In Memoriam

AMY SALMOND

A deep sorrow was cast over Bonshaw and vicinity on June 11th, when it became known that the angel of death had visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Salmond, and had claimed for his victim their only and beloved child Amy Elizabeth, at the tender age of nine years.

Death under any circumstances brings its full portion of sorrow but in this case it had seemed to come with a great blow to Amy's parents and friends, owing to the fact that apparently she was making a splendid recovery from a condition which had developed from "Flu" some time ago. She was tenderly cared for by her mother, and death was unexpected until almost an hour before her demise, but in spite of all that loving hands and medical skill could do, God willed it otherwise, and her spirit passed to Him Who said "Suffer little children to come unto me."

Amy was an exceptionally bright child, and was loved by old and young, and although she did not enjoy robust health, she never murmured nor complained, and always took an active interest in her school work, and was greatly loved by her school companions.

The funeral was held from the Baptist church, and was one of the largest seen in that vicinity for many years, which conveyed to the parents the deep sympathy of their friends and neighbors. In their hour of sorrow, Rev. D. M. Lamont conducted the services at the church and the grave, and spoke comforting words to the bereaved. The hymns sung at the funeral were Safe in the Arms of Jesus, When He Cometh, and Saviour like a Shepherd lead us. The Pall Bearers were Seymour MacLean, George Carson, Everett Crosby, Hector MacNeil, James Beaton, and Sterling MacLeod.

MISS GEORGE TROWSDALE

Once more the angel of death has knocked at the inner door of our community and taken the soul of our dear neighbor, Mr. George Trowsdale into the spirit land in the seventieth year of his age. Mr. Trowsdale, who was a strong robust man not knowing what it was to be a day sick in his life, till the early part of the winter he contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia, from which he never recovered although all that kind nursing and medical aid could do, would not stay the roughest of the deceased body, and the earthly temple of the soul faded away to a shadow and on Tuesday, June 21st, 1927 he passed away.

Mr. Trowsdale was a patient sufferer throughout for four months. He never murmured, but bore his sickness in a christian spirit, and a bright hope of a better home on high. His passing away has left a deep gap in the home which never can be filled, being a kind father, good neighbor, honest and upright in all his dealings with his fellowmen. He leaves to mourn besides two brothers, and three sisters, two sons, Bertram on the homestead, and Leonard of Haverhill, Mass. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Bert Trowsdale for this is the third time inside two years that death visited his home. First, his dear wife, then next, his mother, and now his best friend on earth, his father.

Interment was made on Thursday afternoon from his late residence to the beautiful cemetery of Crapaud. Services were conducted at the home and graves by his pastor, Rev. George Somers, where the body was laid to rest beside his dear wife who predeceased him eleven months ago. The pall-bearers were as follows: Mr. Lemuel Molyneux, Mr. John Molyneux, Mr. Patrick Hagan, Mr. Alfred Canfield, Mr. Peter McDonald, and Mr. Chrisp Moore. (Patriot please copy)

MR. A. MORTON LANE

On Saturday, July 2nd, Montague and vicinity were shocked when it was learned that early that morning our respected citizen, A. Morton Lane had suddenly passed away, almost as he slept. It was known that though attending to his regular duties he was not enjoying his usual health but none were prepared for such a sudden passing. Mr. Lane was born in Pownal about 65 years ago. As a young man he purchased a farm near Southport about four miles from his old home and became one of the successful farmers of that prosperous community. About seven years ago he retired from farming and removed to Montague where he engaged in fox ranching.

Mr. Lane was a man who had the respect and esteem of those who knew him. He was always active in the work of the Church, a member of the Quarterly Board of the Methodist Church in Pownal and afterwards in Montague. He was Superintendent of the Sunday School of the Methodist Church, and after the union of the congregations became Superintendent of the Sunday School of the United Church in Montague. He was also elected a member of the Session and represented the United Church at the meetings of Presbytery and Conference. Accompanied by Mrs. Lane he attended the three meetings of Conference held in Sackville since Union. A fine type of a Christian gentleman, a man loyal to his convictions, and thoroughly dependable, he will be greatly missed to go when the call came.

ECZEMA LASTED TEN YEARS On Knees, Would Itch and Burn. Cuticura Heals.

"From the time I was a small child I was troubled with eczema on my knees. It broke out in a rash and would itch and burn so that I would scratch it and cause eruptions. Any scratching aggravated the breaking out, and at last, last night on account of the irritation, I broke out on my arms. The trouble lasted about ten years. A friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some and after using one box of Cuticura Ointment and two boxes of Cuticura Soap I was completely healed." MR. WILLIAM HORRIEL

At the home of Tyndale Semple, Kensington, Monday, July 4th, the spirit of William Horriel took its flight into the Great Beyond. Mr. Horriel had reached the age of 69 years. He was born at Cornwall, P. E. I., in 1858. He was of a quiet retiring disposition, and was beloved by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He had lived with his niece Mrs. Tyndale Semple for the last nineteen years.

