

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

News Sub
The Guar
Sun. F. de
Ben Book
Toronto
The Guar
Curtis boy
die your o.
This coll
I had b
a newsy
to a wo
dance.
-ROBI
sect FI
car den
-BRAC
re conve
-PALV
pessoy,
pome
pur en
mus. CO
By
-YAC
mbers
right CH
seam
car tra
hey had the w assat
virt
for trip
ing any
am.
-DEAL
HILKEI
Punk
parlay
St. St
Friday
as very
-Mr. J
ganor's
duty H
-Mr. a
ockland ay's fo
-Frien
at Mrs.
reside is
County H
-Mrs. ogue is
de guest
anton a
-Miss
derton
the guest
S.
-Mr. R.
ell hav
askatch
named
the Lew
-Mrs.
the E. A.
C. M.
Thomas
the que
and Dona
d. very
de first
way from forty y aying the
Ken
Mr. Jam
and ditors ay.
Mr. Arn
bin, was Sensington
Mr. O.
his mo
rich, muc
Thursday.
Her inar
hear the
is now a Canaly H
improvin
name agair
Mr. and
rators to ay.
Mr. and
he now
new home.
A large
acompan
an team
day even between K
beride R reming be
rent to th
had to be
darkness.
not a bit
mining
be both

Toronto's Mary Pickford is coming home—and for the best of reasons. From Hollywood the famed actress said she will arrive at Toronto on Aug. 16 to appear on a charity broadcast in connection with a summer camp for poor children.

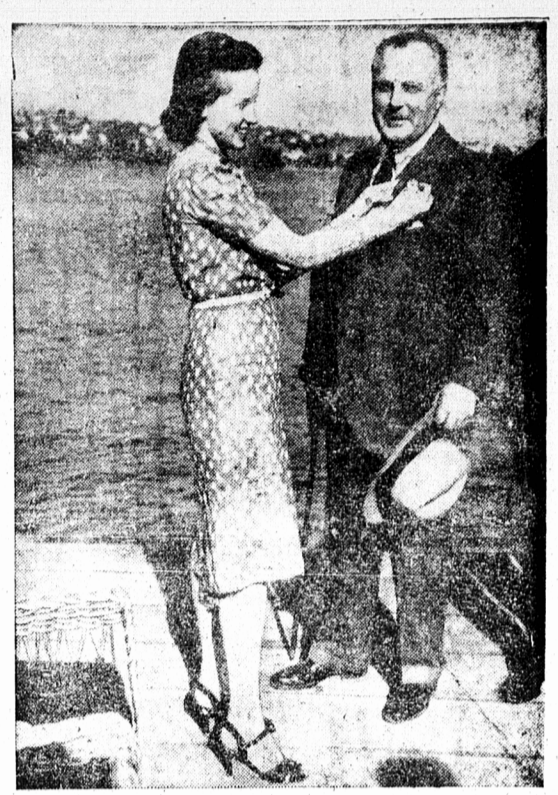

AT OPENING SESSION
Scholars and businessmen from all over Canada were present for the opening session of the seventh annual conference of the Canadian Institute on Economics at Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching, over the week-end. Among them were Rev. Dr. Frank K. Day (left), of Toronto and Prof. J. H. Aitcheson of Brandon, Man.

MADE OPENING ADDRESS
Prof. A. R. M. Lower of Wesley College told the Canadian Institute on Economics and Politics, Saturday, that Canada lacks a real national aim. Canadians do not seem to realize that a country consists of men and women whose common experience makes up its history, he said.

Premier T. D. Pattullo, of British Columbia, receives at the hands of Miss Phyllis Savage, queen of the Potlatch of Progress celebration at Seattle, a "Potlatch Bag." The potlatch is a civic festival attended by thousands of visitors.

Mr. J. Ganor's duty.

Mr. A. Rockland's duty.

M. J. Caldwell, M.P., dominion chairman of the C.C.F., did some quiet thinking over his pipe after hearing Prof. A. R. M. Lower of Winnipeg tell the Canadian Institute on Economics that the country's philosophy is not well developed because it has never had to fight for anything. Mr. Caldwell was one of several representatives of political groups at the conference.

Stewart, daughter of Lord and Lady Londonderry, was appointed to take charge of the women's section. This picture of her (centre), with her parents was made as they left for a recent trip to the continent by airliner. She is only 17 years of age.

In impressive and colorful ceremony last year, Janusz Kwiek, a tinsmith was crowned King of the Gypsies at Warsaw, Poland and our photo above, taken at the recent anniversary, shows the 'King', at the left, robed and gowned listening to an address during the celebration at which a council of gypsy 'senators' attended in full dress.

Visiting Canada for the first time, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Floud, of London, are shown on board the Cunarder, Antonia, on which they reached Montreal. Mr. Floud is a son of Sir Francis Floud, British High Commissioner to Canada. While here he will study the relation between museums and schools in the Dominion.

Through the combined influence of the British Foreign Office and Joseph Kennedy, American Ambassador to Great Britain, 28 nuns who have been evacuated from Barcelona on a British warship and will be given sanctuary in three convents in London. One of the number is shown in the centre, being greeted with a bouquet of flowers as she arrived in London.

Forty-seven schoolgirls from Scotland came to Toronto on the first such tour of Canada ever arranged for girl students from the land of heather. They took time out from an inspection of the Art Gallery of Toronto to say they thought Canadian girls have far more freedom than their Scottish sisters. Christine C. Gordon, Betty Sinclair, Sylvia Rose Scott and Caroline B. Kahn (Left to Right), were properly impressed with what they had seen in eastern Canada. The party is going to Niagara Falls for its next stop and plans to leave for home on Aug. 19. They made Moulton college their headquarters in Toronto.