Shorey's Clothing are well made, from the time the cutter traces his pattern on the cloth until the finishers give the garments their last touches.

Shoulder and collar are moulded by hand, that's why a Shorey Coat holds its shape so long, hugs the neck so snugly.

The funeral of the late Harry Best of Lot 16, who was drowned in Richmond Bay, took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A short service conducted by Rev. Mr. Chapman of Bideford was held at the house, thence the remains were taken to the Methodist Church and interred in the Lot 16 cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended by people from all parts of the district, and elsewhere. Deceased was highly respected wherever he was known and many friends will sympathize with the grief stricken relatives. Besides his father and mother the following brothers and sisters are left to mourn: Oliver, William and Hubert, Mrs. Edward Simmons, Lot 16, and Mrs. Alfred Simmons of Minnesota. The pall bearers were Henry Simmons, Frank Simmons, Seaman Thompson, George Green, Lemuel Winchester and Hammond Thompson.

Mrs. Carry A. Nation arrived in Summerside yesterday morning when curiosity brought a large number of people to the railway station to meet her. On the station platform Mrs. Nation asked for a hack for the Queen which request was misinterpreted by the Queen Hotel driver who, after a subsequent explanation, handed her grip to the representative of the Hotel Russ at which house the lady of the hatchet fame put-up. The proprietors of several of our noted dens and more respectable places of resort were afraid of a visit from the man-fearing woman and it is said had prepared for the attack in their own way of defence; but Carry is not looking for trouble of any kind, though when occasion demands is ready to fight single-handed and without her famous weapon in the interests of the cause for which she is touring the continent. Last evening she spoke in the Market Hall and to-day she goes to O'Leary where she will give an address this evening. To-morrow she will cross by the Northumberland for Norton, N. B., thence to Yarmouth and other points in Nova Scotia, after which she says it is probable she will return to the island and visit Alberton, Tignish and other points.
