SPoon SHOOT

The first spoon shoot of the season was held on Kensington Rifle Range on Saturday afternoon with 18 riflemen taking part. Conditions were generally good with the exception of a tricky wind at the 600 yards. Considering the earliness of the season and the fact that it was the first of the season to some, nevertheless some good scores were made.

In the Class A shoot, the spoon was won by Eric Coles with a 97, this being his first turnout, it looks like a big year for Eric. In the Class B shoot William Welsh took home the spoon with a good 95. An interesting sweepstake was pulled at the 600, which together with a private grudge match over the range by two teams of 2 each provided added zest to the day's shoot.

It is expected that there will be almost double the number in next Saturday's shoot, and in order to encourage new shots, a spoon will be awarded for Class C shots. The scores were as follows:

Class A
Eric Coles	97
J. S. Moore	95
A. J. McCabe	94
J. S. McLeod	94
Ern. McInnis	93
Roy Coles	93
W. A. Smith	93
G. A. Coles	92
Ferry Hooper	90
A. O. F. Gill	90

Class B
W. Walsh	95
Louis Coles	88

E. G. Love	80
A. Spillett	74
S. C. Moore	65

Ranges were 200, 300 and 600 yards.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

BY TEC

PROWSE OFF TO HALIFAX
Carl Prowse, young local water-weight boxer, leaves today for Halifax, N. S., where he will take part in the Maritime Boxing Championships to be staged at the Wanderers Grounds July 8th and 9th. Carl had the misfortune some weeks ago of breaking his left hand in a bout with Bill Longaphie. Since then the injured member has healed quickly, and although a little weak is O. K., according to his doctor. However, this will be more or less of a hindrance to him, knowing that he cannot use it to any great advantage. Prowse's many friends wish him every success in his first championship battle.

ACCEPTS CHALLENGE
Bill Longaphie has accepted the challenge of Malcolm MacDonald, but to take place not earlier than July 28th.

SCHMELING, GOOD CHAMPION
Max Schmeling, the Teuton holder of the world's heavyweight title, in almost every part of the world except New York State, demonstrated recently in the new Municipal Stadium at Cleveland that he is thoroughly entitled to the throne he occupies. In defeating W. L. "Young" Stribling he turned back the challenge of one of the smartest boxers in the heavyweight ranks and did something that had not been done in 277 previous bouts, force the Georgian to stop before the end of the bout. Schmeling was outpointed in the earlier rounds but had his own plan of campaign and followed it perfectly. Stribling had the edge in the first six rounds but from then on, when Schmeling really opened up and took the aggressive, it was merely a parade for the German. He took everything that Stribling had and hardly bore a mark after the bout.

The victory removes any taint from Schmeling's title. Ever since he won on a foul from Jack Sharkey in the Yankee Stadium in June, 1930, and returned home to Germany there have been slighting remarks made about the German's ability and heart. Last night he demonstrated he had the ability and it may not be long before he is reinstated in New York.

The bout was a financial flop. That was forecasted some time ago. It was estimated that the attendance was 35,000 and the gate in the neighborhood of $350,000, but the Madison Square Garden Corporation which staged the bout had previously announced that they could not break even under a gate of $400,000. It was the smallest gate for a heavyweight title bout since the Dempsey-Gibbons match in Shelby, Mont., on July 4, 1923. Last night Schmeling worked for 40 per cent of the gate and will receive about $120,000, while Stribling will

BILL BURKE WINS GOLF MARATHON

(By Alan Gould, Associated Press Sports Editor)

INVERNESS CLUB, Toledo, Ohio, July 6—The most grueling of United States golfing marathons, lasting five days and 144 holes came to an end this evening on the battle-scarred links of Inverness with Bill Burke, the Polish-American boy from Connecticut, crowned as open champion of the United States, and occupant of the throne vacated by Bobby Jones.

Just when it looked as though Burke and his fighting rival, George Von Elm, of Los Angeles, intended to battle it out all week, black hatred Billie rallied to win by a single stroke with a final par equalling round of 71, his best and by far the most spectacular round of the struggle between these two.

Burke finished the second 36 hole play off day with a score of 77-148. Von Elm wound up with a tally of 76-73-149. They had been tied at the end of the regulation 72 holes of championship play at 292 each, two strokes ahead of their nearest rival, Leo Diegel. At the close of the first 36 hole play off Sunday, they were again deadlocked at 149 strokes apiece, so that when they finished the last hole today, they were only a single stroke apart in their record shattering duel. Burke with a grand total of 589 strokes for 144 holes, and Von Elm with 600.

GAINS IS READY
The manager of Larry Gains, Toronto negro who holds the Canadian heavyweight title, stated that a group of Leicester sportsmen have undertaken to back Gains to the extent of $25,000 if a match can be managed with Max Schmeling, German who successfully defended his world's title against Young Stribling at Cleveland.

Gains, who easily defeated Phil Scott, British heavyweight champion, in England a month ago, is prepared to leave for America at the end of the month.

DID NOT IMPRESS GOB
Jack Sharkey, asked on Tuesday if he were going to attend the Cleveland bout, replied: "I wouldn't go across the street to see it. Mrs. Sharkey and I are going to take our children to our New Hampshire camp for the holiday and amuse them by shooting off fireworks." He selected the German as the winner.

SUMMER HOCKEY
Montreal amateur hockey players have gone to Atlantic City for exhibition games. The summer colony colonists and visitors there have the opportunity of watching a winter sport played in mid-summer as a regular ice surface was put down for the contests.

EXHIBITION SCORE CARDS
Mr. E. F. Acorn, well known auctioneer, timer, judge, and what have you, when it comes to good clean sport, has been awarded the contract for furnishing the score cards for the Exhibition races. It will be remembered that Ed furnished the cards last year and put out a very attractive job, and this season promises an even greater piece of work.

GOLF

Glorious golfing weather enticed many members to the Belvedere Links on Saturday and excellent scores were realized in the 1st stages of the new W.K. Rogers Trophy Match. The match was not completed and until the round is over the standing cannot be announced.

Featuring the days play was the feat of a veteran golfer and former champion, Mr. A.A. McLean, ex M.P. Mr. McLean made the tenth hole of the course in one and thus has the distinction of joining the select hole-in-one club. The distance from tee to cup in this unique shot was 140 yards. It is many years since a similar feat has been performed by a local member of the club.

When play for the W. K. Rogers match was suspended mixed foursomes handicap over the last nine holes got under way, Mrs. H. S. Henderson and Arnold Taylor won with a gross of 57 and a net of 37.

Ladies two ball foursomes followed, the winners being Mrs. H. C. Brown and Mrs. Manning Bagnall.

Mr. E. D. Nicholson club president has received a letter from the Summerside Golf Club calling attention to the latter's dance in Holman's store on Wednesday night coming. The letter states that although no formal entertainment is proposed, the Summerside visitors to the links on the day of the dance will be welcomed for an impromptu round of golf. The dance in the evening is a public one.

Two from Boston and one from Princeton, N. J. The ocean racing club of England and the Cruising Club of America are the sponsors of the long race.

DEATHS
CURLEY—At Southport, July 6, Mrs. Margaret Curley, aged 81. Funeral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Martin Smith, Southport.

THE BAPTIST CONVENTION

Financial depression is having its effect. Last year there was no sale for wheat. This year on account of drought fields of wheat are being dried up. But we have hopes of being able to carry on. Rev. Mr. Eaton closed with an appeal for help for the work of the Baptist Church in Western Canada.

It was regretted that owing to sudden illness Miss Archibald was not able to address the meeting.

Miss Bain, who has been on a visit to her home in North River, P. E. Island and who is planning to return to India in September spoke a few words of farewell.

On behalf of the Association, Rev. Mr. Peacock bade Miss Bain, Godspeed, assuring her of our love for her and of our appreciation of her services.

