He would find a younger generation of his family among the most successful of the young novelists—prosperous, popular and of growing fame. The late James Jeffrey Roche was the son of the late Edward Roche, School-master of Charlottetown and was educated at St. Dunstan's College. He left the island when a young man making his home in Boston, where he became editor of the Boston Pilot and achieved notable success as a poet and writer. Richard, D.P., of Rogersville, were students under him.

A WARNING NOTE.—A warning note from the Retail Merchants Association of Canada says: "Please note that a woman and her daughter are moving from town to town in the Maritime Provinces, getting in debt to all merchants who will let them have a cent's worth of goods on credit. They go to a town, rent a flat or take rooms, buy furniture wherever they can get it on credit, furnish their home, live on the best they can get, and buy all the clothes they can on credit. When the merchants begin to look at their bills the ladies pick up what they can take with them and leave town without giving any clue as to where they are going. They leave the furniture and fixtures, and the landlord very often takes this for payment of the rent."

RETURNS FROM CONVENTION.—Dr. McLanahan, St. Peters, who was in attendance at the Canadian Medical Association at Hamilton, Ont., returned home Wednesday night via the Falls and Boston. The Convention was computed as one of the best in its history. The attendance was large and the papers read and the clinics held being of the highest order. A goodly number of the prominent medical men from the States took part. On the way up at Napawee where there is an Aerial training camp the Doctor counted over twenty planes in the air from the car window. Near Nantasket Beach, Mass. he saw potato tops over seven inches high, not in a garden plot but acres of them and Timothy hay out in blossom, at least a month ahead of here. There did not seem to be much excitement over the war but a cool determination to see it through, boys drilling everywhere. He heard nothing but the highest praise on all sides for Canada for her share in the war.

—WEDDING BELLS.—At the home of the bride's parents, Centreville, Bedoue, on Monday evening, June 18th, Miss Florence Ramsay, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mr. Ayers and at 8 o'clock the same evening the young couple were "surprised" by about fifty of their friends, who gave them not a "shower" but a veritable deluge of gifts and good wishes. Among the former, a beautiful cut glass cream and sugar set figured prominently, presented by Bedoue, L. O. L. Judging by the whole-souled heartiness with which the "surprise" was carried out it would seem that the friends had just been waiting for an opportunity to express their good will for and appreciation of this estimable pair. As President of the Mission Circle, Secretary of the Sunday School and member of the choir in the Methodist Church the bride has rendered faithful and efficient service. Mr. Johnson has been called to the colors, and left on Tuesday to don the khaki in the service of King and Country. He will surely make good, belonging as he does to the best type of young manhood, of which P. E. I. has produced many clean and upright in life and character. Pte and Mrs. Orville Johnson have the warmest good wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous future.
