

SCHOOL-DAY STRAIN

A parent troubled over a child or a fast-growing youth, could do no better than to utilize the definite help that affords as a strengthening and nourishing factor. A very little of Scott's every day, during a time of stress, furnishes elements of nourishment essential to the blood and tends to confirm a growing child in robustness. For your boy or girl, you will not be satisfied with anything short of Scott's.

PATRIOTIC SALE.—Six young ladies Misses Evangeline Bell, Avila Matheson, Kathleen Bourke, Dorothy Simpson, Stephanie Jenkins and Ruth Hartz held a Tea and Bazaar in St. Peter's School Room Wednesday. They began preparing for this movement early last spring, and the great number of articles which were sold at the Fancy Tables were the result of their own endeavours. In addition to the Fancy Work sale, tea cake and ice cream were sold. The proceeds which amounted to the sum of $75.00 are for the benefit of the Convalescent Home and it is the intention of these young workers to consult with the authorities at an early date as to the most suitable gift. The kindness of the Rev. Canon Simpson in giving them the use of such a suitable room for the occasion was much appreciated by them.

WEDDING BELLS.—Miss Alice Evelyn Moreside, of North Milton, and Mr. George Stephen Steele Roper, of East Royalty were quietly married Wednesday evening at the residence of the groom's sister, Mrs. Reuben McDonald, Upper Prince Street, in this city. Rev. J. D. McKenzie, Pastor of Zion Church, performed the ceremony. The happy couple were unattended.

NOTED ACTOR COMING.—Citizens will be interested to learn that Mr. Theodore Birch, the talented New York actor, is coming to the city, and will put on an opera with local talent in January. Mr. Birch has been giving these plays in the larger cities for the past ten years. Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn, who produced "Right Oh" with such success last May were pupils of Mr. Birch's and were instrumental in inducing him to come to Charlottetown. It is an exceptional privilege for those taking part to get free professional training. The Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. are to be congratulated.

WEDDING BELLS.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin H. Walker, Crapaud, was the scene of a very pretty event on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 13th when their youngest daughter Louise was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Vernon McGougan of Malpeque. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick pastor of Tryon Methodist Church in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride who was given away by her father, looked charming in a suit of navy blue with hat to match and wore a beautiful set of furs, the gift of the groom. As the clock struck the hour of one the bride entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, tastefully rendered by Miss Lottie Ewsom. The many beautiful

THE "GODDESS" CORSET IS PRACTICALLY A NEW CREATION. IT IS the ideal front lacing corset, superior in many important features, to any other front lacing corset.

GODDESS Corsets have flexible rust proof boning. GODDESS Corsets have a protective shield beneath the lacing, ensuring perfect smoothness of fit—without a wrinkle—and without a pinch. The band of elastic inserted in the skirt section of GODDESS corsets draws the garment smoothly and closely to the figure. After GODDESS front lacing corsets are once properly adjusted they do not need to be laced or unlaced. GODDESS corsets are guaranteed for one year from date of purchase, against breakage or rust of stays, or tearing of fabric

Notice to Red Cross and W. P. A's in Prince Edward Island

The Canadian Red Cross is requested to continue work, for, at least one year, and would ask the kind ladies, throughout the country, belonging to the above societies, to assist in making underclothing, and knitting stockings for the re-patriated citizens and refugees in the war-torn districts of Europe. Although the war is over, it is hardly necessary to picture the want and destitution of those people, who lost everything including their homes in the fight for freedom and right. Patterns for garments that are most needed, can be had by applying to the W. P. A. Armouries, Charlottetown.

The Red Cross feel confident that the ladies of Prince Edward Island who have done so well in the past, will continue in the noble work for another year.

All cases can be shipped by freight to the undersigned