The retiring moderator, Rev. Mr. Peacock welcomed the new moderator, Dr. J. A. Clark, of the Experimental Farm, Charlottetown.

The service closed with a hymn by the choir and congregation and Benediction.

SUNDAY EVENING
The commodious church at Bedeque was unable to accommodate the delegates and visitors who came from all parts of the Island to attend the closing service of the Association's annual meeting.

120 extra visitors were entertained by the home congregation, besides the delegates who were already there. The meetings throughout were most inspiring and helpful and the people went away feeling they had derived much benefit from the religious as well as social intercourse they had enjoyed during the convention.

The newly elected moderator, Dr. Clark was chairman of the evening meeting, which opened with a song of praise by the choir and congregation.

The resolutions were also read at this time and adopted and passed. The congregation was asked to show its approval of the resolution on Prohibition by a standing vote, this was unanimous.

Rev. Mr. Crowe spoke a few words expressing the hope that the delegates and visitors had enjoyed their stay in Bedeque.

Dr. Clark replied and on behalf of the visitors expressed his appreciation of the hospitality extended to the Association by the Bedeque congregation.

During the offertory a double male quartette rendered the beautiful hymn "O Lamb of God I Come." Special prayers were asked by Dr. Mason for Miss Archibald, who had been stricken with a sudden illness that morning and the doctor had ordered her to cancel all her engagements on the Island for the present.

Prayers were also asked for Rev. J. B. Ganong of Sussex, N. B. one time superintendent of Home Missions, who is seriously ill in the Memorial Hospital in St. Stephen.

SOFT PEDAL APPLIED TO LIQUOR LAW?
Summerside Paper Notes Suspicious Happenings In Western Part of Province.

The manner in which the Lea Government is fulfilling its prohibition pledges in Prince County is thus described by the Summerside Journal:

"If the reports which from time to time come from various sections of the county are true, then it would seem that our Liberal friends are preparing to make the coming election a 'wet' one. It is to be hoped that the people of this province will take active measures to prevent anything of this nature, but the wrong which comes that the provincial police who have been doing good work in many respects, are being cautioned to go slowly in certain cases where the offenders are friends of the government does not look too favorable. There are quite a number of episodes from time to time which show that liquor is not a scarce commodity in the county. A large seizure, it is reported, was made some days ago from the premises of a well-known Liberal at Lot Ten, by the provincial police, but nothing seems to have come out of it. A disgraceful drunken brawl occurred some nights ago at a place near the West shore of Lot Seven which disturbed the neighbors for miles around that settlement. Some go as far as to believe that already C-11 election liquor is making itself felt. At any rate nothing was done in the matter. Travelling on our roads will not be safe very long if many more men are to be met on our highways of the kind which a citizen encountered several nights ago between Summerside and Kensington. The man in question was hopelessly intoxicated and needed all the road it was possible to give him. Nothing was done about it and it may be that the next time that this man essays to drive a car in an intoxicated condition some perfectly law-abiding citizen may have to suffer. Such things as this should not occur in a province where liquor is not supposed to exist. It is to be hoped that the present Government during the short time that they are destined to hold office will not exert themselves too strenuously in applying the soft pedal on behalf of their friends.

Big Laugh Hit At The Capitol
One of the season's best comedies—one moment raising the viewer's eyebrows with its dialogue and the next pulling them down with an uproariously funny comic situation—"The Virtuous Husband" made its debut on the Capitol screen last night before a packed house.

The story, based upon the Dorance Davis stage bombshell, "Apron Strings," concerns the amazing and totally unusual antics of an idealistic, young husband, whose mother's letters of advice cause a highly amusing situation. The young wife objects to put it mild, and the ensuing situations easily attain the heights of corrupted entertainment.

Elliot Nugent, brilliant young actor, as the wrongly calculating benedict, walks on and off the screen in his character so convincingly that one very nearly forgets that he is attending a talking picture and that compliment is almost the height of approval. Pert little Jean Arthur is equally well cast, and she turns in one of the most excellent portrayals of her career.

Betty Compton, always capable, and one of the most beautiful women in motion pictures, leaving practically nothing to be desired in her portrayal of the worldly friend of the "wronged" wife.

J. C. Nugent makes it all a family affair when he realistically and paternally advises Elliott about women. He might very well advise the young man, being in real life his father. Allison Skipworthy, from the London stage, Tully Marshall, Eva McKenzie and "Sleep-n-Eat" the retarded colored man of "Feet First" all add materially to the excellence of the opus.

FISH FOUND IN BOOZE BOTTLE
WARREN, R. I., July 5.—(U.P.)—A dog fish was found in a liquor bottle taken from Warren River, haven of rum runners, by eight-year-old Adeline St. Germain.

MARSHFIELD—The annual Presbyterian Tea and Ice Cream Festival will be held Tuesday evening, July 7th. If not fine, Wednesday.

THE PRESBYTERY of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada will meet at Tyne Valley Friday July 10th. Hours of meetings are executive, 9:30; morning 10:30 afternoon 2:30. evening 8.

CHURCH SERVICE—The Rev. J. M. Murchison, Dist. Secy of the Bible Society will conduct services in Sturgeon United Church on Tuesday at 8 p. m. and at Georgetown Thursday night at 8 p. m.

EXORBITANT TAXI FARE—The complaint has been made by a visitor to the Province of having been charged $14 for a single taxi fare to a well-known summer hotel. The regulation fare, the Guardian understands, is $7 from Charlottetown. Our taxi drivers, as a rule, are reasonable in their fares, but where exceptional cases occur of attempts to exploit summer visitors it is in the interests of all concerned that the offending driver be severely dealt with.

AT GYRO—Mr. Warren L. Brenton, Provincial Dairy Superintendent, was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Gyro Club held last evening at the Beach Grove Inn. He discussed his subject, "Some Phases of the Dairy Industry," in a most interesting and comprehensive manner, bringing out many interesting facts in connection with the industry in the Province and in the world in general. Mr. W. J. Monaghan was chairman, and Mr. Walter McNutt was guest. Reports from various committees were received, discussed, and adopted. It was announced that the incoming president of Gyro International would be in Moncton on his official visit to District No. 6, July 16. It is expected that the local club will be well represented. Mr. E. A. Ferguson was presented with a silver mug on the occasion of the arrival of a new son. The presentation was made by the last recipient, Mr. Monaghan. A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Mr. Ken Martin, seconded by Mr. C. M. Williams and supported by Dr. P. A. Creelman. The weekly Gyro dance followed the meeting.

PERSONALS
Miss Audrey Harvey, Linkletter Road, is visiting friends in the City.

Friends of Mrs. Wilfred McNally will be glad to know that she underwent a successful operation in the City Hospital on Friday morning.

Mrs. Robert Ferguson and granddaughter, Miss Patricia Sprague, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Simes, of Park Corner, have returned to their home at Moncton accompanied by Miss Doris Sims who will make an extended visit to Moncton.

Marion Davies Puts Audience In Uproar
Marion Davies and Robert Z. Leonard offer another sparkling contribution to the gaiety of the screen with "It's a Wise Child," her new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre.

This is the sixth time, we are told the vivacious star has appeared under Leonard's clever direction, their last effort, "The Bachelor Father," having set a high mark to shoot at.

The picturization of the spicy Laurence E. Johnson stage play is by far Miss Davies' most captivating feature. In the role of Joyce Stanton, the village belle attacked by gossiping tongues, she achieves a convincing naive that turns the most implacable of scenes into uproarious mirth.

Sidney Blackmer, as the lawyer, who is willing to marry his attractive client to save her good name, finds his sacrifice a mistaken one—but marries her anyway. James Gleason scores as the comic iceman and Marie Prevost is effective as Annie—the servant girl, whose secret marriage and approaching motherhood starts the scandal that reflects upon Joyce.

Others who offer fine performances include Polly Moran as the cook and Lester Vail, who preers his job to romance. Just the right kind of breezy entertainment for warm weather.
