Can't Wait Until Enemy On Doorstep

MONTREAL, June 16—(CP)—Declaring the idea that "it can't happen here has been blown to bits," Defence Minister Ralston today urged immediate full recruitment of a capable home defence force "because we can't wait until after the enemy lands on our doorstep."

He was speaking at a joint meeting of service clubs here in connection with Montreal's reserve army week drive for 10,000 men for the nation here.

Canada, he said, was menaced on both east and west coasts. "There is submarine activity daily off our eastern coast and the mouth of the St. Lawrence has had its visitation from these skulking, murderous creatures ever since the Pearl Harbor attack was repeated."

To the reserve army would go a large share of the responsibility for home defence so "if the reserve army is not recruited we will have to go to it that the men are put through training and provided to support this very important job."

He said there was no political or administrative reason why reserve army service should not be made compulsory "but frankly I don't want to do that if we can help it."

He said the reserve army had a definite place in the plans for Canadian defence. "Here is a place where citizens of Canada can do war jobs. One job is in the day time at the factory, in the factory or at the lathe, or on the farm, and another job in the evening by training and fitting himself to take his place in the defence of his home and community if the need should come."

Association Charged With Violation Of Anti-Trust Laws

WASHINGTON, June 16—(AP)—The conviction of the American Medical Association on a charge of violating the anti-trust laws was upheld by the District of Columbia Court of Appeals today and headed for a Supreme Court review.

Unanimously, the three-judge appellate court sustained the finding of a jury in April of last year that the A.M.A., an influential medical society of the District of Columbia had interfered, in illegal restraining of trade, with operation of group health association.

In Chicago, officials of the Medical Association announced that the case would be appealed to the supreme court.

Group Health Association is a co-operative organization of federal employees. Its members make monthly payments and, when in need of medical aid, are treated without further charge by physicians employed by Group Health on a salary basis.

CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

P. E. I. FOX

King and Col. D. A. MacKinnon. The President, L. W. Hancock, Summerside, occupied the chair with Walter R. Shaw, Secretary. The President's report gave in detail the various activities of the Association during the year which was one of the best in its history.

Provincial Fox Field Days were held at Summerside, July 7th, known as the Prince County Field Day at Charlottetown, October 15th, and at new types were exhibited. These show pelts were marketed by the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association in New York. They were well advertised in the fur journals and brought a high average price. Details of the sale could not be released because some questions regarding their coming under the new ceiling of prices has arisen and it may be some time before matters in that regard can be adjusted. However, it was gratifying to hear the splendid average these pelts brought and the great impression they made on the American fur buyers present when sold.

The President's report paid a tribute to all those who assisted in connection with the Field Days, the Fox Shows and complimented the judges of the shows, Messrs. George A. Callbeck and George Mayers for the splendid way in which the judging was conducted, and the staffs of the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association and the Provincial Department of Agriculture for the assistance rendered by them, also the donors of 8 additional trophies for the 1941 pelt show.

Both Live and Pelt Shows, stated the President, witnessed several new top winners in the championships' past season. This is an indication of the progress only by a few older breeders tends to stagnation. New winners are particularly encouraging to beginners and younger breeders. The Provincial Department of Agriculture, Provincial Government and the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association were accorded thanks in the report for the financial assistance given in sponsoring live and pelt shows and fox field days.

The past year, said Mr. Hancock, has seen in our province a sustained faith in our industry and evidence of improvement in the breeding stock and in the feeding and ranch management. There is, no doubt, said he, that if we held fast to the true practice of good fox husbandry until the present conflict is ended, we will be ready as a body of breeders to meet whatever demands may arise from the new world order in helping to rehabilitate the devastated fox areas and in supplying fine furs which future peace-loving people are sure to demand.

The membership of the Association showed an enrollment of 69 which was an increase of 10. Mention was made of the excellent work done by Dr. C. K. Gunn of the Dominion Experimental Fox Ranch and to B. Graham Rogers, Col. D. A. MacKinnon and others for publicly so freely given. The President's report was unanimously adopted and great praise given him for his efforts in connection with the Association. Secretary W. R. Shaw submitted the financial report which he said he believed could be considered satisfactory under the conditions which have prevailed. It was also adopted.