In his younger days he was a trader and driver of light harness race horses of no mean ability. He was famous as the trainer and driver of Black Pilot in the historic race with Hermardo on August 30th, 1888. Of Mr. Horriel's family three sisters survive, viz: Mrs. James Essoy, Kensington; Mrs. Jacob Cummings, Charlottetown and Mrs. George Hurry, Nelson, B. C.; all his brothers predeceased him.

CAPT. WILLIAM LEDWELL

Passed away peacefully at the home of his son Thomas A. Ledwell, St. Peter's, on Friday, July 8th, aged 81 years, leaving to mourn his wife (nee Margaret O'Hanley) now in hospital at Charlottetown and two sons and five daughters, viz: Thomas A. St. Peter's Bay, P. E. I.; Percy A. J. Geneva Ave., Boston; Mrs. John Collins, 11st. Main, St. Jamaica Plain, Boston; Mrs. Bert Edwards, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Augustus Aylward, Charlottetown; Mrs. F. J. Gregory, New Bedford, Mass. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Boston. Also his brothers Capt. Patrick A. Ledwell, 1306 Thurlow St. Vancouver and Thomas Ledwell of Lynn, Mass.; also two step sisters Mrs. Augustus Ahearn, Alberton, P. E. I. and Mrs. J. Bruce, Placentia Bay, Nfld.

MR. JOHN LOCKE

While a little late in writing the obituary notice of Mr. John Locke, of O'Leary, it is only fitting that a man endowed with such splendid qualities should fitly be remembered. Born at Northam, Dec. 31st, 1844, where his early education was begun, and while in his teens moved to the road that now bears his name known as the Locke Road, chopping maple for trees in order to burn magnificent lumber for a live income. He was a man of no ordinary ability, and his life was a record of the best farming sections on P. E. Island. He was a real pioneer, and the hardships that were endured by those early settlers were shared by him in a common brotherhood of helping the needy when needed.

The late Mr. Locke was noted for his hospitality and genial disposition. As an after-dinner speaker we do not think there was his equals in the Maritimes, and at all public gatherings his witty speeches coupled with good sound advice was always appreciated. The deplorable accident recorded in your papers which happened on June 4th, and which resulted in the loss of his life, was a great loss to his family and to the community. He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly Martha Costin, of Cape Wolf; George and Clyburn, of Berlin, N.H.; Shelton, of Pittsburg; Mrs. J. H. McLennan, of Boston; Mrs. O. L. Bent, of Calgary, and Raymond on the homestead.

MR. THOMAS McLAUGHLIN

The death of Thomas McLaughlin, which occurred Monday night at his home 7 1/2 Hospital street, Saint John, will be learned of with much regret by his many friends. Mr. McLaughlin was a highly respected citizen and had been in the employ of the C. N. R. for the past 38 years, and for recent years gateman at the Gilbert Lane crossing. He was confined to his home with illness about two months ago. He was a life-long resident of Saint John, and leaves besides his wife, who was formerly Mary E. Higgins, of Prince Edward Island, one daughter, Mrs. G. J. Wallace, of this city, one sister, Mrs. W. Wolf, New York; one brother, William McLaughlin, of this city, and five grand children - Saint John Telegraph.

RONALD PETER MCGOWAN

At the Lane Hospital, San Francisco, there passed away on June 25, 1927, Ronald Peter McGowan, aged 55, a native of Dundas, P.E.I. The deceased came to this city in 1894, and was for a time engaged with his uncle, the late James Campbell, of the firm of Campbell and Pettis, building contractors. In 1900 he came to and later James A. went up to Nova Scotia during the great gold rush, and from there to Council City, and other supposed great gold fields. Then across to and up the Yukon, and Tannana rivers, arriving in Fairbanks about the time ten thousand or more gold seekers suddenly put that mushroom city on the map, a blank and frozen country by day, and by night, and sometimes in the lull of that elusive yellow dust. Although Ronald was a big, strong, husky man, with a determined will to succeed, twenty-three years of hardship and bad foods in the frozen north, proved too much for him, and his health broke down. In 1923 he came back, hoping that the good climate and other comforts of sunny California would restore his health. Although able to do some work most of the time he failed to recover, in spite of all that medical skill could show. He was of a sunny disposition, a general favorite, and made friends 177,500 or 2.7 percent.

THE FUNERAL SERVICE WAS HELD ON THE 26th JUNE, WAS CONDUCTED BY HIS PASTOR, W. M. STIRLING, THE LARGE ATTENDANCE TESTIFYING TO THE RESPECT IN WHICH THE DEPARTED WAS HELD.

