HE WILL LIVE TO BE A HUNDRED

Pope Leo XIII's Physician Predicts for Him the Enjoyment of a Much Longer Life Yet.

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The Tageblatt today publishes a most remarkable interview which its Rome correspondent had with the Pope's physician, Prof. Mazzoni, regarding his Holiness' health:
 "What, the Pope ill!" laughed the professor. "He is so well that we might envy him. Except for a slight hoarseness, which was easily cured, nothing has ailed Leo XIII these last two years.
 "He is truly a phenomenon. He grows older in years, but paradoxical as it may seem, he appears to gain in vigor each year. At the beginning of every new decade of Pope Leo's life it was prophesied that it would be the last but it never came true.
 "Mark my words, the Pope will live to be a hundred years old and longer, and even then he will enjoy life as he does today.
 "What should the Pope die of, anyway? He has the constitution of a young man. All his organs are in perfect working order. He leads a regular life, and consumes very little alcohol. His Holiness reads without spectacles, walks without a cane, dresses and undresses without assistance, and works about fourteen hours daily.
 "Really, one can hardly believe that Leo XIII should ever die!"

CHARGED WITH FORGING

J. P. MORGAN'S NAME.
 LONDON, February 18.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Count Maurice De Bostari charged with forging Pierpont Morgan's name on a number of bills, purporting to have been given in payment for purchases of pictures and bric-a-brac.

"77"

The instant a chilly sensation is felt, use Dr. Humphrey's "Seventy-Seven," and take some form of gentle exercise until perspiration is induced. This will break up your cold.
 The persistent use of "77" breaks up colds that hang on—Grip.

WOMEN, WHY SUFFER?

Paine's Celery Compound

Permanently Banishes Nervousness and the Many Female Weaknesses That Afflict Young Women and Old.

Nervous disorders and diseases are on the increase, and women of all ages are sufferers. Digestion gives out, there are pains in the head, the tongue is coated, the muscles ache, there is constipation, heart palpitation, gloomy fears oppress continually, and sleep is broken and disturbed. The only reliable remedy that medical science has given to women for their emancipation from suffering and weakness is Paine's Celery Compound, now so largely prescribed by physicians with the happiest results. In critical cases Paine's Celery Compound has saved life and restored health when all other medicines proved failures. Jessie M. Ross, Quyon, Que., who found Paine's Celery Compound to be "women's best friend," writes as follows:
 "It affords me much pleasure to testify to the great good that Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I was completely run down in health and a victim of female weakness, and after using three bottles of your wonderful medicine I was completely cured. It is the best blood purifier I know of, and I recommend it to all who are troubled as I was."
