Canon Powell Gets Important Office

LONDON, Ont. Sept. 7.—At the General Synod of the Church of England, now in progress here Rev. Canon Powell, Principal of Kings College, Windsor, N. S., was elected prolocutor of the Lower House in succession to Bishop Farthing.

The primates address was a lengthy one covering a variety of subjects. With preference to Church Union. His Lordship advocated the calling of a Conference such as has been already recommended and he leaves matter in the hands of Synod.

Acadia College, a department of Acadia University, whose advertisement appears in this issue, has just sent its 73rd annual catalogue, replete with interesting subjects to the young man or grown boy seeking a thorough college education at moderate cost. Acadia College, a time-honored institution, for the education of practical young men, is one whose graduates have achieved real success. Thorough scholarship and high character are co-equally developed among who'some moral influences.

The college is ideally located at Wolfville, Nova Scotia, a town where the very atmosphere is permeated with the educational spirit, and the students breathe in from these environments a culture that is lasting and sublime. The catalogue states that "last year's enrolment was 230, and the graduating class the largest of any college in the Maritime Provinces. A faculty of 25 teachers offers courses in 3 departments, viz.—1, Arts and Sciences; 2, Applied Sciences; 3, Theology—leading to the degrees of B. A., B. Sc., and B. Th. respectively. In applied science there is a full staff of professors and modern laboratories, so that engineering work is thoroughly done. Acadia is the only college in the Maritime Provinces which has a professor of Latin and one of Greek, so that "thoroughness" is a word to conjure with. The appointment of Prof. Spidle completes the theological staff."

Any reader interested in Acadia College should write to Geo. B. Cutten, Ph. D., President, Wolfville, N. S., for a copy of the catalogue.

The cost to students is moderate. There is a fine athletic equipment and the situation is both healthful and beautiful.
