A GIFT AND ADDRESS OF APPRECIATION. Mr. H. Theodore Pickering, of Stanley, who is now a resident of Hunter River, was remembered a short time ago by the members of his Sunday School class of boys, who presented him with the following address accompanied by a gift in cash: Dear Mr. Pickering.—We, your Sunday School class, wish to show our love and esteem to you as our Sunday School teacher, also to show our appreciation of the deep interest you have always taken in the class. You were so patient and long suffering with us when we were so unruly. We regret that you left us, we miss your words of loving counsel. Please accept this small gift of remembrance as a reminder of your work in our class. We wish you every blessing, may you enjoy many years of usefulness in your Master's vineyard is the wish of your boys. Mr. Pickering cherishes pleasant memories of his boys' class at Stanley and greatly appreciates these expressions of goodwill. USEFUL HINTS Always save the water in which meats are boiled for soup-stock. A Dutch door is nice for the nursery and affords good ventilation. Never forget that the colder everything is kept while making pickers the better.
