Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Any one who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 10oz. bottle put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Either way, this mixture saves about four-fifths of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and heating the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known as the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

TUESDAY
WOUNDED TWICE.—Mr. Samuel Johnston, Peters' Road, has received the following telegram. Sergt. R. A. Johnston, artillery, reported wounded slightly. Remained on duty, Oct. 9th. He was wounded two years ago and has been on active service for two and a half years, being steadily at guns all the time.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The sad death of Miss Margaret M. Green, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Green occurred at S'Side on Saturday at 6 a. m. after a short illness of influenza. Deceased was a lady of sterling qualities and well liked by all those who knew her. About eighteen years ago she trained for a nurse which profession she followed until her death. During the past month she gave all her time to helping those stricken with influenza and by her untiring efforts did much good. She leaves to mourn six sisters: Mrs. James Clark, of Pittsfield, Penn.; Mrs. H. C. Mills and Mrs. W. B. Mills, of Summerside, Mrs. Major Johnston, St. Eleanors; Miss Sarah Green, Summerside and Miss Eleanor Green, matron of a hospital in Lebanon, Penn. and two brothers Herbert Green, Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Digby, N.S. and Fred in St. Paul, Minn. To the bereaved deepest sympathy is extended. Funeral took place yesterday at 2 p. m.

The evening celebration in Charlottetown of the triumph of liberty over the forces of despotism was a memorable event. There was a great torchlight procession by the firemen with their decorated fire apparatus through the principal streets to the music of the band. The streets were thronged with citizens of all ages and all kinds.

The parade then drew up at Market Square where a great concourse of people had assembled. Here a huge pile of empty oil barrels and other inflammable material was set blazing, the match being applied by His Worship Mayor Wright amid roaring cheers.

The bon-fire was pronounced the greatest seen here since the big one sixty-four years ago in celebration of the victory in the Crimea. The main thing lacking was the oratory. There were no speeches last evening.

At 8.20 the Band played "God save the King" bringing the celebration to a rather early close.

The angel of death had visited the home of Mr. Martin McNeill and claimed for its own Arnold G. McNeill at the early age of sixteen years. On Tuesday evening the fifteenth at five o'clock his spirit passed away. He was visited by his loving pastor the Rev. J. A. McDonald and received the last rites of his church. This young boy was of a kind and loving disposition with everybody. For a short time he was on the S. S. Northumberland when he caught a heavy cold. All that medical aid and tender nursing that a loving mother and father and sisters and brothers could give was in vain as Spanish influenza and pneumonia caused his death. There are left to mourn a sorrowing mother and father, five sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Harry Lemont, Bath, Maine, Mrs. Paul Hanson, Boston; Mrs. Jesse Messier, New Jersey; and little Edna and Margaret at home. The brothers are John, W. H. M. S., Fishtubert, Naval Service, St. John's and J. W. and Guss A. at home. His funeral took place on Thursday morning to St. Patrick's church and a High Mass was sung by the Rev. J. A. McDonald, thence to the cemetery where his remains were laid to rest awaiting the glorious resurrection R. I. P.

STRENUOUS TIME AT BORDEN.
Lieut. Abbott, O. C., Port Borden, Camp and Mrs. Abbott spent a few days in the city returning to Port Borden Saturday. The camp consists of fifty interned Germans and some twenty returned soldiers who are acting as Guards. The influenza epidemic struck the camp a hard blow eleven of the returned soldiers being stricken of whom three died. The difficulties attending the care of the sick were greatly accentuated during the early stages of the epidemic by the fact that the sick were housed in cars where necessary comforts were not available. This condition, however, was greatly relieved by the kindness of Father John J. McDonald and Father McIntyre who not only converted their commodious parochial hall into a hospital but were unremittent in their attention to the sick and to those in charge. Later the services of Nursing Sisters Fitzgerald and Compton greatly improved the conditions not only in the temporary hospital but in neighboring homes where there were many cases of extreme hardship, the hardship being much increased by the fact that it was impossible to secure help in the neighborhood. Mrs. Abbott also gave invaluable assistance taking upon herself alternately the duties of nurse and cook. Lieut. Abbott, who himself was seriously ill for several days before help came, speaks in the highest terms of Nurses Fitzgerald and Compton and there untiring devotion to the sick many of whom undoubtedly owe their lives to the care they received at their hands. The kindness of Fathers J. J. McDonald and McIntyre, he says, he will never forget nor will the men whom they so generously helped. Lieut. Abbott has now fully recovered and resumes his military duties today.

ISLAND LADY DEAD.—Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Darrach, New Haven, received the sad news that their daughter Blanche died in Calgary. Her remains are expected Thursday the 14th. Funeral notice later.

St. Dunstan's University has suffered the loss of one of its most popular young students in the death of Mr. Michael Rooney, which occurred on Friday, Nov. 8th after an illness of over four weeks. He was taken ill with influenza which developed into pneumonia, after which complications set in. Deceased was 23 years of age. He was a student last season and was attached this year to the teaching staff. He was a resident of Earncliffe and to his bereaved relatives deepest sympathy is extended.

News was received by wire yesterday of the death in Tacoma, Washington on Sunday of Peter P. Brawders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brawders of this city. He leaves to mourn, beside his parents, three brothers, William and Alphonsus of this city and Leo and one sister, Mary, in Greenwood B. C.

WOUNDED AND MISSING.—Mr. Donald MacKenzie, Flat River, received a wire from Ottawa on the 6th informing him that his son Sinclair MacKenzie had been wounded and missing since Oct. 10th. The many friends of the family sincerely hope that they will soon receive news that their boy is safe.

A Kidney Remedy

Kidney troubles are frequently caused by badly digested food which overtaxes these organs to eliminate the irritant acids formed. Help your stomach to properly digest the food, by taking 15 to 30 drops of Eucalyptol of Roots, sold as Mother Syrup's Curative Syrup, and your kidney disorder will promptly disappear. Get the genuine.

What will You say?

When the war is over and won,
—when the war worn soldiers come back to Canada and home,
—when the cost is counted, the cost in precious lives, in the limbs, eye-sight and shattered health of our noble fighters in the battle lines—the cost in money, in sacrifice and in self-denial—

What part will you have played?

Will you have the right to cheer and say:—
"I did my best—I saved and denied myself—I lent every cent I could rake and scrape to help my country and our fighting boys—I can claim a full share in the glorious Victory because I did everything I could"

—Or, will you have to slink shamefaced and conscience-stricken away from the cheering crowds to your own mean solitude?

If you buy Victory Bonds—the duty of to-day—now—to the limit of your ability with every dollar you can raise—then—and only then—can you say:
