—BIRTHDAY PARTY — An enjoyable evening was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gallant, 32 Birchwood St., the occasion being the second birthday of their little daughter, Carole Ann. Guests were Carole's two grandmothers and uncle, Mrs. Wm. Geldert and Mrs. Caroline Gallant of Charlottetown.

—FAREWELL SERVICE — There was a large congregation at the evening service of the Central Street Church of Christ, Summerside on Sunday evening to hear the Rev. William Bilson preach his farewell sermon prior to leaving to take up new pastoral duties in St. John, N.B. He took as his text Luke 23, chapter 34, "Father Forgive them for they know not what they do." A manifestation of love of good-Christ and the triumph of good-ness proof of which is the resurrection. Christ taught always the great message of love. Jesus always practiced what he preached. God in Christ reconciling the world to himself. When we can say with the prodigal son, "I have sinned and I come for pardon," and are made new creatures in him we become conscious members of his family. Wherever our lot in life is cast we have the same Father. The love of God to man cannot be measured. Living Christ is the best preaching. When we talk of the resurrection there is no need to discuss apologetics for it is a great reality. The great message of love, proof of which is the resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ, should be the message to the world today and is applicable to nations and individuals. Read again the story of the Cross and then give him thanks and praise for his goodness. Remember it is what God has done for us. His is the way of love. This is the way the Master went. Should not his servant tread it still, after the benediction Rev. Mr. Bilson asked all to remain for a few minutes. In bidding goodbye to his congregation he commended them all to the care of the Loving Heavenly Father. The congregation then joined hands for the singing of the hymn, "Blessed by the Tie that Binds."—S.
