Valley church where the Rev. J. L. McLean, pastor of the congregation preached an able and appropriate sermon from text: Psalm 20th and 5th. He dwelt on the historical foundation of Orangeism also on the religious and fraternal principles of the Order. The sermon was highly appreciated by all present. After the service the members reformed and marched back to their hall, when it was unanimously resolved by Resolution, to tender to the pastor a hearty vote of thanks for his able and appropriate discourse.

Con.

A large number of friends and relatives of James and Mrs Marchbank gathered at their beautiful home, "Kirkdale", New Annan on Wednesday evening last to witness the marriage of their daughter Grace Ella to John J. Hall, Sherbrooke. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. St. Whidden, North Bedouin. The wedding march was played by Mrs. David Marchbank, Montrose, while the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father. The bride who was prettily attired in white organdie with veil and rosebuds and carried a bouquet of white roses, was attended by her sister Miss Mary and her cousin Miss Ada Webster, while the groom was supported by his cousin, John W. Hall, Summerside. The marriage took place under a floral bell of pink roses, and the house was decorated with ferns and flowers. After the ceremony a solo was nicely rendered by Mrs. McLean of Amherst after which the guests sat down to a table bountifully laden with all the delicacies of the season. The evening hours were pleasantly whiled away with vocal and instrumental music. In the wee sma hours the guests dispersed and Mr. and Mrs. Hall drove to their future home at Sherbrooke. The presents which were numerous were both valuable and serviceable. The Guardian joins in good wishes.

SHREANAN—Trainer. St. Malachi's Church Kinkora was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, the 7th ult., when Miss Minnie Shreanan, daughter of Thomas Shreanan, of Kinkora was united in the bonds of matrimony to James F. Trainer, teacher Kelly's Cross. The wedding ceremony was performed about eight o'clock the pastor Rev. J. J. McDonald officiating. The bride was attired in white cashmere trimmed with white chiffon and tassels and wore hat to match. The maid of honor was Miss Katie Shreanan sister of the bride, who was dressed in white organdie and wore a picture hat of black chiffon trimmed with black plumes. Francis E. Trainer brother of the groom was best man. After the ceremony at which there were assembled a large number of friends to extend their congratulations, the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where justice was done to the fine delicacies that adorned the breakfast table, the happy couple accompanied by many friends then indulged in a pleasant drive returning about noon when a sumptuous dinner and a large number of friends and relatives from Charlottetown, Summerside and other places awaited their arrival. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold bracelet and the best man a charming gold chain and locket. The evening and night were spent in music and dancing which whiled away the happy hours till dawn when all departed after a thoroughly enjoyable time. The presents were very numerous and costly showing the esteem in which the bride and groom are held among their many friends and acquaintances.

TOO MUCH JOHNSON

The Piece to be Given by May Nannary and Her Company To-Night in the Opera House.

In speaking of Too Much Johnson the comedy which Miss Nannary presents on this evening in Opera the St. John Telegraph says—

St. John theatre-goers dearly love a sparkling comedy, and those who were able to get into the Opera House last evening were kept in continuous laughter by the action and dialogue of Too Much Johnson, as presented by May Nannary and company. As Augustus Billings of New York, the greater part of the work fell to W. E. Dalley and his interpretation and presentation of the character was simply delightful. The whole company appeared to good advantage and the frequent applause and the curtain calls, proved that the audience enjoyed every minute of the performance. Miss Nannary as Mrs. Billings, and Miss Lorraine, Mr. Jamieson and Mr. Andrews had important parts in the play, and did their work admirably while the minor characters were all in good hands. It is one of the merits of this company that there are no weak spots. Seats are selling rapidly for tonight's performance, and those who intend going would do well to purchase tickets at once.

LONDON ASTONISHED.

MONTREAL, July 14.—The Star's London correspondent cables: "Today's mail brings the first newspaper details of the government's Grand Trunk Pacific scheme. The first impression among Canada's friends here is one of blank astonishment. One unprejudiced high authority said this morning that such a move was incredible. He never would believe such a proposal could be seriously submitted to parliament."

PIMPLES AND BLOTCHES.

how unsightly, sometimes disgusting, mortifying to the sufferer and unpleasant to all. An evidence of poor blood and lowered vitality of the eliminating organs. They need to be removed by a whole system dose. You can quickly bring about the improved condition by using Ferrerozine. Poisons are driven out of the blood, organs grow stronger, the blood richer, the nerves stronger. Pimples and blotches disappear, color becomes good, Graft just as dry and see how much joy can be gotten out of a box of Ferrerozine.
