S. S. LESSON.

STUDIES IN THE LIFE OF JESUS, APRIL 7.

THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS Luke 24. 1-12 Memory verses, 4-7.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Now is Christ risen from the dead.—1 Cor. 15. 20.

OUTLINE.

2. The Resurrection Announced by Angels, v. 1-7.
2. The Astonishment of the Apostles. v. 8-12.

Time.—Sunday, April 9. A. D. 30.

Place. -The tomb of Joseph of Arimathea (hewn out of solid rock) in a garden at Golgotha (Calvery), just outside the wall of Jerusalem.

LESSON HELPS.

1. "The first day of the week" is now a holy day in the Christian world, for it commemorates the resurrection of Christ. "Bringing the spices"—To embalm the body. "They . . . and certain others" -That is, certain women of Galilee, who had been companions of Christ while he was upon earth.

2, 3. "The stone rolled away"—As they supposed, by human hands. They found not the body, but supposed some persons unknown to them had removed it.

4, 5. "Two men"—Angels in human form, whose white garments," ("shining garments,"Luke says) indicates their moral purity and superior nature.

"Much perplexed"—At the absence of the body and the presence of the shining ones. "Afraid"—For they began to feel that an unusual event had happened.

"The living"—That is, the Living One. This must have added to the perplexity of the woman.

6, 7. "He is risen"—Never were words uttered of greater importance than these. For the risen Jesuse is the first fruit of the harvest. Now are his words, Because I live, ye shall live also," full of meaning. "Remember how he spoke"—Strange, indeed, that they should ever have forgotten! The prophet of Christ was now fulfilled and the words he had spoken were now recalled.

9, Told all these things unto the eleven. No doubt the women told the news in haste and with great joy: told it to the eleven, for Judas was now dead.

11. "Their words seemed to them as idle tales"—And for several reasons. Incredible that the great stone should have been rolled away? Who could have done it when the Roman soldiers were on gaurd? Strange that two in shining garments should be there! Strange that the Crucified One should have burst the bonds of death and been a victor over it? Death had been ever a sad fact, but that life should be stronger than death and that Jesus was really alive seemed too strange to credit.

12. "Then arose Peter, and ran"—John the evangelist writes that he ran with Peter, and outran him and came first to the sepulchure. Their eagerness is seen in the fact that they ran. John paused at the mouth of the sepulchre, but Peter, true to his nature, went in. His unconscious influence is seen in the fact that John at once followed his example. Both saw that the body was not there but "as yet they knew not the Scripture that he must rise again from the dead.' They had read the Old Testament Scriptures, but had not made the application of them to Jesus, who was the Christ.
