CITY & COUNTRY NEWS

ORCHESTRA at the rink to-night and Saturday afternoon. Splendid ice.

Rev. A. N. Simpson, will preach at Wheatly River hall at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon.

THE concert program of Tuesday night will be played at the rink to-night. Everybody should hear it sure.

ADVERTISERS are again asked to remember that all "changes" must be in no later than 1 p. m., and business locals 4 p. m. to insure insertion following morning.

WE are sorry we had to close the rink Tuesday night, but the Janitor told us it would be better for the rest of the winter, and to-day there is not a hole in the ice as big as your finger.—THE MANAGERS.

DON'T be afraid to tell the reporter who is visiting you or when you are leaving town for a visit. These items help to make the local paper of interest to all. Persons often think the paper shows partiality, but just try and see if it does not treat you right if you give it a chance.

CONGRATULATIONS to Miss Ethel Reid, daughter of Mr. J. D. Reid, Manager of the Telephone Co., who has made an excellent showing at the Christmas Terminal Examinations of the Jarvis Street Collegiate Institute, Toronto, reflecting credit on herself, and her native province. In Form 5 A she stands first in General Proficiency, second in Algebra, first in Euclid, first in French, first in History, first in Latin, and second in Physics.

TYNE VALLEY NOTES.—Owing to the fine weather of last week and the excellent sleigh roads, trade has been brisk for the last while back.—Mr. Daniel McAustin, who has been seeking his fortune in Uncle Sam's domain, has returned home. Mr. McAustin, who has no doubt succeeded favorably, speaks in the highest praise of U. S.—Mr. Jas. Yeo, our ever obliging mail carrier, is giving excellent satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.—Misses Fannie Brown and Winnie Forbes returned home to spend the Xmas holidays. They were accompanied by Mr. Roy Long, another P. W. C. student.—We sincerely sympathize with Mr. Fred Glover in the severe loss which he has recently sustained.—Xmas passed off very enjoyably here. A number of our local sports gathered on Trout River ice and arranged a horse trot which was won by Ally Grey (owned by N. McPherson) driven by J. McPherson, 1,2,1; Dolly, owned and driven by F. Glover, 2,1,2; Jenny, owned and driven by N. McPhail, 3,3,3. The other horses which contested were Mout, Pilot R., and Gertie, and although they did not win a place, showed some excellent bursts of speed.—THE GUARDIAN is a welcome visitor here.—SNOWBIRD.

A FAMILY NECESSITY

Mr. J. Wright, of 126 McPherson avenue, Toronto, says:—"I am always glad to say a good word for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It has been in use in our family for two years, and we have never found it fail to cure coughs, colds, and chest troubles. It is our regular stand-by." Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is a family necessity in the houses of Canada and the United States. 25 cents a bottle. Family size 60 cents.

In the W. C. T. U. Rooms on Thursday, at 3.30 p. m., a missionary meeting. All are welcome.

On Thursday, the 3rd January, at 3.30, in the W. C. T. U. Rooms, a missionary prayer meeting.

PEDESTRIANS as well as teamsters seem oblivious to the fact that the former have the right of way on all street crossings. Ladies are often seen scurrying over a crossing to get out of the way of "flyer." The courts have decided, time and again, that drivers should slow at crossings and that they can be held responsible for any accident caused to a person on foot by breach of the rule.

A VERY pleasant time was spent on Christmas eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McLean, when many of the friends and relatives, including Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, pastor of the East Point Baptist Church, met to spend a few social hours together. All the delicacies the season could boast of were furnished by the hostess and as the party were about to depart, both host and hostess were made the happy recipients of a few valuable presents as a token of good will and unity prevailing.

READERS OF THE GUARDIAN are no doubt pleased to learn of the doing in and around Searletown.—The Xmas season passed off quietly.—An entertainment and pie social was held in Mr. Terrall's Hall, Albany on the 23rd ult. which proved quite a success. A lengthy and interesting program was rendered after which the numerous pies were auctioned, some of them bringing fancy prices. The semi-annual examination of Searletown school, which took place on Monday the 24th, was a decided success from every standpoint a large attendance of scholars and some 40 visitors being present. The teacher Mr. A. M. Doyle, succeeded in adding new laurels to his already high standard as an instructor of the youth and while the residents would greatly regret to lose his services, yet it is recognized that according to merit he should be principal of a first class school.

HAVE HAD THEIR DAY.

Local Treatment for Catarrh Relieved to the Rear.

The surest and safest treatment for any form of Catarrh is an internal remedy which acts specifically upon the blood and mucous membrane. Such a remedy is the new preparation sold everywhere by druggists as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a medicine in pleasant tablet form.

These tablets contain in highly concentrated form, well known germ antiseptics like sanguinaria, guaiacol, Red Gum and similar curative elements, and no one who suffers from any form of catarrh, and has experienced the inefficiency and inconvenience of powders, sprays, and inhalers will ever go back to such antiquated remedies after once trying so pleasant a treatment as Stuart's Caarrh Tablets and one which gives so much relief in so short a time.

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized package and their daily use will effectually cure this troublesome and dangerous disease.

The danger from catarrh is that it is a short road to consumption, to chronic stomach catarrh and to catarrh of liver and kidneys.

Most cases of deafness are caused from stoppage of the Eustachian tube as a result of catarrh.

Try one can of Oak Brand Condensed Milk and you will decide whether it is better and cheaper than a cow. Ask your Grocer for it.
