HERO WHO INSPIRED FAMOUS PAINTING DIES IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE June 10.—Captain Frederick W. H. Murrell, whose rescue of 733 passengers and crew of the steamer Danmark in 1889, was the subject of the famous painting by the English artist Henry, "And Every Soul Was Saved," died here late today. He was fifty-four years of age.

The steamer Missouri, commanded by Captain Murrell, left London, March 28, 1889 for Philadelphia and Baltimore. On April 5th the steamer Danmark from Copenhagen, in distress was sighted. When she started to sink Capt. Murrell threw his cargo into the sea, and where he had had room for but twenty passengers on the Missouri, everyone of the 733 passengers and crew of the Danmark was taken aboard.

On his return to Europe Captain Murrell was feted in many places. The King of Denmark presented him with the Order of Knighthood and the insignia of the Order of Dannebrog, and he received a personal letter of commendation from Prince Bismarck.

THE CAMPANIA WAS IN NORTH SEA FIGHT.

LONDON, June 10.—One of the ships engaged in the North Sea battle was the Cunard liner Campania, which acted as a seaplane ship. When the cruiser warrior was hard pressed by the German ships and unable to move, the Campania pushed herself between the German ships to the aid of the Warrior. She threw a hawser aboard and towed the Warrior for ten hours, when the cruiser sank.

The Campania was thus the means of saving the crew of the Warrior.