There survive four sons, Hayden L. of San Juan, Port Rico; Melbourne B. of Detroit; Sidney W. of Chicago; G. Garnet, Whitby Road; and four daughters, Mrs. George Kirk, Pittsfield, Mass.; Mrs. Ellisworth, Springfield, Mass.; Elsie B. Moore and Ida C. Moore of New York City; one brother, Johna Conrad of Fitchburg, Mass., and one sister, Mrs. Peter MacLeod of Cardigan, P. E. I.

DANIEL HUGH MACPHERSON

Daniel Hugh MacPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus T. MacPherson, of Bellevue, was drowned in Quinby, on June 30, 1927. Daniel MacPherson had gone to work because of the shortage of lumber he could not begin, and while waiting for it to be delivered, he and his fellow-workman, Mr. Charles Stuart went out on Black's River in a canoe. In some unknown way the canoe in which the two were making, capsized, throwing the men into the water, about a half-mile from the shore. Four men nearby went to their assistance, but Mr. MacPherson sank immediately and did not again appear. Stuart was recovered but was unconscious for some time. Searching parties went out with grappling irons to recover the body of Mr. MacPherson, and late in the afternoon it was found.

Daniel Hugh MacPherson was born on July 9, 1901. As a lad in the home he was faithful in Church and Sunday School attendance. He has a remarkable record for memorizing large portions of the Scriptures and the Shorter Catechism. He has received many awards for such service work. Four years ago he went to the United States where there are more opportunities for young men. While there he had been engaged at the carpenter's trade. The funeral services were held in Quinby on Sunday afternoon, and at the home of his parents on Wednesday afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev. Quinby A. McDowell, minister of Caledonia Presbyterian Church, who was assisted by the Rev. McLellan of Valleyfield Church, and the Rev. MacAllister Murray of Quinby. The unusually large attendance was an expression of the esteem and honor in which the young man was held, and of the sincere sympathy for the bereaved family. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus T. MacPherson, one sister, Mrs. D. E. MacLeod, of Bellevue, four brothers, Alexander, in the state of Washington, Angus L., in Quinby, Mass., John Alexander, in Halifax, N. S., and Archie, at home. The remains were laid to rest in the Valleyfield Cemetery.

BUILDING DIVERSITY IS A GOOD SIGN

Construction Not Centred In Such Immense Undertakings As Last Year. Whole Industry Busy. Construction in Canada for the first half of this year has maintained the record volume in dollar value established during 1926, less three million dollars. This has been accomplished by more projects in more localities which is decidedly better for the industry at large. More contractors are busy, more men employed and material orders are spread around. During the first six months of 1927, according to MacLean Building Reports, Ltd., contractors have been awarded to the value of $191,323,800, throughout the Dominion. This compares with the corresponding figure of $191,543,600 for 1926, a decrease in dollar value of 1.6 percent but an increase in volume of work still to be undertaken this year. The figures are: 6 months 1927 - $834,811,000; 6 months 1926 - $804,589,500. The greatest amount of contracts up to June 30th have been awarded in the Province of Ontario where new construction enterprises to the value of $50,500,100 have been awarded or 42.1 percent of all construction. In Quebec the Province 33 percent or $63,165,800 of contracts have been awarded for the same period. 15.1 percent or $28,344,600 is credited to the Prairie Provinces, while British Columbia shows 7.1 percent or $13,635,800 and the Maritimes $5,100,000 or 2.7 percent.

Colman's Popular Recipes For Summertime

People should eat sparingly of heavy dishes during the warm summer days. Salads, fresh vegetables, dainty sandwiches, cheese toasts, deviled eggs, tomatoes and other light, but nourishing foods please the palate and lessen the burden on your digestion.

The following recipes will help to make meals more appetizing. Clip them for future reference. HOT CHEESE DREAMS. 1/2 lb. American cheese or 1 1/2 cups grated; 1 tablespoon melted butter; 1/2 cup milk; 1/2 teaspoon Colman's Mustard; 1/4 teaspoon paprika; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 egg. Mix all the ingredients together into a smooth paste. Spread between slices of bread. Fry the sandwich in butter in a frying pan until nicely browned on both sides. This filling may be prepared and kept indelibly. A slice of bacon may be used as a garnish.

DEVILED TOMATOES. 3 large tomatoes; 2 tablespoons butter; 1 egg yolk; 1 teaspoon Colman's Mustard; 1 tablespoon vinegar; 1/4 teaspoon salt; few grains pepper. Cut the tomatoes in half and over the cut surface of each half spread the butter mixed to a paste with the other ingredients. Bake half an hour in a moderate oven.

OLIVE AND NUT SANDWICHES. Chop finely an equal quantity of olives and nuts and add to it a good mayonnaise made with Colman's Mustard. Spread this preparation between slices of well buttered brown bread and a leaf of lettuce.

