STRAW HATS ARE OUT AT ATLANTIC CITY

ATLANTIC CITY, Feb. 12—Straw hats have hit the Boardwalk. Scores of broad-brimmed Panamas and heavy straws are features at the daily promenades on the Walk. For the most part, the bonnets carry very little trimming on their upper "decking," a simple knot of ribbon of bright colors sufficing. The effect is quite nifty.

DEATH PENALTY FOR MEXICAN REBELS.

MEXICAN CITY, Feb. 12— A death sentence has been imposed upon General Zapata, leader of the revolution, which is raging throughout Southern Mexico as the government's first step in an "exterminative campaign." Fifty followers of Zapata were hanged in the State of Morelos today and yesterday because they would not reveal the federal soldiers the whereabouts of their chief.

After a conference with his advisers Madero issued an ultimatum to the rebels and made it known that "no quarter" will be the government's policy in the future unless the revolutionary soldiers lay down their arms at once.

POLICE LOCATE SLAYER OF FOUR.

LAWRENCE, Feb. 12—After a week of hard work searching the various colonies in this and neighboring cities and towns, the police have succeeded in locating the man wanted for the quadruple murder in the Valley street tenement.

The man is hiding in the Syrian colony in Derry, N. H., and the police there, working with the local force, promise to make an arrest today.

The police have been puzzled for many days as to the whereabouts of the suspect and have shadowed every house where the man was known to have friends, but it was not until today that they were able to declare with any certainty just where he had escaped to.

It was learned early this morning, however, that the man had boarded the Boston newspaper train which arrives here about 4 o'clock in the morning, and had gone as fas as Derry, where he was taken care of by some of his countrymen.

Joseph Ferrari, of the Boston police force, who has been working on the strike here, but was sent home Saturday night, has been hurriedly recalled, and has taken charge of the murder case.

The murders were so brutal and in each case the wounds on the bodies so similar that the police were at first inclined to believe them to be the work of an organized band—a Vendetta revenge.

It was not for several days, however, that they learned the real facts in the case which placed the crimes at the door of one man, a young Syrian who was well known throughout the city.

A young woman had visited the Valley street tenement early in the evening, where the victims and slayer were visiting, was the first to give the police a clew as to the real slayer.

After hearing her story the officers readily came to the conclusion that robbery was the motive, and they started to run down the suspect, but without success until this morning when they located their man in Derry N. H.

The four victims were Joseph and Mrs. Cavaria, Mrs. Annie Tanguay Dennis and Shefe Maroon.

The murder took place in the three-room home of the Savarias, on the top floor of the four-tenement house at No. 137 Valley Street.

Joseph Savaria was twenty-three years old, a French-Canadian, formerly in the navy and working recently for the Lawrence Ice Company.

Mrs. Savaria was twenty years old. She was formerly Kate Clark from Maine. She was married to Savaria three years ago.

Mrs. Annie Tanguay was twenty years old. She was the wife of John Dennis, who is serving a six-months' sentence in Lawrence Jail. Dennis is still in jail, and may be eliminated from the murder mystery.

The Dennis couple lived at No. 104 Lowell street. At times, especially since her husband went to jail, Mrs. Dennis had visited the Syrians.

Maroon was a Syrian, twenty-seven years old. He lived at No. 280 Oak street with his brother, Bashera Maroon. Maroon drew $485 from a savings bank shortly before the murder, went to Providence seeking work, and then returned to Lawrence, and it is believed was invited to the tenament by one of the women, robbed, and in the row that followed was slain. The death of the other three it is thought, resulted in a fight over the division of the spoils.