Hon. W. H. Dennis, Minister of Agriculture, was warmly greeted on arrival at the meeting. Called upon for a few words Mr. Dennis said he was glad to be present. He particularly commended the efforts of the fox ranchers to keep the industry going during the hard years they have faced. It might be said of them that "they kept the faith." Now there appears to be a better day dawning because the past year has been the best in several. The industry is on a firm foundation and even greater progress may be expected in the future. "My Government, and my Department," said Mr. Dennis, "have given all assistance possible to fox ranchers and will continue to help the industry as in the past."

Mr. Dennis received quite an ovation at the conclusion of his remarks. Reports were given by several committees on their activities which drew commendation from the officials who were on the job.

A discussion regarding shows brought out the unanimous opinion of those present that both the live fox show and pelt show should be continued on as large, if not larger, a scale than in the past. The holding of fox field days was left to the incoming executive to arrange.

During the meeting the President made reference to the loss sustained by the fox industry through the death of Dr. J. A. Allan, Winnipeg, G. Shelton Sharpe, Ellerslie, and Robert W. Stewart, Montague. Secretary Harry Stewart spoke very feelingly and eloquently on the contribution these three men had made to fox farming, and at the close the President called on the meeting to observe one minute silence.

The election of Directors to take the place of those retiring resulted in Col. D. A. MacKinnon, Ernest Cudmore and Gordon McMillan being elected for Queen's County, L. W. Hancock and Ernest Mill for Prince County and Harry Davison for King's County. Percy Pope, Auditor. Directors recommended to Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association, D. O. Stewart, Major A. S. Robertson, Lt.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon.

A meeting of the Directors was held immediately after the annual meeting and Lowell W. Hancock, Summerside was unanimously

Find Alcohol Partial Cause Of Man's Death

The inquest called to inquire into the death of Alphonse Polier of St. Nicholas, who was found dead around one o'clock Sunday morning, June 7th, on the steps of Mr. Gaudet's store at Miscouche, was concluded yesterday afternoon at the Court House, Summerside.

The jury returned the following verdict: "We the jury duly empanelled and sworn to enquire into the death of Alphonse Polier of St. Nicholas, which occurred at Miscouche some time between the hours of 11.30 and 2 o'clock on the night of June 6th and 7th, according to the evidence submitted at this hearing, came to his death from a heart condition which was aggravated by drinking alcohol."

The jury were: John E. Campbell, foreman; George Bowness, Chester Palmer, L. B. Crue, C. C. Dickie, Arthur Leard and Alden Arsenault. Dr. W. B. Howatt, coroner, presided at the inquest which had been postponed so that an autopsy could be performed.

Mr. L. G. Lewis, K. C., conducted the case for the Crown and Constable Carter, R. C. M. P., told of being called to Miscouche on the night of the inquest finding Alphonse Polier dead on the steps of Gaudet's store. He also stated that he had interviewed Dr. E. T. Tanton who had told him that he had had a distinct heart murmur and warned him against drinking alcohol. "But two months previous to his death primarily for asthma and at this examination found he had a distinct heart murmur and warned him against drinking alcohol. In his opinion, death would have been likely to occur at any time."

The report of the result of the examination of the internal organs which had been sent after the autopsy to the provincial pathologist, Dr. R. P. Smith, at Halifax, N. S., indicated the heart was very much enlarged, a condition that had evidently been of long standing. There was no alcohol in the stomach, but contents of stomach were alcoholic. There was acute alcoholic gastritis and cardiac failure but no injury to brain, kidneys or liver classes.

Evidence taken at the inquest showed that the deceased had been seen in an intoxicated condition in Summerside about 10 o'clock on the night of June 6th, when he took him home. Leonard MacNeil of Miscouche had told him he would take him home after the stores closed if he would wait in the Greyhound Cafe first around 10.30 p.m. and again at 11.30. He appeared to be "pretty full" but he did not see him drinking. The witness, with two other men and the deceased drove to Miscouche at a taxi. They found Polier on the steps of Gaudet's store. They asked him if he was going to help pay for the taxi and after a bit he said "Do you want some money?" and gave them 75 cents. Witness said he asked Polier if he wanted to go home with the witness and he said "No, leave me here for a while I'll be all right."