NEW MAYONNAISE. Give your mayonnaise a new zest by adding 1/4 level teaspoon Colman's Mustard for each egg yolk blending them before you add the salad oil. For boiled dressing allow 1 level teaspoon Colman's Mustard to each egg yolk.

Colman's Mustard aids digestion

By classifications the apportionment for the six months period is as follows: -Business Buildings $72,561,500 or 38.4 percent; Residential $130,600,000 or 66.7 percent; Engineering $11,666,700 or 2.4 percent; Industrial $7,483,000 or 1.43 percent. Thirty-nine and one half percent of new contracts during June were awarded in the Province of Ontario at an estimated value of $20,654,800 or 39.5 percent; Quebec $16,534,000 or 31.7 percent; Prairie Provinces $10,110,600 or 19.3 percent; British Columbia $2,373,000 or 5.5 percent; Maritimes $1,996,800 or 3.8 percent.

MARKET FOR DOUGLAS FIR STAVES AND HEADS IN NORTHERN ENGLAND

Liverpool imports staves and heads in large quantities, chiefly from the United States and Northern Europe, writes Trade Commissioner Harry Campbell in the forthcoming issue of the Commercial Intelligence Journal. Although it is not considered likely that Canadian firms can compete against Scandinavian producers there is reason to think that business could be developed in Douglas fir heads to compete against gumwood from the Southern United States. Recent quotations on American gumwood heads f. o. b. steamer at point of shipment in the United States have been in the neighbourhood of $85 per 1,000 sets (3,000 heads), for sizes of 18 inches by 1-2 inch, square edged, and 18 and 18-1/2 inches by 1-2 inch, bevel edged. Heads for this market are either made up complete, or properly marked and wired in bundles so that they are easily assembled.

AUSTRALIAN TRADE IN 1925-26

The total of Australia's overseas trade in 1925-26, the returns for which have just been published, was $300,200,387 as compared with a trade of $239,173,455 during the previous year, writes Trade Commissioner D. H. Ross, Melbourne, in the forthcoming issue of the Commercial Intelligence Journal. The value of imports declined from $157,143,296 in 1924-25 to $151,638,178, while exports showed a reduction of over thirteen millions, the figures for the respective years being $162,030,169 and $148,562,209. British countries supplied 56.47 percent of the total Australian imports in 1925-26 against 57.71 percent in 1924-25, while during the same periods foreign countries supplied 43.53 percent and 42.29 percent and Australian exports to British countries for the fiscal year 1924-25 and 1925-26, 53.05 percent and 52.78 percent, while exports to foreign countries were 46.95 percent and 47.22 percent. The value of Canadian goods imported into Australia during the fiscal year 1925-26 is given at $18,246,505, the showing an increase in comparison with the previous year of $1,796,805. Australia's exports to

CZECHOSLOVAK MARKET FOR MOTOR VEHICLES

In the year 1926 about 3,000 units of motor cars and trucks were imported, and of this total North American makes represented approximately 1,500 units, French makes about 500 units, and Italian makes about 500 units, while the remainder were comprised of German, Austrian, British, and other makes. In spite of the high duties and taxes imported motor cars are finding increasing favour in Czechoslovakia, writes Trade Commissioner L. D. Wilgress, Hamburg, in the forthcoming issue of the Commercial Intelligence Journal. This especially applies to the automobiles. All types and various prices cars are in demand, but a special opening appears to exist for the medium priced imported cars. Importations, however, can only take place under license.

School Girl's Nervès

Lost year's time from school with St. Vitus' Dance. Completely restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The anxiety and strain in connection with school life and examinations are too much for many girls who are naturally of a nervous temperament or have become so as a result of anemia or a run down physical condition. Nervous conditions are most difficult to overcome and there seems to be no treatment to compare with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore exhausted nerves. Children's health responds quickly to this well known restorative treatment.

Mrs. George A. Mead, St. Ann's, Lincoln Co., Ont., writes: "Our daughter, who was never very strong from birth, at nine years of age became broken down, suffering from what the two doctors we consulted called 'Midnight Walk,' which was caused from overtax at school. She seemed to show symptoms of St. Vitus' Dance and had queer spells, something like fits, at night. She was out of school for a whole year, as her nerves were so bad. Acting on a friend's advice, we gave her Nerve Food and after a few months' time we began to see a noted change in her, so we kept on with the Nerve Food until she was completely restored and for the last year she has been absolutely free of the old trouble, sleeps well and is doing fine at school. Now we are never without Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in our house, as we owe our daughter's health to it." New rich blood, steady nerves, new energy and new vigor came with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 60c. a box, all dealers or we give her Nerve Food and after a few months' time we began to see a noted change in her, so we kept on with the Nerve Food until she was completely restored and for the last year she has been absolutely free of the old trouble, sleeps well and is doing fine at school.
