Boston; Avery Wood, Pownal; G. E. McLeod, Hunter River; L. Vickerso Vernon River; R. W. Rogers, New Glasgow; Thomas Doyle, North Rustico.

On Sabbath evening last Evangelist McKay closed a three weeks service in the Methodist Church at York. The meetings were very successful and the attendance good, people coming from far and near to hear the noted preacher. Mr McKay left the Province for his home, on the 20th, where he will rest for a short time when he will return on January first to resume his labors at Winsloe Road.

Quite an interesting novelty was admired by many yesterday in A. W. Reddin's armoire. A very demure and demure looking little lady mechanically operated, was seen sitting at a proportionately sized piano and apparently was busily engaged in playing the instrument. The music produced was melodious and the natural manner in which the performer acted increased the interest. Several different tunes were played.

The officers elected by Court Mount Stephen, I.O.F. in this city last night were: C. R.—Prof E.E. Jordan; C. D.—John McLeod; V.C.R.—Angus McKenzie; F. S.—A. D. Fraser; R. S.—H. V. Buntin; Treas.—James Tait Jr. Orator—Joseph Storey; S. W.—Alexander Cochrane; J. W.—Preston McLaino; S. B.—Thomas White; J. C.—Lawrence Gaudet; Court Physic.—Doctors McLaughlin and Carruthers. At this meeting one candidate was initiated and Court Mount Stephen enters upon the year's work with a good staff of officers and splendid prospects for a good year's work.

New Wonderland Tonight. Two new reels. Measure for Measure, (a most sensational drama) A Terrible Attempt (one of the kind that thrills). Why Jones was Arrested (see the mighty good reason why) Too Many on the Job, (a great comedy) Redwings Gratitude, (a grand Indian picture.) Song and specialties by J. C. Rathbone. The biggest and newest program ever offered for five cents. 12-22dtf.

A man from Covehead, when returning from this City on Friday night last, was badly injured by falling from his wagon. He is still the patient of a well known doctor of York. Some of the boys took charge of the horse and wagon and took it home. The Temperance Law had been violated in the city for a quantity of liquor was found in the wagon and it had an effect upon the boys.

Last night's audiences at New Wonderland were more than interested and pleased with the large bill of fare presented for the evening. There were three reels, each so interesting and entertaining that perfect reign of supreme except when hunderous applause showed how the onlookers understood and realized what was passing on the screen. The Indian picture, Red Wings Gratitude, was beautiful, while Too many on the Job created roars of laughter. The other pictures were grand, brought out Mr Rathbone's singing was never better. Three reels lightly are now being run at New Wonderland, so that variety, entertainment and amusement are rife in this popular picture house.
