McGowan, at Kensington, were the guests of honor at a miscellaneous shower, at Burlington dance hall, on Tuesday evening. Pink and white streamers decorated the hall, and the bride and groom were seated by Miss Muriel Champion, sister of the bride and Mr. Lloyd Mann, friend of the groom, who had also attended the couple at their wedding. An address was read by Mr. Perley Davison, after which the gifts were opened by Miss Goldie Campbell, while Miss Ruth Proffitt read the donor's names. A variety of lovely gifts were received, for which Leaman on behalf of his wife expressed his thanks, and "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung. Dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening, to music provided by Messrs. Elwood and Carl Crozier. On the previous Tuesday, a shower was held for the young couple, by friends and relatives, when the hall was beautifully trimmed with dahlias and streamers. Assisting in the presentation of gifts were Mrs. Campbell, Miss Jean Adams, Miss Marie Crozier and Mrs. Robert Staver—Burr.

A splendid history of the W.M.S. and allied missionary organizations was given by Mrs. A.J. Matheson. Members of the Mission Band sang an anthem and took up the offering. A fine address was given by the Minister, Rev. W.G. Dickson. The regular choir under the leadership of Mrs. J.M. MacWilliam rendered special music.
