Delegates Shake Hands As Greek Problem Settled

By JOHN A. PARRIS

LONDON, Feb. 6 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council tonight declared the Greek-British dispute over the presence of British troops in Greece settled, and announced that the council would not insist on a declaration that British troops in Greece were a menace to world peace, as the had originally charged, nor that those troops should be withdrawn immediately.

Foreign Secretary Bevin then announced that Britain would accept a formula for settling the dispute which was drafted originally by the United States and introduced tonight by Russia. It provided for having the Council drop the case with a statement by President Truman Makin of Australia, and pass on to the next business.

Mr. Bevin previously had insisted that the Council clearly exonerate Britain of what he termed "this most diabolical" charge.

After Mr. Makin declared the formula Mr. Makin declared the case closed and shortly afterwards the session was adjourned until 5 p.m. (12 noon E.S.T.—1 p.m. A.S.T.) tomorrow.

Queen Elizabeth Sells Without Aid Of Tugs

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 (AP)—The world's biggest ship, the 95,000-ton Queen Elizabeth, sailed today for Southampton after pulling out of the pier in New York harbor under her own power.

It was the first time the liner had tried the feat. She sailed with 1,108 passengers after her 50-year-old skipper, Capt. C.M. Ford, told company officials he was "perfectly willing to go."

An official of the Cunard White Star line said tugs generally were used as an added precaution in backing ships from their piers into the harbor since the Queen Elizabeth could not be turned toward the pier without difficulty.

A strong wind in the wrong direction would have made a turn impossible.

Among the Elizabeth's passengers were Cardinal Villeneuve, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec, en route to Vatican City for the Feb. 13 consistory at which the archbishop will be elevated to the College of Cardinals.

News Briefs

"No Parallel"

Asked if it was the intention of Prince Edward Island's representatives to seek government aid to protect the local distal industry on the island, the Council president replied in the negative. He said there was no parallel between potato growers of Prince Edward Island and fruit growers of the Okanagan Valley in British Columbia who currently are asking for a protective tariff against fruit imported into Canada from the United States.

"This year," he said, "there is no serious competition in the potato market. All the potatoes which have been shipped into Canada from the United States, and I believe the quantity to date has been 5,000 carloads, have not interfered with our own production. The Canadian potato market, where 70 per cent of production is certified seed."

Mr. Boulter said that the series of meetings of the Council which conclude tomorrow have been highly informative and that the interchange of information and discussion of general problems had been helpful to horticulturists in every part of Canada.

The 150 delegates, representing branches of Canada fruit, vegetable and floriculture industries, referred to the board of directors three proposed resolutions dealing with trade agreements and a suggestion to permit system and tariffs on produce.

The directors will revamp the resolutions prior to a meeting next month with the Federal Government to discuss the matter.

Explosives Tamped With Before Dumping

SAINT JOHN, N.B., Feb. 6 (CP)—Information received here tonight from the Department of Reconstruction and Supply stated that explosives washed ashore in Grand Manan Island, the shipments, amounting to about 4,000 tons, passed through the hands of John during the last three months.

The departmental spokesman said some of the sealed metal containers had been tampered with by some person or persons between the times they were taken from the cars here and reached the dumping area.

Authorities had reason to believe that someone, attracted by the containers, had taken the ammunition out of them and thrown it into the sea so they could take the containers home with them, the spokesman said.

Most of the shipments comprised anti-tank fuses and primers and there were no heavy explosives, he added. About 15 had been washed ashore as a result of storms and gales, and all had been accounted for.

Washed-up explosives seriously injured two persons at Lorneville, N.B., and near Digby, N.S. action has been taken to preclude any further tampering with such shipments.

Canada Ready To Make Huge Wheat Shipments

By R.K. CARNEGIE

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP)—The Trade Department today reported a critical world wheat shortage, tonight put its cards on the table with an announcement that Canada will have 140,000,000 bushels of wheat, including flour, available to export by Feb. 1 and July 31, the end of the crop year.

The statement, based on Canadian Wheat Board figures, followed an appeal yesterday by British Food Minister Sir Ben Smith that wheat exporting countries make an effort to send as much wheat as possible to ease the critical situation in Britain and on the continent.

Canada's visible supply of wheat now is 164,000,000 bushels and an additional 83,000,000 bushels are expected to be delivered from the farms to the elevators during the remainder of the crop year, thus making the total 317,000,000 bushels. If 160,000,000 bushels are exported, 157,000,000 bushels then would remain to cover domestic requirements and a comparatively small surplus, as the world's wheat and wheat in World Food Shortage Underlined In Reports From Washington And Canberra.

OTTAWA, Feb. 6 (CP)—The form of flour have been moving overseas throughout the present crop year, which began Aug. 1 last. The first six months of Jan. 31 about 200,000,000 bushels were exported, the bulk going to the United Kingdom.

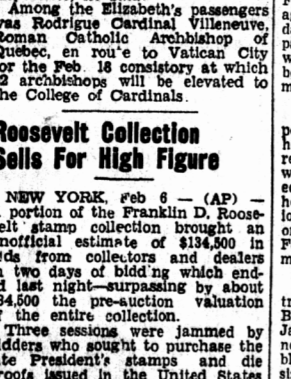

The Trade Department statement came as reports from other world capitals told a story of sharply declining wheat stocks.

In London, Sir Ben informed Britons their bread would revert to the dark type they ate during the war and warned that Britain may be forced to ration bread, a measure avoided even in the darkest days of the conflict. He urged the people to "save every scrap of bread."

In Canberra, the world shortage was underlined when the Australian Government announced the commonwealth was drawing on reserves kept for stock feeding to provide increased shipments to war-ravaged countries. A statement said Australia was sending 5,000,000 bushels from reserves of 30,000,000 bushels.