Albert Allan of St. Nicholas said he and some companions were returning home from Summerside on bicycles and about one o'clock, at Miscouche, they saw the body of Alphonse Polier on the steps of Gaudet's store. Edward Polier, one of the party felt the man's pulse and could get no sign of life. They went to Mr. Gaudet and he called the taxi driver Thomas Polier the taxi driver gave evidence of driving the four men to Miscouche and then returned home at once.—S

War Regulations On Clothing Are Extended

OTTAWA, June 16—(CP)—The Wartime Prices and Trade Board extended its economy program today to work clothing, leather garments and cotton sportswear.

All unnecessary frills in manufacture of this apparel, the board said, have been eliminated under an order issued by A. Bradshaw, administrator of work clothing, on recommendation of an advisory committee of the industry.

Affected are overalls, smocks, shop coats, dungarees, work shirts, men's cotton work pants and sport coats, boys' cotton work pants, breeches and shorts, leather jackets, windbreakers, ski slacks and bush coats.

Some of the economies ordered include elimination of cuffs and excessively long legs on men's cotton work trousers; flaps on pockets, necks and trousers, waistband, belt loops, unnecessarily wide legs, military pleats on pockets, sewing on woven lapels and pocket reinforcements; and the elimination of so are forbidden. Zipper fasteners are still permissible on windbreakers, combinations and a few other clothing articles.

Firm orders received before date of the order may be filled and existing supplies of buttons, dome fasteners and lapels may be used up.

In ordering the restrictions, the board said it was felt workers should not be called upon to make any unnecessary changes in their clothing. One "guiding principle" in framing the order had been to preserve size and roominess of the clothing.

Islander Among Troops Training At Fort Knox, Ky.

FT. KNOX, Ky., June 15—Arriving here today is the first contingent of the army through its swiftest, hardest-hitting land branch, the Armored Force, a number of Canadians, including Pte. James L. Bruce, East End, P. E. I., is now assigned to the 8th Armored Division, commanded by Maj. Gen. Wm. C. Grimes.

Upon arrival here the men are given comprehensive mental and physical aptitude tests which, combined with their previous experience and training, determine the work for which they are best qualified. After their basic training is completed, they will be assigned duties accordingly. Later, those who show the greatest proficiency will be sent to the Armored Force School for advanced technical training and some, those who demonstrate leadership ability, will qualify for the Armored Force Officer Candidate School from which they will graduate as commissioned officers—second lieutenants.

Wage Regulations In War Industries

OTTAWA, June 16—(CP)—Wages in war industries, where no contract exists between the employer and employees, are subject to a contract clause which makes wages equal to those current in the district where the plant is located, said a reply tabled in the House of Commons today for J. H. Leclerc (Lib. Stafford).

Mr. Leclerc asked the rates at Hamilton; Small Arms Ltd., Toronto, and in Maritime yards at Sorel, Que., Alton, Que., and Vancouver and munitions industries at Valleyfield, Que.

St. Laurent Supports Bill In Commons

OTTAWA, June 15—(CP)—Justice Minister St. Laurent told the House of Commons tonight that 173 years of British connection had "conclusively shown" that the 3,000,000 Canadians of French origin "are not going to be assimilated."

He spoke in support of bill 80 which will enable the government to enforce conscription for overseas service by order-in-council.

"I am convinced that we all want to win the war," he said, "and that we are all prepared to submit to any measure which may be absolutely necessary for that purpose."

"No thinking person can... have any objection to the government resorting to conscription for overseas service in the event of absolute necessity."

The Justice Minister was frequently applauded throughout his speech. He received an ovation from members of all parties at the close when Prime Minister Mackenzie King walked over and shook his hand.

Mr. St. Laurent expressed regret that Hon. P. J. A. Caudin had resigned his portfolios of works and transport in protest against the bill, and criticized Mr. Caudin's speech in explanation.

"In spite of the difficulties which the future may hold in store for the member of this government I felt it was my duty to carry my portion of whatever responsibilities might be involved," he said.

"Other Quebec members were opposing the measure."

"Might I suggest to my colleagues in this House from my own province that they know as well as I do, their constituents are not fully informed of the present situation," said Mr. St. Laurent.
